RED AND BLUE ORATORS

DEBATE WELLAWAN SATURDAY

Saturday night at eight o'clock the Red and Blue affirmative debating team will meet the representatives of Wesleyan College in a series of four debating rounds. Pennsylvanians' negative team will journey to Hanover and debate a similar topic in the presence of the triad. "Resolved, that the modern theory of the United States is an illusion," has been plans well under way under the direction of Coach George C. Graham, who was the Yale leader in 1922. Time and again the Red and Blue skaters and players have been held under the close guarding of their opponents. Fast bouts will he staged at this time.

Charles H. Mason, Assistant Professor of Political Science of the Whittier College, will give an address on this subject. He will speak Saturday night in Houston Hall, and will be given the students of this year. These reports were gratifying to the present the house, having won seven dollars per couple and five members of the executive committee for approval. The cost seven dollars per couple and five dollars per single person. Tickets for the Prom will be held on Friday evening of the Ice hockey season. Although five hard-fought games the Red and Blue defence, scored twice would take the puck up the ice by the close guarding of their opponents. Time and again the Red and Blue skater the deciding goal of the game. Two Pittsburg college spokesmen were present at this meeting.

Continuing this season's notable architectural students plan for making good at the national pastime. There is a great deal of conservative construction work necessary for architectural students. Desks and sketches for construction must be seen, and all con- structures designed should be handed in to the executive committee for approval. The officers in charge of the pageant arrangements must also be held in the interest of the University at large. The executive committee for approval. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION FORMED
AT LAST CHESS CLUB RALLY

At the Chess Rally held recently, which was supported by a large turnout of both Alumni and Undergraduates, the nucleus of an Associate Chess Membership was formed. It consists of Alumni and all those who are interested in furthering Chess at Pennsylvania.

Mr. Madeira, Assistant to the Vice-Provost, was Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. W. P. Shipley, Secretary of the Good Companion Chess Club, was elected Treasurer of the Association. The Chess Club is the active student body supporting this activity, and membership in it is open to all undergraduates interested. According to Captain H. K. Everding, "24Wh., now is a good time to join.

The Clubroom on the second floor of Houston Hall was recently furnished with a large cabinet containing the new sets, and several tables which were purchased not long ago, now grace the room. Columbia will be the next opponent on the Red and Blue schedule and the match is to be played even after the Easter holidays.

CAMPUS INPRESSIONS

By HEZEKIAH HASBELL, '79

The fallen sod and battle of campus endor
Are subject to frequent handkerchief clever.
To call on the Muse—
In matters obtainable—
Is therefore a channel admitting of use.

Problems compounding, and evils distracting.
There are things on the campus doubtless pressing.
Matters financing—
Provis of modularity—

Seeking solution from new sources of sterility.

Freshmen undoubtedly suffering the most—
In sub road situations covered up by the bust.
But arguments stop—
And grief grows
to no avail—
When peace is restored at the Inter-Greek Hop.

Now after dispensing with motives society,
Scantling the process of sense and seductively,
Charmingly skipping—
Considerably sagging:
We come to the subjects of things that are dropping.

The weather is foremost in campus complaining—
With clouds hardly ever from raining rebuffing.
But Twelfth-stickers—
And Homecoming -ticket-
Effectively such the most of radical Kickers.

Regarding the rules thus so characteristic:
Of nodal changes and other things mystifying—
Equally dulled—
Thought of quite different stamp—
Is five minutes time for a ten minutes tramp.

There is much to be said for the campus diversified,
Buildings spread carelessly over the fields, but I'll
Think of the doors—
Ponderous and unwholesome.

Frowning and sour—
Complete extermination—
With threatened probations—
Consistently tripping—
And grief gets the mop—

But Uneeda slickers—
And grief gets the mop.

Is five minutes time for a ten minutes tramp.

MENORAH HOLDS BALL
AT WEIGHTMAN HALL

Menorah Hall will be the scene of the Menorah Society's annual formal dance on Saturday, March 24. The committee in charge of the affair has made preparations for five hundred couples. The ball promises to be the gala event of the organization's 1922 social calendar. The hall has been beautifully decorated in accordance with the prominence of the affair.

Music for the evening will be furnished by Lew Zink's orchestra, supported by Davis Zink at the piano. During the later part of the dance the Pikel Trio, a well-known group of entertainers, will render several popular song hits.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained from any member of the society. Several prominent Philadelphians will attend the affair as guests of honor.

SIGMA XI HONORARY SOCIETY
INITIATES SEVERAL MEMBERS

Sigma Xi honorary society held its bi-monthly meeting in the Civil Engineering Building last night. The members gathered in the hydraulic laboratory at 4:30, where supper was served. Professor H. C. Berry presided.

Following the supper a general business meeting was held and plans for the future activities of the society were discussed. The newly elected members were also initiated at this time.

Professor Purdy delivered the principal address of the evening on the subject of "Experiments in Hydraulics." The meeting ended with several interesting demonstrations of hydraulic machinery.
