"Eddie" McNichol

In "Eddie" McNichol, Varsity Mentor, we have "one of our own," a graduate of the class of 1917. He has always been active in upholding the prestige of the Red and Blue on the basketball court.

"Eddie" McNichol, the fourth member of the McNichol family to wear a Penn jersey on the court, received his early training in the game at La Salle prep of Philadelphia, and was one of the most important factors for the success of the school team during his four years at the local academy. In 1917 he matriculated at the University of Pennsylvania, and after one year's

A FRIEND OF MINE

Bought a suit of clothes from a well known college tailor. It was very nice but almost in conservative, giving him the appearance of an old man. When asked about it, said from present financial conditions he would be better in time, he would have to wear it. This long—also the suit was an investment—being worn in many ways—for the coat could be worn with white face—white up—white trousers—red trousers—for formal afternoon wear, business suits, etc. When the extra pair of trousers became baggy in the knees they were to be made into kidsuits. Take it all in that a suit of clothes.

The above merchandise items are all English imports.

Gym Leaders Will Hold First Smoker of Season

The Gym Leaders of the University will hold a smoker Friday evening in the rear room of the gymnasium. This will be the first gathering of this nature that the leaders have had so far this season, and every man is urged to be present.

Several speakers have been secured to address the leaders and discuss their work in general. In our opinions also announce that business of importance will be brought up at the smoker. One of the features of the evening will be the presentation of letters (P. L. C.) by Dr. McKeen to the leaders who earned them last year.

There are about 125 gym leaders on the list this year, and this number will be raised to 150. Therefore there still openings for men who have had experience in this work.

Dramatic Club Meets for Decision on Constitution

There will be a meeting of the University Dramatic Club for the purpose of voting on the new constitution tonight at 6 o'clock in Room 200 College Hall. This constitution has been drawn up as an improvement on the former one which was said to be out of date.

The list and cast of one-act plays which are to be presented in the near future will be announced at this meeting. Those plays are to be produced in a series, and from this series one is to be chosen to be presented at the Forrest Theatre for the benefit of the Actor's Fund.

Men and women are needed for roles in the plays of this series and the following series of plays which are to be rehearsed soon and entered in the Future Competition. Those who wish to try may report at the meeting tonight.
