BRINGS INTERESTING MESSAGE

"The Lore of the Northwest" will be the topic selected by Frank Brink Adler, a prominent member of the Portland, Oregon, bar, at this afternoon's address at Richfield, Legion Hall. This lecture will be illustrated, and is being given especially for the Pennsylvania State University, to have an appeal to all interested legal minds. It will be worth while for every distinguished audience than the United States to hear, for the Freshmen In the O. & I. Department, Dr. J. H. Williams, whose supervision this lecture will be under, has made the request that the talk will be thoroughly illustrated, and he has informed the editor that it will be worth while for every legal-minded man to hear, at least on the second hour of the talk.

Mr. Adler is at present touring the United States, giving this lecture in every city of the East. Re- cently he addressed a no less distinguished audience of the United States Senate, in Washington, D.C., in the interest of the Northwest, through a stiff workout on the principles of the law of the section, and the states of the Northwest. Mr. Adler has been given hisEditors' Brevet. On his trip West, he made a visit to the University of Chicago, and was addressed by the students of Y. H. Adams of the University of Chicago, and was addressed by the students of Y. H. Adams.

This lecture will be accompanied by a display of slides, which will be exhibited through a major part of the lecture. A picture of the Northwest will be shown for the first time when we are beginning to appreciate the possibilities of the Northwest. Although the address is being given in the interest of the Northwest, it is free to all students in the university.

We are always ready to talk with young men about entering the life insurance business and connecting themselves with this Company.

There has never been a time when life insurance has been in such popular favor as now; nor a time when people are so dependent upon life insurance as now; nor a time when life insurance was so generally recognized as a necessity. Because of these conditions the business opens a great possibility for young men starting in life, requiring no investment capital and offering features such as few lines of business offer.

CLASS OF 1919 TO BANQUET.

Students of the UniversityFormerly Members Are Invited.

Members of the Class of 1919 will convene at a breakfast Thursday at 8 o'clock, at the Normandie Hotel. This will mark the last of the series of affairs which the class has held throughout the year. Invitations have been extended to all members of the class and seventy-five responses have now been received by Secretary A. Bublik.

Plans for Alumni Day will be announced at the breakfast. Philip Price is now preparing three plans. Men who are now attending the University who were formerly members of the Class of 1919, but due to the war were obliged to drop out, are cordially invited to attend the breakfast.

McDaniel to Teach in Rome.
Dr. Walton Brooks McDaniel, of the Latin Department of the College, has been granted a leave of absence for next year, to serve on the faculty of the American Academy of Rome. Dr. McDaniel will take the post of Professor of Latin in the Institute of Classical Languages.

Arms Race Drive Successful.

Registrations for the class totals between $16,300 and $17,000, with chances of raising a third amount for the Class of 1920. Successful, the Central Committee of this city. Considering the number of drives and the consequent burdening worked on the students, the fund collected was considered to be sufficient.

Junior Repatriation Ended.

Registration of juniors is now concluded, and the class has completed its quota of contributions for the war. Several members are now attending France and the class is now preparing these plans.
