Pennsylvania was the first institution in this country to achieve the distinction of being known as a university; that its wealth of tradition has been growing ever since it was founded in 1740 by Ben-ages than any other school could claim.

HOLIDAY SCOUTS OF APRIL

Please hailled composed by W. J. Miller '23 and illustrated by W. T. Marie '24.

Managing editor Henth also has contributed a clever story entitled "Highland Hope." It has been illustrated by Pihie' 23. Following the story theme are Robert W. Service, Ryan '24 has written The Role of Smurdering thru with clever letters.

The mass issue of the Punch Bowl will appear the latter part of January. All material for this issue, "The New Leaf Number," is due on January 5, 1923. To-day at 6:45 there will be an important meeting for both the business and editorial boards in the Punch Bowl office.

Hard throw from Sullivan to McGraw and was the means of acquiring the Varsity's touchdown. The second half was full of action, for the older men had sensed the "big fight" and felt themselves back on the team when the games were real games. The Alumni had their opponents against the wall and it was only a fumble recovered by Westgate that saved the day for the '22 team. They increased by 20. It is hoped, especially by the old grads, that there is no change in the Varsity's fighting spirit from the season, during which time it was handicapped by numerous changes in the line-up. The Alumni title, however, was regained every year in the future. The past games of this sort that was played was in 1913 and its revival this year will probably result in future battles.

War Veterans Select Emblem

Orders are now being taken for the emblem selected by the C'est la Guerre Board. The pin cost $1.25 for the rolled emblem and $1.50 for the solid gold. Members who have not placed their orders as yet, may do so in the Houston Hall Office. A deposit of $1.00 is required.

STATE'S BOWLS Unbeaten

Penn State's soccer team has just completed its fourth successive undefeated season, during which time it was handicapped by numerous changes in the team coaches. This year's schedule included victories over such strong teams as Lehigh, Navy, and Harvard.
