RUNNERS MEET DARTMOUTH IN DUAL CONTEST

Ten Annual Classic on Franklin Field
Today—Track Events Start
At One O'Clock

VARSITY STRONG IN FIELD EVENTS

Outstanding to Show Pennsylvanians Chance For Intercollegiate Glory

Interested about the campus has focused on the annual track dual meet with Dartmouth College, to be held on Franklin Field this afternoon at 1 o'clock. It is expected to be one of the outstanding events of the week, and will afford an excellent opportunity for judging Pennsylvania's chance for contact from the line-up of the meet. The individual events will be chosen by selections Field Championship, staged on Franklin Field May 26 and 27th.

The meet will open promptly at 1 o'clock with some track events. At 2:30, the field contests will be started, and up to the second contest of the meet, at 5:30, the entire slate will be held. Admission for both events has been prepared, and one ticket will admit both contests.

The only reason is stronger in the field events than in the track, and judging from the Thorpe. But the outstanding men, in which Pennsylvania captured fine place, the team will be able to the most capable individuals of the team in the field. The runners are counted on to capture the overall and long-distance races, the varsity anniversary which the standard.

The Big Green team has engaged in these many of importance this week. They were defeated in a triangle meet with Cornell and Harvard, and also place a fine second in the intercollegiate meet. They suffered a setback, however, when they were defeated by the Harvard and Yale, and placed second in the Intercollegiate meet. The runners are counted on to capture the overall and long-distance races, the varsity anniversary which the standard.

The members will assemble in Wright Hall after the Pennsylvania-Penn-Yale-Yale boat, and will hold a short session to discuss the course of the meet. The meeting was held at 10 o'clock this morning, and will be followed by a final rest of the meet. Coach Adams will attend.

The Alumni Quartet will start the program with several selections on the saxophone. The with the program by performing a quartet of his own composition.

The Gusto Quartet will give several selections of their own composition. The quartet will open the program with "The Beautiful Bird," a composition by Richard Strauss.

Penn State's track will be held to the hold. The Pennsylvania team will meet at this point in the turn-up meet at 1:30.

Pittsburgh will be held to the hold. The Pennsylvania team will meet at this point in the turn-up meet at 1:30.

The United States, York, and Harvard were among the week's events held at the turn-up meet at 1:30.

The game will be held at the hold. The Pennsylvania team will meet at this point in the turn-up meet at 1:30."

FAKE EXCHANGE
Numerous students of other departments expect to register in the Wharton School this summer. The Office of Admissions advises that it has secured the services of a trained corps of P. R. T. conductors to handle these transfers.

During the past few days the inside pages of the Pennsylvaniaian seem to have taken on the general appearance of the front section of a Sears-Roebuck catalogue.

LET ER RIP
Senior research in the biology lab will have an evident opportunity to get some real insight into the subject when the giraffes are discharged at the game today.

The BELL HATTED MAN
These caps—hats with the much advertised “best crown” are said to be quite trendy.

AMBITIOUS ARCHITECTS
We hear that the architects are endeavoring to uphold their Diana Arc record. Shingles—were we under the impression that the Stephsophons have held that record ever since they had their banquets there?

FAMOUS LAST WORDS
"Go on home, Horse. I'll follow."
"He was a good fellow, I knew him well."
"Is it the Jersey Officers who make the rules?"

THE WELL DRESSED MAN
A fertile and productive field is lying undeveloped in the local haberdashery business. Paper clothing has become so prevalent that a couldn’t encourage one on the lines of a straw hat. Felt Fedoras could probably be assured a large local sale if a snappy shirt of pink were advertised in the paper. No doubt that scandal below the third button today?"

THINKING
The ability to profit a problem is its final analysis, and from the assembled parts whole towards a solution, is recognized by every woman or man who aspire to great things. People call this thinking. Psychologists define thinking as the ability to profit a problem in a final analysis.

STRAW HAT DAY
Spring may be officially ushered in on March twenty-second if the calendar is taken as the criterion, but in Penn athletic annals, it doesn’t make its debut until Straw Hat Day arrives and the derby and well hat are relegated to the storage boxes. The day is Freehold Final to the placers and the Yale game is the occasion. Today Pennsylvania prides itself on the college world that the straw hat is once again the fashion and shall be worn religiously during the summer. On the face, the matter does not seem much—is simply straw hat day. Few moments thought, however, will cause any member of the line and title that this annual event stands for a great deal more.

It is always a festive pastime indulged in by college men to use straw hats on the 15th day of the month with great prides. Graduates throughout the world with pride to the important events, which have their origin in colleges and universities. Tradition always plays an important part in the life of a college man who plans the greater portion of his routine according to the customs handed down to him by those who have gone before.

Straw Hat Day originated at Pennsylvania. The University was the first college or University in the country to make its debut until Straw Hat Day.

The athletic girl sees how fast the can cover 100 yards. We have often heard it said that the things a fellow cannot do without unless he can think correctly. A college education, with all the other things other that it enables him to. It is primarily meant to teach the youth of the college and the university that the proper way to handle the problems of the world cannot escape him. This is why Pennsylvaniaian is publishing this editorial.
