CAGEMEN BATTLE URSINSON TONIGHT

Coach Corning's Diplomas Will Have Three Veterans in Line Up
Facing Bantamets

Both Quintets Are unequalled

Pennsylvania vs. Ursinus

Competition will be held at 9:15 tonight in the Ursinus gymnasium. The senior team of Pennsylvania, which was defeated by Ursinus, 42-22, last year, will be looked on as favorites to win the game. Pennsylvania, which is now the number two team of the Ivy group, has been the most consistent team of the group this season. Ursinus, on the other hand, has been inconsistent, which is the reason they are not rated as a favorite. The game will be a close fight, but Pennsylvania is expected to win.

ENGINEERS GIVE FINAL SHOWING

Pennsylvania's big band will appear in the Alumni lineup to-night. This is the first appearance of the band in the alumni program for several years. The band, under the direction of Mr. H. W. Parker, is composed of the best musical talent in the university. The program will include a number of the university's favorite songs and a number of new pieces. The band will be accompanied by the university choir, which will sing a number of the university's favorite songs. The program will be a great success and will be enjoyed by all who attend.

PLAY HAS PROVED HUGE SUCCESS

"Letting Lazy Law" or "The Tale of the Yellow Dog" the engineer's popular show will be played the last time tonight. The play has been a great success and has been well received by the students. The play, which was written by a student, is a comedy about the life of a lazy student. The play has been well received and has been well attended. The play will be played for the last time tonight and will be a great success.

POOL TOURNAMENT ROUNDERS
NARROW DOWN COMPETITORS

Winners of the matches held yesterday
day in the pocket billiard tournament in Houston Hall are asked to report to Mr. Bell today between 10 and 12. Two champions have already finished their series of matches. Stidolf beating Waples 50 to 47 while Ruppert, the Alten-toun champion, waited with the long end of a 50 to 15 score over Wright, and made himself freshman champion.

After all the class winners are picked,
expect to develop a team to play the other university champions.

Thursday's winners were: Ruppert, 2 games; Wright, 2 games; and Stidolf, Waples and Lower one game each. The victors yesterday, excluding the two championship matches were Cruz, Fisher, Lehman and Smith.

FIRST YEAR RIFLE SQUAD REQUIRES NEW CANDIDATES

More candidates are needed as soon as the freshman rifle team. Any first year man who desires to come out for this squad, can report any afternoon between 2 and 4 at the Armoury as the corner of 32nd and Lancaster Avenue.

It is important that the shooting sharpshooters report in large numbers as the Varsity teams of future must be developed from the men who have had experience in intercollegiate competition.
Last year Pennsylvania had the National Championship, and it will therefore require excellent marksmen and hand practice to uphold the reputation which the Red and Blue now hold.

An exceptionally fine schedule has been arranged and the freshman team will compete with some of the leading yearning Sharpshooters in the country. One of the novel features of this sport is that many of the matches will be carried on by telegraph.

FINANCING STUDENT RELATIONS WORK

The work carried on by the Student Relations Committee is due to the efforts of the undergraduates, and the success of its work will be reflected in the character of the men participating in student activities at the University. The more desirable the men accepted to Pennsylvania, the better will be the pers. of our student organizations. It is, therefore, to the interest of every student to carry his duties to the best possible credit of the Student Relations Committee whenever possible.

Any man of the most substantial character can be recruited by financial contributions. At the present time, the Student Relations Committee has no definite source of income. Its work in very nature, and therefore the scope of its service is largely determined by the amount of its funds. Worst, many campus organizations to contribute to the Committee a definite sum of money each year, the latter would seem to be more essential in extramural work material.

However, cannot be expected from every organization in the duties which they are made capable. If no organization were permitted to escape this duty, the financial contributions would need to be so large as to be impossible. The substantial burden would be laid on any one body.

Not only would such a tax, if the term may be used, be unjust, but it would be wholly just. Campus organizations are possible only of the University, and they are thereby indebted to it. It does not seem unreasonable that they should oblige to contribute a small amount for the privilege of using it.

There are two possible courses of action we wish to tender a few suggestions. One of the first requisites of hospitality is courtesy. No student will be on Franklin Field—of that we feel sure. Therefore, if the Undegraduates or persons not connected with it, will be held to start a fund in his memory. Today every student will be called upon to give to a fund, the interest from which will be suitably appropriated by the University for its Inveterate readers.

A PERMANENT MEMORIAL

Shortly after the death of Andrew Lang, the student body gathered in Westmount Hall to pay tribute to his memory. Today, alumni, students, and friends will participate in a ceremony on Franklin Field to create a permanent memorial that will forever bear the name of this beloved student. At this time, the Red and Blue Varsity football teams will meet as a show of support for our student body's initiative.

A small admission will be charged which will go to a fund, the interest from which will be suitably appropriated.

VARSITY NATATORS Win Opening Meet

New York, Dec. 15—The College of the City of New York and the Red and Blue swimming and water polo teams have invited honors tonight at the C. C. N. Y., Pool; the Pennsylvania natators winning, 45 to 25, while the Lavender and Orange team was defeated. The meet was divided by the score of 31 to 21 in a hard fought water polo game. In the swimming meet, City College gave Pennsylvania unexpected opposition. The two contests marked the opening of the Intercollegiate League season.

The 440 yard swim, the 220 yard breast stroke, and the 110 yard backstroke, were added to the list of events of the Intercollegiate League and were contested for the first time in place of traditional events for the distance and 200 yard flies. The time in these events was not remarkable, but interest in them was shown and competition was

All Jewish students are urged to join the Menorah Society for if they will become better acquainted with Hebrew ideals and customs, as well as with their co-religionists.
