GET THAT!

After a heavy day's work last night, our room-mate came in with a great complication—a hair of the dog that died of undetermined causes. It is reported that the face of the man who took it was disfigured by a blow, and he was found hanging from the fence of the college grounds. The police are on the lookout for the perpetrator, who is believed to be a member of the '48 class. The hair is a valuable commodity, as it is said to be the original of the mythic '48.

OUR DANCE

The dance that was held last night was a great success. The music was excellent, and the decorations were worth seeing. The guests were all in high spirits, and the night ended with a grand review of the college year. The next dance will be held in the same place on the same date, and tickets will be sold at the usual price.

"OUTSPRITING" SPIRIT

The game with Penn State will not be a matter of team against team but of spirit against spirit. Never before has the situation been as noxiously in the interest of the Pennsylvania team in this triangular element and in so doing recognized the importance of the student body in its maintenance. Pennsylvania "outsprung" Navy, and like the apparatus Navy realized its failure and used it to help themselves into the fighting mood that defeated Penn State. The rear guard of the Pennsylvania engine that were "outspritted" by the Pennsylvanians consist of the twenty-four lost last Saturday, and if they are tourists they will be up for a spirit which will overshadow the great spirit of the two-weeks ago.

Penn State's task is to "outspring" Pitt, thus Penn State and Franklin Cornell. The undercurrent of campus life which has never flagged in its zeal must be transformed into something that is of value. If Penn State takes the crown-Pennsylvania had but a fraction of its available material at the initial practices. Intercolleg.

of accuracy. It was not his tosses that impressed the Army backs.

One of his most impressive achievements of the day, however, did yield any gains. Surrounded by several Army tacklers, he apparently started around the end, but, while on the dead run and off balance, threw a beautiful long pass to Winscombe.

It was so unexpected that the flaky and sash launched it just six yards from the end zone goal line.

Army's second score came in the third quarter, on an overthrown pass to line

In French, former All-American star, who started thirty yards for a touchdown.

After this the Johnny backs spiced up and cantankerous plenty of drive.

Spurting to score upon the soldiers for an advance deep in the field. However, Hahn broke up all chances for a score when he intercepted a forward pass and dashed forty yards down the aisles for a touchdown.

French and Hahn were the lumberjacks of the attack for his Third Army Corps.

Navy and Grove formed the core of the defense considerably. It is not often that players who are merely supposed to provide scrimmage for the Varsity are able to offer such strong resistance against a team containing such renowned stars of the address. In view of this, Coach Mc-

Namaras's charges played exceedingly well against those odds in its first defeat of the season.

Statistics of the game:

First Down—Junior Varsity 5, Third Army Corps 3.

Punts—Junior Varsity 4, for an average of 42 yards. Third Army Corps 2, for an average of 12 yards.

From scrimmage—Junior Varsity 64 yards. Third Army Corps 87 yards.

Forward Passes Completed—Junior Varsity 2, for 20 yards. Third Army Corps 1, for 3 yards.

Student Committee Plans Progressing

Plans made earlier in the year by the Student Relations Committee for the contention of Preparatory school teams during the regular season combined, are progressing rapidly. All football teams that have competed so far at Franklin Field have been entertained and aided by members of the Committee two of which are appointed each Saturday to check the interests of the vendors. In order to advertise the University still further the names of over fifty of the most prominent eastern schools have been placed on the missing lists of the

Red and Blue. Punch Bowl, "can't miss" and Franklin Field Illustrated. By this scheme it is hoped that more of the prominent schools will become interested in Pennsylvanians and by interesting their friends secure the best type of undergraduates for the University. Special plans will be made for the entertainment of the teams competing in the Annual Weightman Hall Basketball Tournament in March and the Relays in April. Each of these events draws bands of contestants from the most prominent schools in the country and each year many new men matriculate at the University as a result of their treatment in these two events.

Start Preparations For Zelo Production

Application for the cast of the play to be presented to the Zeloorphic Society this year will commence tomorrow night in the Zelo Rooms at 7:15 o'clock. Both the men and women aspirants for parts represent the best dramatic talent in the University. Many of these have had experience in productions of other societies or in Zelo plays of former years.

As an aside of the University's plans to earn a place in the cast a large number must turn out. Primers have been made and the following will have a chance of making the cast:

Vittas—Missos Boone Schiffer, Lilias Barney, Cecile Walley, Mary Barney, Dorothy

Failing, C. Asher, W. Schumann, C. Ruhi, W. Gordon, H. Johnson, and M. Hanna. A majority of these will survive the final selection, which will take place soon and will fill a place in the large cast.

The comedy which the society intends to produce was recommended by Arthur Hombie Quinna former Dean of the College. The players are being contracted for by Mr. and Mrs. W. Price. Who have done this work for more than ten
