Canadians Send Delegates

Approximately seventy-five delegates, representing nineteen Canadian institutions, will be present when the Second Intercollegiate Conference on American Soccer is convened in Queen Hall Thursday.

The delegates, divided into four groups, will study, discuss and debate the organization of the American Soccer Conference. The presentations of the delegates will be the outcome of the round-the-country tour which was undertaken by a group of twenty-five delegates who were selected from forty-five entries submitted by Canadian universities and colleges for the purpose. The Canadian delegates will present their findings and recommendations to the conference, and the American delegates will have an opportunity to listen to their views.

The Second Intercollegiate Conference on American Soccer is sponsored by the University of Toronto, the Canadian Soccer Association, and the Intercollegiate Conference.

Red and Blue Delegates Selected

The Second Intercollegiate Conference on American Soccer will be attended by delegates from fifteen American universities, representing thirty-six institutions.

The delegates were selected from 183 entries received from 72 institutions. The delegates were selected on the basis of their knowledge of soccer and their interest in the sport.

The delegates will be split into two groups, one representing the University of Pennsylvania and the other representing the University of Michigan.

The Red delegates will be led by Thomas B. Ringe, representing the University of Michigan, and the Blue delegates will be led by Charles B. Brumbaugh, representing the University of Pennsylvania.

The delegates will present their findings and recommendations to the conference, and the American delegates will have an opportunity to listen to their views.

Cercle Francais To Stage Annual Play

Tickets for the annual "Pompe Play" to be given by the members of the Cercle Francais in Thursday, May 10th, at the Plaza and Players Theatre, 17 de Laume St., are on sale at the Romance Language Days, Room 561 C. H. During this week, at special rate of 50c will be made to students and members of the Family. The tickets will also be sold at the door on the night of the performance for one dollar and fifty cents. The play, written by Marmontel, is a historical comedy of the eighteenth century, called "Le Jox de l'Amour et du Hasard." The love element is prevailing, and as it is a story of "men sporting and hunting," one might say, told in a droll equable way, a most perfect example of what we call today "early days." The leading lady changes places with her maid, and the lover becomes her servant's valet. Around this intricacy and seemingly impossible situation the whole action is built.

The cast includes students who speak the French language with a very high degree of expression. The play is a collection promising to be one of the best ever played by the Cercle Francais.

Medical Students' Attention
"Should a young girl who is undoubtedly in love be treated with leniency?" "Is it good for the health to be drunk at least once a month?" "Is a woman an important creation of nature?"

These questions are ventured from an ancient medical examination paper recently discovered in the files of the Faculty of Medicine.

Students' Work Way to Europe
More than 100 applications from college men for the opportunities to work this year across the ocean have been received by trans-Atlantic steamship companies. A year or two in Europe may mean Dartmouth College, with scholarships, for a man or woman so inclined. Thirty-four Dartmouth men went abroad last semester.

Radio Instructor Proves a Success
Fifty officials of the Board of Education of New York recently witnessed a demonstration of the accounting bureau by radio. The lecture was successfully received and the answers were nearly all correct. The officials were in their grade as radio experts, and are already discussing methods for the immediate broadcasting of the service.

ISSUE BLANKS FOR CLASS DAY PROGRAMS

Applications for Class Day Programs and invitations have been sent to every member of the Senior Class. The applications are for three invitations and two programs. A list of the names and titles of each may be obtained for a small sum from the Class Day Program Committee. The programs are attractively bound in leather and contain the names and titles of the Class Officers, the program of the day, campus views and the name of each member of the graduating class. It contains the Junior Annual in many respects and furnishes a valuable commencement.

It is the desire of the Class Day Program Committee to know just what number of both programs and invitations will be wanted, as the May 1 has been set as the final date on which applications will be accepted. All checks for programs should be made out to W. E. Clark, Jr.

MISS MONEY
Rumor hath it that the Glee Club was paid an enormous sum for singing at the Stanley Theatre last week. The girls will have a Glee Club, and they aimed to please. With the path the management of the Stanley has taken, they were able to get an even larger sum to sing there that week.

At any rate, if the Women's Glee Club should sing at the Stanley, it certainly would be a scream. Or maybe a howling success.

 SUCCESS
A piece of chalk
I wish I were
When the end
Comes at last,
I will at last
Have good news
In the world.

 "HELEN COOK SPEEDY"—Hollywood (Audience)
"Huh," remarked one of these boys who drop out nightly. "Bet I know a couple of girls who could give her a darn good race."

 BARING THE FACTS
Turkish women no longer wear their veils. We've just seen pictures of Turksmen without veils, and in our opinion they made a fux pass when they discarded them. As far as appearances go, the ones we saw could qualify as written students.

* * *

Since glimpsing the unveiled faces of some Turkish holies, we've a suspicion that the real reason for dismantling the harem wasn't an economic one at all. Guess the Navy Crew will croak tonight.

 TODAY'S EDITORIAL
The Committee on Welfare should make arrangements with the Philadelphia Fire Companies that if the nature of the alarm brings them to the direction of the University the organisms should desist instead of rushing right past.

 The actual life of the University will be concluded. The removal of these Franklin organizations from the campus "has perhaps lessened their appreciation of music."

 Music-loving students who, for one reason or another, have been forced to abandon their favorite symphony orchestra in the United States (at a very reasonable cost) has remained unchanged.

 WITH THIS PROGRESSIVE DINNER.
"The Commit!" on Welfare should make arrangements with the Franklin organizations that if the nature of the alarm brings them to the campus they should be given an opportunity to hear what is probably the great German artist and his renditions of "The Ride of the Valkyries" and the "Fire Music" which he composed especially for the Winsor Opera, is one of especial appeal. Dr. Heine's commentary appears at this time when conducting the works of this great German artist and his resurrections of "The Ride of the Valkyries" and the "Fire Music" clears the obstacle in the halls of immortality instigated by Wagner. An appreciation of music is one of the chief elements of a liberal education and the Philadelphia Orchestra represents the highest type of music in America today.

 You might say that on Saturday last the baseball team was in the throes of defeat.

 BETTER WEATHER BETS
The recent spell of spring has rather discouraged weather betting. Odds of 10 to 1 that it will not snow again this month were offered, but there were practically no takers.

 NO LUCK AT ALL
Last week we saw a horse race for the first time.

 Today we regret to report that our efforts to arrange a game between the varsity boxers and a team composed of members of the executive committee have been entirely unsuccessful.

 THE PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA
With tonight's program at the Academy the series of special concerts by the orchestra for the students of the University will be concluded. The removal of these Franklin organizations from the campus has perhaps lessened their appeal to the student body by separating them from the actual life of the University. But the purpose of the Society holds the management of these organizations, that of giving and graduating an opportunity to hear what is probably the greatest symphony orchestra in the United States (at a very reasonable cost) has remained unchanged.

for with them Poor, the Missouri Conference high temp champion, who has a record of six feet three and three-fourths inches.

In the different meets that were held Saturday, many of the track and field men who will compete in the Relays were made new records. Thaddeus of Bowdoin, who won the thirty-five pound weight throw at the Indoor Intercollegiate Championships broke all other records by throwing the heavier one hundred seventy-eight feet seven and a half inches. He was doing practice. It will not count. Hurd of Annapolis, who will run in the two miles relay, broke his former record by covering the distance in nine minutes twenty-seven seconds. This record stamps him as one of the fastest runners in this event.
