PHILOMATHEANS BEGIN TRYOUTS

Requirements for Admission to Literary Society Outlined at Annual Freshman Reception

ALL UNDERGRADUATES ELIGIBLE

All Presidents, as well as upper classes of the undergraduate schools are invited to try out for membership in the Philomatheans. Noctorious initiation at 7:30 o'clock on the fourth floor of Col- legiate Hall. This is a good opportunity to observe the society as it may be. Most of the members are enrolled by Moderator Frank Reamen. Tryout and Freshman Reception held last Monday even- ing.

Admission to the society will be based on a short speech by the candidate and on the recommendation of two professors. All members to be authenticated by himself. No fee tomorrow, next, and next Thursday the society will be held away. Priest evening at 7:30 in the Philomathean rooms.

The work of the society includes a weekly literary or social meeting, as well as the attendance of the "Columbia" a magazine written by the members and held out for their exclusive use on certain special subjects. No profit motive within the society and with other college organizations of similar character. Miss Mary Ann, students in the work of the club.

Any more details concerning the admission to the Philomathean Soc- iety may be obtained at the club rooms.

Dr. Archer Holmes, in his address, stressed the opportu- nity for men desiring to become more proficient in public speaking, debating and amusing themselves.

Dr. Holmes is chairman of the writing of short plays, the best of which are produced on Philomathean port- able stage. No pay for acting.

CHAPEL TALKS GIVEN DAILY BY DR. HOLMES

Dr. Archer Holmes, president of the psychology department of the Univer- sity of Pennsylvania, is conducting a seri- es of talk at chapel in the chapels on the third floor of the Philomathean rooms. He will hold these talks all during the fall. In his address, Dr. Holmes is discussing the psychology of the human mind, the nature of America's foremost authorities, and the most famous authors. In the talk on "How men do the things they do." The meeting starts promptly at 9:30 a.m.

"Hat is action resultat from a de- sire," said Dr. Holmes, "but "Why not" said Dr. Holmes, "allow this force to operate upon the mind and you will have our trouble, work and wages of people.

TENNIS PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

Preparations Made For Fall Tournaments

Preparations have been completed for fall tennis tournaments for upper class and freshmen, and those interested are requested to report at a meeting in the college dining hall at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, October 7th. Those tournaments, an entire new series for the benefit of the teams, will be held in the school and in the city.

The upper classmen will play on the court, and one who will be considerably increased in the demand for tickets. Those are to be used for admission purposes, and are expected to furnish an idea of the available seats. Those are so arranged that the public may choose the seats at will. All students are eligible to competition.

Prospects for the Varsity team are bright this year, with Captain Mar- gan, Noyes, and Yarnall from last year's team still in the school, along with several promising members of last year's freshman squad. The freshmen match is also very encouraging with Ross, one of the best of the younger, in the New Team and the third string, and Bartlett, of Penn Charter's, being a force to be reckoned with. The first string, of course, is always the best. The match is on Friday, October 11th, at 3 p.m.

FRENCH CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS

Will Have Interesting Program for Year

Meeting for the first time this year, the Notre Dame French Club will hold its election of officers for the coming season in Room 10, Houston Hall, at one o'clock today. As there is but one out of last year's officers in the University the organization will be in the hands of entirely new men.

The meeting will be conducted by Herbert National Prima, 23 Wh. former Treasurer. Further is a native of Canada and speaks French fluently.

This meeting is a branch of the Alliance Française, a national organization for the promotion of the French language. It holds joint meetings with the Latin Prima, the women's branch at Pennsylvania University.

Membership in the Circle affords an excellent opportunity for those interested in French to become more familiar with the language. Those who wish to have may also derive benefit from the society.

New members are urged to attend today's meeting.

The organization carries on a regular program of one meeting a month, at which French Prima, and a French language, is given. It also presents a French play each year.

SETTLEMENT HOUSE STAFF ANNOUNCED

Several changes in the personnel of the University Settlement House have been announced by the Christian Association. Miss Helen Hall, of New York, who was employed by the movement in the Philippines and China, will be the new head. P. O. Nimmer, 25 Wh., will be the director of boys' work and James M. Nimmer will have charge of the gymnasium and physical recreation. In charge of the domestic work will be John A. Slaw and George F. Patrice, seniors in the medical School, while R. E. Stover has assumed the position of resident student.

Miss Hill, after seven years serv ice with the House, has been forced to give up active work but will continue her connection through the summer. Work is already under way at the Settlement House with the old leaders assisting at the head of their old gangs. A program has been thoroughly worked out which the leaders feel sure will be of benefit to all those who take advantage of it.

A noticeable feature this year is the interest which is being taken in education, especially by the old or boys. Five or six are taking College preparatory courses at Central High School and Haverford Preparatory School. There is as especial demand at this time by men who know manual training, printing or drawing. The boys are better fitted to leading clubs, special attention being given to discipline and morals. More men are needed at the House because of the extension program planned and the Christian Association is hopeful that the necessary assistance will be given in order that it may be carried through successfully.

Singing Club Meets in First Practice

At the first rehearsal of the newly reorganized Singing Club, held yesterday in Houston Hall under the direction of Miss McElwee, plans were discussed for the affairs to be scheduled for the new school year for the coming year. The pur- pose of this till is to have each elementary class, training and songs ready to repeat advanced material in one. The members of the Glee Club are reminded that there will be rehearsal tonight at 7 o'clock. Prizes for the best group will be awarded to the best group at 7 o'clock. Prizes for the best group will be awarded to the best group at 7 o'clock. Prizes for the best group will be awarded to the best group at 7 o'clock. Prizes for the best group will be awarded to the best group.

PROGRAM ANTICIPATE BIG RETURN

Entering upon the last day of the dues drive, the Arts and Wharton Associations will make special efforts to give all students an opportunity to join the organizations. Particular attention will be devoted to a definite system of solicitation to be conducted in College and Lesbian Halls during the day.

David Zook, President of the Arts Association, tactfully augurs that success now and the culmination of the three day period of canvassing as the activity now planned can only be prevented if sufficient funds are forthcoming to defray the expenses of the attending features. Their features are to be pressed by artists of musical, theatrical and literary circles. In addition, the Annual Antithesis, the big Arts Men's event together will be conducted, the entertainment of the affair being entirely original and novel.

In the Wharton Association the largest feature of their work is in holding Vocational week. Men representing various types of industry lecture to the student body in presenting the attributes, trial, and tribulations of their respective professions. These lectures are of great assistance to men in deciding their life-work.

With the excellent work of the Associations in presenting lectures and conducting smokers last year, the solicitors have strong points on which to urge their propositions. Solicitors will receive a badge distinctive of their departments and which also signifies the spirit of good fellowship that is the aim of the organization.

There are magazines for people who are interested in almost god, gossip, stock-politics, breeches, for people who want to be amused with sea stories, western stories, funny stories, love stories; for people who like bathing girls, chorus girls, society girls; there are several magazines for people who want to be bored. It is not just "another magazine," but for the only journal in America devoted exclusively to art, literature, and ideas. These things are not decorative additions to life, but are the deepest satisfaction of all intelligent or sensitive persons.
