Swethport College, a inter-honored rival of Pennsylvania in all branches of sport, will send a basketball team against the Red and Blue with a solid line-up game day at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The score is important from the Pennsylvania standpoint, as it featured the four key players whose loss has been noted in the six league games in a row which ended in defeat.

The Little Quakers were handpicked by the loss of their All-American Captain, and the withdrawal of last year's team. Coach Matt, Melchert-Jones, and Mr. McCollum are left to form a formidable combination. Aesop, the best player in the entire league, is out of the picture. Shanks and Haskins have displayed the forward brain of their brethren in the absence of a key man. Although they were defeated in the Atlantic City Invitational they have never been a given game.

The Red and Blue riders, under the direction of Mr. Morgan, have recovered From their injuries and are eager to go out again. Their probable line-up will be final opportunity for the coaching staff to decide if the present team is able to stand the heat of the league games which soon may come in.

On Friday the Red and Blue express were unable to return home from Sunday's match in a tight finish. At the present battle, the Lenahan brothers, coach of the Intercollegiate League race, as both teams have home games.

Stewards Agree On Three Mile Course

Thanks given to the Intercollegiate Rowing Association classic to be held at Philadelphia on June 26, will row down the same course, the same distance over which they competed both last year and in 1922. This decision was reached by a vote of three to one last before the announcement of the final meeting of the stewards held last Thursday, attendance alone held out for a return of the old course.

At the January session of the stewards, Lenahan joined the Blue and White in the demand for the longer course, existing a fixed stand between Cornell, Pennsylvania and the stewards. Suggestion of the old course was met with the decision to take the extra three miles. At the same time, Scholastic rowing must be of such a character as to include the best men in the student body, it has been so decided, the stewards announced.

In a perfect form for the season, the teams entered the challenge. Although Cornell is represented by the old team, the Tiger is represented by a new crew, the recent return of Cornell's entry in the Intercollegiate Invitational race, the same strength is maintained.

The combined team will be composed of Captain J. G. W. Colton, at No. 1, Lambert at No. 2, and Austin at No. 3. Strong and Wall will likely put all into the event for a victory. It is not known what the combination will be, but all the crew men are so far. Scholastic rowing must be of such a character as to include the best men in the student body, it has been so decided, the stewards announced.

UNIVERSITY DAY

For most undergraduates the greatest significance of University Day seems to be the fact that classes are suspended and the campus passes into its harried life. But this brief success is only incidental and is granted to afford the students an opportunity to attend the exercises of the day.

In a century ago, in 1826, February 22nd was chosen as the birthday of George Washington and the tradition of service which they have inherited from those earlier times has been carried on. Accordingly, alumni, trustees and faculty have united in providing two functions for the occasion. This morning's exercises at the Academy formally mark the anniversary and I will be bound well worth-while by every student who attends. The Annual Alumni Dinner this evening is attended each year by alumni, trustees and faculty.

In two or three days we cram enough to pass, and in two or three days more it is forgotten. What remains is what we would not "bold their Job down." By what we do "every day" the reasons "how come" are:

1. If any participant should accidentally set his course by a new grammar in the dark, instead of the regular search lights, and if an accident or collision results therefrom the owner of the motor will be held responsible.

2. All failing of passing friends and exchanging of pilots must take place outside the three-mile limit, under penalty of being run down and sunk.

3. Letters must be signed, but signature is perfectly familiar with the ground plan of the Gym—pardon the pun. We nominate for the position either of two Pennsylvania long and honored standing, who have served Pennsylvania unceasingly and unflinching for many years, who have proved many times their extreme steadiness. I'm sure they've probably found from this detailed description whom we have in mind. Correct! We have derided to help out the trustees and students, and students, and students, and students, and students, and students.

4. Contestants losing their bearings at any time are at liberty to consult any committee member, if they can be found.

5. 3. A certain tax cab company advertises "the only treated cab in Philadelphia."—We agree—and we commend the truthfulness of the ad in saying cab instead of cars.

6. All couples are required to display red and green running lights.

7. No couple shall stop or reverse without sufficient notice to the following couple. Notice in writing preferred.

8. Each couple must be in charge of a licensed pilot who is perfectly familiar with the ground plan of the Gym—pardon the pun. We nominate for the position either of two Pennsylvania long and honored standing, who have served Pennsylvania unceasingly and unflinching for many years, who have proved many times their extreme steadiness. I'm sure they've probably found from this detailed description whom we have in mind. Correct! We have derided to help out the trustees and students, and students, and students, and students, and students, and students.

TOURNAMENT TO START SATURDAY

This Year's Interscholastic Basketball Ball Championship

Numerous Entrants

CONTESTS WILL LAST ONE WEEK

Pennsylvania's Interscholastic Basketball Tournament, which commences this Saturday, will attract an unusually large number of entrants from both High School and Prep divisions. Both winners of last year's tournament, St. John's Manhasset and Crosby High, will be on hand to defend their laurels.

Many improvements over the previous tournaments have been made this year by the Basketball management. In its first place the court in the Armeries at 2nd and Lancaster avenue will be used to play some of the games. Weightman Hall will also be used as in former years.

The majority of the entrants will arrive into action on the first day. General admission to either the Armeries or Weightman Hall has been fixed at twenty-five cents. At the opening day the contest will be staged continuously from 9 o'clock in the morning until eleven at night.

Handsome prizes are to be awarded to the winners in each class. The victors on each winning team will be awarded gold basketballs, while the runners up will be given silver basketballs.

On Friday evening, March 1, the various teams competing in the tournament will be the guests of the Basketball Association. The invitations will be held in Weightman Hall. Moving pictures will be shown and addresses will be made by some of the Red and Blue team captains.

Roper will stay with Princeton. W. W. Roper, head coach of the Princeton eleven, will guide the Tigers when they connect themselves with this Company. He has signed a contract for his service.
