MUSICAL CLUBS BEGIN PRACTICE

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA AND BAND

Concerts on Saturday, December 13, at 8 o'clock, in the School of Music, and on Monday, December 22, at 8 o'clock, in the Alumni Memorial Hall.

NEED MANAGERIAL CANDIDATES

Leaders of the intensive campaign for registration in the Junior Musical Clubs are preparing to draw their activities to a close. As the work begins to wind up, there will be active possibilities that the actual work of practice will be increased, and those who have already begun to work for the Symphony Orchestra and Instrumental Club have not been recalled to other study but will attend the first practice at 7:30 tonight in Houten Hall.

VARSITY SOCCER SCHEDULE FIXED

PROGRAM INCLUSIONS WITH LEADING COLLEGIATE TEAMS IN EASTERN STATES

JUNIOR VARSITY TO PLAY TODAY

For the Junior Varsity team, this means an extremely interesting season. Despite the difficulty of the program by virtue of the weakness of the Junior Varsity League, the opportunities to meet some of the top teams in the country will soon be realized.

LUCAS INJURED IN FIERCE SCRIMMAGE

Hard-scrubbed nasal congestion practice for brief slumber and vacant stare, was due to the Varsity soccer team for the fall season, according to Coach McNeer. The team will play its fall schedule beginning tomorrow.

First University Dance on Saturday

First University dance will be held this evening in the gymnasium. The dance will be sponsored by the University Student Council, and open to all students. The dance will feature music by the University Orchestra.

CONTINUE SALE OF ORCHESTRA TICKETS

An opportunity to hear one of the world's greatest symphony orchestras will be available to University students at the sale of tickets for the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Organized in 1913, the orchestra is currently under the direction of Leopold Stokowski, and its members are limited to 255 and are noted for their technical and artistic merit.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FRESHMAN COUNCIL

The annual meeting of the Freshman Council will be held this evening in Room 120 of the University of Pennsylvania.

FACTORIES PREPARING FOR FRESHMAN RECEPTION

According to the plans for the Freshman reception, it will contain approximately seventy-five pieces. It is hoped that this evening's entertainment will be both an additional activity and an additional benefit to the Freshman experience.

DEBATING TEAM TO MEET OXFORD

The Pennsylvania debate team will meet the Oxford team on October 21, 1922, in a contest that is anticipated to be one of the biggest challenge events in the history of the University. The team will be held at one of the downtown hotels, the name of which will be announced later.

The subject of the debate, which is currently unknown, is known to the Pennsylvania debate team as the "British Policy in Eastern Europe," and will be discussed in three rounds.

PARLIN SPEAKS ON ADVERTISING

Delightful Refreshments Following Speeches Outlining Policies of Various Campus Publications

NEW NEW EXPECTED TO SIGN UP

Members of the various campus publications and the holders who attended the meeting held by the Fraternity House in Houston Hall last night united in decrying the affair a great success. Although a smaller number of freshmen took part, the attendance was not as great as had been desired.

The principal address of the evening, delivered by the director of the Research Department of the Curtis Publishing Company, was appreciated by all. Mr. Parlin told of the many ways in which the various publishers might improve their prospective advertisers upon the value of giving deeper thought to the wording and concept of the advertisements. He also pointed out how the advertiser might make a stronger impression upon his customer by pointing out the actual results to be obtained through advertising. Mr. Parlin, in explanation, cited some cover il-alations of the methods employed by some of the larger publications to obtain their desired ends.

At the close of Mr. Parlin's talk several of the editors and business managers spoke, outlining the aims and plans of their respective publications for the year. They urged a stronger support of the University by the studet body and briefly mentioned the requirements in the various competitions.

At the conclusion of the remarks everyone was served with refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake. Upon the exhaustion of this supply the meeting was adjourned, to be continued an another session by all who were present.

BASKETBALL COMPETITION NOW OPEN TO SOPHOMORES
All Sophomores in good scholastic standing are eligible to enter the competition for the position of assistant manager of Basketball. The competition starts now and lists will stop when four men will be selected. These four men will compete for the position of Varsity Manager during their senior year.

The five who fail to win this competition become Junior Varsity manager, Freshman manager or manager of the Intramural tournaments.
The position of Basketball Manager is a desirable one as this is the most popular winter sport at Pennsylvania. Last year was the best time in six years that Pennsylvanians did not win the Intercollege championship.

WHICH COURSE ARE YOU PLANNING TO TAKE?
DO YOU KNOW
Not only a small percentage of those who are graduated in law or medicine become successful practitioners? And that, on the other hand, many now engaged in other pursuits would have made good physicians or lawyers? The mastery of the intellectual requirements of any vocation does not insure success therein because other abilities are required which a University course does not test or develop.

BEFORE SPENDING your time and money on any particular course of study, why not make sure that it is in line with your abilities and natural aptitudes? Our analysis, which is based upon over forty years study of thousands of faces and all the vocations can give you that success. Booklet “H” upon request.

These young men who are wandering about the campus with long faces are those who could not get along with the faculty last June and are now making vain efforts to become popular. Yesterday we asked, what do you think about it and he remarked: "There is no justice—nor any value to being honest any more than women's pants running."

Concerning Advice

Upon our President's Crossing, what is probably the most difficult schools of a college career, there demands a veritable avalanche of adjuration and advice. It is next, at times, to become somewhat of an embarrassment. For we at the campus delight in playing the sage to the hesitant lads in those big and wandering eyes, a little tired, perhaps, not unnaturally utters that simple but time-honored plea: "Get on with it—see this thing all one sided."

Well, the race is still open for your favor. We all have to do in taking the Inquirer to the theater afterward and then to the Alpha. So be it. But the note which your advisor, business opportunities on playing parties, etc. We certainly would like to see the crowds aware in a few contributions because we have to see this thing all one sided.

Tomorrow we are going give the details about the competition for the corso for the suburb. However don't let these notes deter you from sending your consultation today.

My Wonderful Fraternity Brother

We are a bad meal. A fraternity brother returned the other day with the pleasant news that he had fixed things up with a couple of girls who were his home town. They are coming here today. All we have to do is take them to the Inquirer to the theater afterward and then to the Alpha. No be it. And your wonderful fraternity brother has done for you. You are wonderful enough that we will cut underliners and wait for two weeks. So don't expect the ordeal to have anything blissful tomorrow.

Season's Swimming Schedule Arranged

At a meeting of the Intercollegiate Swimming Association, attended by be managers of the teams of the member institutions, the schedule for the approaching season were arranged. Walker Wood, Wh. D., Manager of the Pennsylvania inters can announce the following program for the University teams:

Dec. 11: C. C. N. Y. at New York.
Feb. 10: Yale at Home.
Feb. 24: Navy at Temple.
Mar. 1: C. C. N. Y. at Home.
Mar. 2: Columbia, Away.
Mar. 9: Home, Away.
Mar. 18: Columbia at Home.
Mar. 21: Intercollegiates at Princeton.

This year's swimming team is hard hit by the loss of several good men. Armstrong, intercollegiate champion diver has left college and Gettell is not expected to return until February.

Durham, Chase and School of the swimming team last year, are back all though it was expected that they would not return.

It is rumored that Monroe, a Culver plunger and Spier, the Metropolitan ski will enter, making certain a good fresh man combination. A call for swimmers will be issued within the next few weeks.

Newman Club Will Welcome Freshmen

Tomorrow night at 8.15 the Newman Club will hold a reception. The object of this meeting is to welcome all Catholic students; freshmen are particularly urged to attend. Following the reception a dance will be held at the Club. The music will be furnished by the Club orchestra, consisting of fifteen pieces and led by James Mathews, Wh. '21.

Many prominent men on the campus will speak, such as John Bollman, Jack Knowl, Bill Hollandschier, Reifler, W. E. G. C.'s, this year's captain of the baseball team, and Joseph, Beach. W. E. C.'s, will speak. The speakers are all well-known and their addresses will do much to interest.

The Newman Club has planned to hold a card party every Monday and a dance every Friday night throughout the year. The club is also active in social service, and conducts an employment bureau which utilizes the services of its members.
