SALE OF BANQUET TICKETS COMES TO A CLOSE TOMORROW

In order that every Junior will have an opportunity to purchase his banquet ticket today, members of the committee will be present at the assembly in Wightman Hall this afternoon to supply the demand. A canvas of all fraternity homes will be conducted at the close of this gathering.

These speakers, well known to many of the Junior Class will give short talks on the conclusions of the class ban- quet. The committee has been success- fully in securing Wightman McGee of the Public Ledger staff, Dr. W. P. Harrison of the State University Department, and J. Hoe and Berry for these addresses. Howard Berry will be remembered as one of Pennsylvania's greatest athletes. In his undergraduate days "Nap" won the mantainbush three years in succession. An excellent menu is being prepared and splendid entertainments will be pro- vided. The University dance orchestra will play during the serving of the meal. A copy of the Junior Annals will be pro- vided to each man as the favor of the season. No extra charge is to be made for this publication. in consideration of this fact, the price of $1.50 a plate is more reasonable.

A CHALLENGE

The purpose of interrupting the first term's work in December for a vacation period is to grant to the students of the University an opportunity to share the Christmas holidays with their families. This arrangement makes possible very pleasant vacation, re-energizing, fruitful relaxation. It also affords to many students earning their educational expenses a chance to gain substantial sums by securing employment during the December vacation.

The abbreviated vacation decided upon this year by the University authorities, beginning as it does but two days before the week of December 18th, will, we think, be to the advantage of Undergraduates who hail their home during the holiday business. For badly defeated they'll B. T. M.'s

Said solely upon underclassmen for support. Those who have it their Inalienable right to assume passive indifference to all such endeavors. Prior to this year the weekly asset,SCMiles were attended chiefly by Sophomores and Freshmen, and now as it approaches the campus for nearest loti, highest qualities of Pennsylvania spirit.

A CHAMPIONSHIP IN MUSIC

Haverford's popular scholastic at the Intercollegiate Fricie Club Contest in New York have greatly conviced the devoted colleges and universities that organization is as fundamental in the success of college music as in college athletics. With the realization that the Pennsylamia Musie Clubs were hampered by inefficiency, a group of alumni gathered the fruits of the organization and, with unflagging courage and foresight, laid the foundations of a new Music Club, competent to cope with the tremendous problem of an organization.

This organization has proved its merit beyond question, and now as it approaches the campus for a complete expression of appreciation it should be accorded the same recognition granted a team that has evidenced the highest qualifications of Pennsylvania spirit.

A hearty and representative response to the drive for Associate Membership in the new Music Club will assure the success toward which it is striving. The monetary advantage is so obviously in favor of the clients that none of the campaign arguments against campaigns are in order. But were even the offer to be less generous, the Music Club should be very forthcoming to draw support. Supervision of an Intercollegiate Basis is as worthy a goal as a championship in football or basketball, and the organization working toward supreme deserrves the last bits of support from the Pennsylvania man.

GILKEY HEELER HEARS ANIMATED DISCUSSION
Yesterday afternoon a heated discussion between a student president in the Christian association and another member was overheard by theGilkey Heeler. It started with a simple question.
"What do the mowers "Reserve November 23, 24 and 25" mean?
"They mean that Charles W. Gilkey is holding a commission of mission in Wightman Hall those evenings."
"Well, who is Gilkey?"
"Dr. Gilkey is the outstanding speaker to college students in the M4066 West."
"What will he have to say?"
"Oh, some sort of thrilling religious revelative etc."
"Twocouldn't aid; he has come simply to awaken the college in the public way to the problems which confront thinkers of today."
"Why aren't we read about that?"
"We haven't the time—what's more, Gilkey will interest as well as inform."
"How do you know all that?"
"By the testimony of men who have missed him at Harvard. Yale and Am-phd where he speaks every year."
"Does he mean his staff?"
"Yes indeed, he has spent many years in social service work and has just recently returned from a speaking trip."
"Will we see a few of those Harvard views and plans?"
"Gilkey was a Harvard man, actively involved in all sorts of undergraduate activities, and is now a professor of the University of Chicago."

NEWMAN CLUB WILL GIVE NOVELTY DANCE
Arrangements have been completed for the annual dance to be given in the club rooms of the Newman Club this evening. A committee of four members has been appointed, made up of members of the club.
After the dance the Newman Club Rooms will be the center of a great party for the university members.

CONTINUE GOLF PLAY AFTER INTERRUPTION

recovering from the two day delay caused by rain and conflicting examination periods, play in the golf tournament was resumed at full speed yesterday. although this temporary condition of play has proven fatal to hopes of completing the tourney before the commencement of the academic year, efforts will be made to rush the competition through to its completion.

the matches today are as follows: H. Duncan 24c vs. K. Wilson 28c; P. W. Pinckney 24c vs. F. Frederick 32c; W. T. Festa 19c vs. H. F. French 27c; W. M. Price 28c vs. H. B. De Vicq 28c; R. L. Workman 28c vs. W. E. Sorel 25c; H. Hendricks 56c vs. D. A. Snead 56c. tomorrow's schedule is as follows: H. M. Metzler 20b vs. H. Hendricks 25c; W. W. Willcox 8c vs. J. P. Mitchell 25m.

recent results made public yesterday were: G. L. Leake 27c, defeated to J. J. Smith 3c, and H. Jensen 25c, eliminated F. J. Strauss 21c, by a score of 6 to 2.

there were 15 men left in the tournament out of an entry list of 50 yesterday afternoon. six of these were in the Freddie man and the balance is in the upper class competition.

PHILOMATHEANS WILL HOLD TOYED TONIGHT

trials for the philomathean society will be held tonight at 7.90 in the dining room, and are limited to two days. the session will begin at 7.30, and will be closed at 9 minutes, or they present a paper to the committee in charge. the election of the officers and the formation of the society will be held at the international house tonight at 1:40, they will be held in a body the football team which is to be held next week, all efforts will be made to rush the competition through to its completion.

MUSIC TO FEATURE PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

under the auspices of the seniors class, the women's undergraduate association will present a literary and music evening at the weekly reception of the international house tonight at 8.15. there will also stage a sketch sketch entitled "what's your racket?" for the entertainment of the foreign students and their guests. a march to increase in accordance of undergraduate students at these open houses has been noted. the committee in charge has planned to keep the program up to a high standard, in order to encourage students of this country to meet those who hail from over twenty-three lands.

music evening will be held at the international house. an excellent orchestra has been obtained and no effort has been spared to ensure a pleasant evening for the guests.
