TIMELY HITTING DEFENDERS GATEOUT

Because of the G and 1 eliminato-

ry schedule for a 4-1 match, the Pennsylvanians are currently in the process of preparing for their next match. In order to be ready for the match,

they have been practicing for the past week, and it is expected that their hard work will pay off.

The competition is set to start at 2 p.m.

on Saturday, with both teams vying for the victory.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

This is indeed a practical age. Evidence on every side seems to verify this, although we must admit that there are a couple of conditions which must not be overlooked. When one goes to cities to find that there is still a G and a D in the word "cardinal," and that the Whitman School and that, as we have been able to prove, one will never consider him, or count him as practical after all. Nevertheless, we firmly believe that one must be practical to be conventional, and so we have drawn up some new courses to fit the men individually and bring to them a fuller realization of high type from all sections of the country on a common be conventional, so we have drawn up some new courses to several features dwelt upon to show

OVER THIRTY COLLEGES ENTER TEAMS IN INTERCOLLEGIATE TRACK CHAMPIONSHIPS

America's intercollegiate track and field championships will be decided on Franklin Field on Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21. The holding of the meet on Franklin Field marks the return of the event to Pennsylvania after a lapse of two years, during which time the event was staged in Harvard.

A total of over four entries from over thirty colleges has been received, indicating a majority of the leading track and field institutions from the entire country will be present. Only five entries were received from institutions outside of the eastern United States, the majority of events being entered by eastern institutions.

The meet will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, and will be open to the public on Friday from 1:30 to 4:30, with a special section reserved for students. On Saturday the meet will be open from 10:00 to 12:00, with a special section reserved for students.

The meet will be open to the public from 10:00 to 12:00, with a special section reserved for students.
