GALA HOLIDAY MARKS VICTORY

Great Enthusiasm Shown in Celebratory Bonfire on Field Win of Saturday

NAVY LOWERED TO WATERY GRAVE

VOLUME XXXIX—NO. 28.

Yesterday's celebration was one of the most successful that the University has ever seen. It originated with the "Thirteen, Ray!" yell that shook the campus last Wednesday. This was the first official bonfire, and the Program Committee included the whole day, classes being returned near 8 o'clock this morning.

Coach Heisman and "Poor Miller" as apparently ready in state during yesterday's festivities. No talk ever provoked them more enjoyment and toward satisfaction, according to the veteran to, who has developed a "wonder man." To have developed a "wonder man.

Three routing cheers are due the door of the Navy. All the members of the team on their journey to the game. The crowd witnessed that he never experienced a more subtle and attractive game, the Navy led 8-0. The latest scenes on the "one home base," and "Riggers" stick to the ship's leaf.

NEW COMERS ADDED TO SCHOOL

As a beginning to this year’s activities of the University Settlement House, a dinner is to be held at the home of the Settlement House, on Saturday, November 1st. Any ones interested in the work performed by this branch of the University Settlement House, are cordially invited. A limited supply of tickets necessary. Any members of the Settlement House in the number of these volunteers which will be addressed by several new members throughout the city for their work.

Due to the tremendous success of last year’s activities, the Settlement House will continue to work this year and has added a course in printing, carpentry, and mechanics. The new course will be of especial benefito the boys when they decide to enter the printing. These fields enable them to learn more about their future, besides providing helpful exercise under the direction of efficient leaders. Some volunteers from the University have been secured to conduct these follow which will take place every Saturday.

Members of the Settlement House are gathered by selecting a group of boys from the streets who travel together and usually form a disagreeable element in the community. They are formed into a club within the Settlement where an outlet for their excess spirit is provided in the competitions. Between the clubs, each group in under the direction of a

THE GREAT RALLY
Pennsylvania celebrated a great football victory with a great student rally. And in the city history of the Red and Blue, it is to be desired that either victory or rally were ever exaggerated. Yesterday's spontaneous outburst of spirit and enthusiasm was a fitting tribute to a spirited eleven and the magnificent battle fought.

Furthermore, the rally furnished conclusive proof that Pennsylvania has a student body which will reflect no discredit upon the University. Despite the high degree of excitement possessed by all students that partook in the rally, so toward event took place where the University might well be ashamed. In holding back any invasion of the city until the proper permit was secured, this student body showed a proper respect for the law, and its comfort in the course of the rally was such as to justify the confidence of the police department in granting the permit.

To Present Pennsylvanians should be the thanks of the student body for permitting the rally to proceed without accident. To the officials in charge of Saturday's game had it been fit to penalize the team II should fare defeat. Said, "We are bound to have our fun.

The first reason, and by far the most important, is that we haven't been given a "lip" in some subject or other.

The atmosphere of our Club Rooms will make the Pennsylvania team II should fare defeat. Said, "We are bound to have our fun.

McGill University. The northern's had one of the strongest teams in Canada last year, and when looking for new fields to conquer the fans of Pennsylvania lined them to the United States, a radical departure from their usual policy.

Another international contest has also been arranged. The combination representing Mercer College, of Macon, Georgia, which will come north to face Pennsylvania on January 27th. Last season, the Georigans possessed the leading college team of the South. In the All-Star tournament, in which both cities and colleges were admitted, the Mercer quintet was the surprise of the meet.

The contest attracts from the 1922 season are Lafayette and Pittsburgh, both of whom were unable to arrange suitable dates. Lehigh, Villa Nova, and West Virginia were disenclined to make room for the new teams on the schedule.

MUSICAL CLUB PLANS DRIVE FOR ENLISTING NEW MEMBERS
Asking for aid from the alumni and the music lovers of Philadelphia, William G. Moore, president of the University Musical Club, outlined the plans for the club's income through the Pennsylvania Granite last week. The article brings out that income is needed for the support of the organization and it is planned to obtain this support by subscriptions for concerts to be held throughout the year.

The club consists of the University band, chorus, instrumental and sight reading class. The last named will be developed into a University Chorus.

The whole club has four classes of membership-life, associate, alumni and student. Various amounts have been fixed for each class. A member of the club has already established a fund which will be used for prizes for student composition for new Pennsylvania songs, and it is expected that an even greater interest will be taken in the organization this year.

DENTAL SCHOOL SENIORS ELECT CLASS OFFICERS
As a result of the senior class elections in the Dental School yesterday, Alfred Y. Langdon, of the varsity football team was elected president, while Lee Reichenbach, of Yonkers, N. J., was selected vice-president. The secretary-treasurer is Thomas McVey, and the officers of treasurer and auditor were appointed to G. W. Haines and E. F. Birt, respectively.

At the same time, ballots were held for the executive board on the Dental School. If you're one of them, look out for the one who's done the most. To this position, Harry J. Adams was the left-off with a vote.

G. W. Brown, as Business Manager, and J. A. Matthews as Art Editor.

The Class of 1922 also held elections for officers. President: The report was delivered by Richard Hughes, president; J. P. Hackley, vice-president; Richard Cline, treasurer; James Morgan, secretary; and R. K. Miller, historian.
