CHAUCES PLAN SPECIAL
SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Fathers of the majority of the students in the vicinity will welcome their own pupils for the regular services. A series of addresses on city problems, by Dr. Bal- timore, will speak at the evening service at the Chester Street Baptist Church. This subject will be "Of Jesus Christ Who Lives in Philadelphia. What Would He Say?" The regular Student Bible Class will be held at noon in the same church, which is on Chest- er Street, above Porltland.

Dr. J. Henry Hemen, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of the Holy Communion on Chestnut Street, will speak at both services of that church. Both Communion will be celebrated at the 11:30 service. The church is located in the back of the church. The regular Student Bible Class of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church at Thirty-third and Chestnut will meet at noon. These classes are very popular among students, and their in- specive teachers hope that all Univer- sity men attend these denominational Bible classes.
