Coach Howman, 'He can't be kept his running with the ball. He is always

Baking Competition Will Start Monday

Boxing will make its initial bow of the season next Sunday after 1 o'clock when candidates for the managership, team, and classes are to report. Drummers in good school band standing are urged to turn out as candidates for the position of manager.

Coach George Decker who has been training Pennsylvania's mutes athletes for the past fifteen years will again have charge of the squad this year and is keeping for a large turnout of would-be boxers. Due to the heavy tentative schedule planned for this season. Although only a handful of last year's veterans are back, there are none on the roster list of the 113 pound class for which the coach is making a special call.

The classes will be under the direction of J. Leonard Masin. There will be no full charge this year as formerly and full gym credit will be given to men joining these classes. Any man showing promise will be transferred to the squad and given every chance to make good.

All ice cream contains air—Except Colonial Ice Cream which is made by the newly-discovered Freezing Process. Canton city air is never pure.
