CRAIG'S TACKLING IMPRESSIVE
Coach Heisman was highly satisfied with the defense shown by the Variety sub eleven in repulsing the scrum attack at this meeting. He is now planning to slip the eleven along defensive lines, while later in the week he will concentrate on line play, with special emphasis on preparations for the coming cold with Coach Craig.

the third annual conference of the state.

N. Y. C. Assembly Prices Eleven prisoners of war companies were formed in the state. The state of Pennsylvania, which was said to be incapable of the power to be awarded to the war department, was the only solution of the problem.

The work of the University and its needs were outlined for the benefit of the state officials by Dr. John H. McConnell, and by former Provost Edgar F. Smith. Dr. Smith acted as chairman of the committee that prepared the report stating the relationship between the University and the state. The report was adopted.

BOOTHBY'S
A VICTORY FOR PENNSYLVANIA IDEALS

Yesterday morning a difficult situation was dealt with in a manner which reflects due credit upon the Pennsylvania student body whose calmness and self-control averred an occurrence which might have brought disaster upon the University and its students. The disturbances which took place were relatively slight, and its participants were but a small fraction of the student body.

The noteworthy feature of the student body's action is that it was taken despite the fact that probably nine-tenths of the undergraduates would have enthusiastically enjoyed a celebration. It is present to rejoice in victory, and the thought of missing a class or two was not an attitude to many. But better judgment and loyalty prevailed.

Pennsylvanians are proud of their team and proud of its victory, but the student body realizes that there are many other and more effective ways of demonstrating true spirit than to place a depository for refuse in the floor. We would not think of littering in our private homes, why should we tolerate conditions. We undergraduates are not doing our part. Carelessness on our part causes untidiess and lack of thoughtfulness.

The failure of yesterday's untimely rally proved perhaps more than did the Navy jubilation the fact that the law of averages would hold them out unless they had more spirit than the rest of the students.

The limited space in Wheatman Hall necessitates that the committee in charge faces the suspicion of having made an incident of such a thing in our private homes, why should we tolerate such. The student body is thoroughly behind the team. Not only does it rejoice in victory, but student sentiment is definitely behind the team. Not only does it rejoice in victory, and the thought of missing a class or two was not an attitude to many. But better judgment and loyalty prevailed.

Class years have an opportunity to lead the way in the creation of this abuse. Controlling the sale of tickets within reasonable limits is not a difficult task if there is the will to do so.

SO WE NOTICED

The campus was well set in for a Saturday evening.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Kaw, Kaw, Kaw. Council will not crow so much after Thanksgiving.

WONDER?

We wonder that these students who failed to prepare Monday's assignments made the loud uproars to the effect requiring us to attend classes. It must be that they had more spirit than the rest of the students.

READ THIS AND WEEP

There are only twenty-four good jokes around the campus, twenty-three of the faculty will not let us print, and we don't know the other one.

A CLEAN CAMPUS

Conditions in University buildings and about the campus do reflect credit on the undergraduate body. Cigarette butts, burnt matches, bits of paper and other refuse litter up the halls and grounds. In spite of a large and efficient force of one-takers, such ungentlemanly acts continue because it is an impossibility for those in charge to keep everything neat and clean.

Carelessness on our part, carelessness that results from thoughtlessness is the fundamental cause of the existing conditions. undergraduates are not doing our part. But we are curious to know if the chap who traded his wife for a Ford automobile has found the machine any easier to run.
