University Lightweight Nows Out Yale In Pennsylvania American Regatta

LARGE CROWD WITNESSES CLASSIC

Three University crews were victorious in the American Heather Regatta. Saturday afternoon on the Delaware River. In the feature event, the 1927 junior class, defeated the Lightweight crews of Yale and Princeton. Both the Varsity and the Junior Varsity also won their races, this year's races were run over a course from the Union Boat Club of Boston while the Junior Varsity left one Princeton and two Harvard boats in their wake. In the 150 pound race, the Red and Blue team took the lead at the start and held it throughout, crossing the finish line four and a half length ahead of Yale. The eight-hour class may be seen to show the times to 7:20:15. The Varsity will be awarded the Harvard Challenge cup, and the Junior Varsity the Middlesex challenge cup. To meet the winning crews, we present these few lines and state that the prospects look bright for the fall races. We congratulate the Pennsylvania Rowers.

PRINCETON GAINS VICTORY FROM FRESHMEN RACQUETEERS

Pennsylvania's first year tennis squad defeated a closely contested series of sets to the University Racquet Club of Princeton Saturday afternoon. Although the score of fifteen games to twenty-four is not outstanding in the Red and Blue racquet men, the game was a hard fight and the point leader at three different times against their opponent. The Regret

We regret to inform our readers that numerous of the visiting track men when at Pennsylvania took some with them the impression that our password is "Stop about the old clothes today, boys!"

It is time to come, and in the hammer throw next year we suggest for the safety of those in the north stands that he be required to stand near the high jumping area and charge the students with throwing the length of the field instead of across it.

The vigilance committee for next year seems to have enough members to take care of all the unruly frosh in all the colleges of the country.

When I stop to think of it I realize that I have a perfectly good foundation pen anyway.

Why do the editors of the colostum press usually twice to see that no one is lacking before going into the office than sneak their contrabands into the office and get out before anyone can catch them in the act — probably any hoy—Anonymo.

It is rumored that the Department of Public Safety is going to have Louis Brown write a book to give it off on traffic every nine from 6:00 a.m. to 8:00 so the ball players can get greater pleasure out of their pastime.

TOMORROW WE INTEND TO PRINT

A contribution we received from Philosopher Jason, located at Bethlehem, Pa. It is a "Humorism" concerning the student and states that the telephone and water connections for the dormitories are not sufficiently organized to select a representative. There are no sufficiently organized to select a representative. There are no sufficiently organized to select a representative. There are no sufficiently organized to select a representative. There are no sufficiently organized to select a representative. There are no sufficiently organized to select a representative.

For press representa-

The policy of the Managing Board is to put together and cooperate to the best for the benefit of the University. At present our system is far from perfect. However, if you really understand a model and is the future will be a model of its kind. It is hoped that these few words will make clear the position of the Franklin Society as regards press representation.

At the request of the Student "The Pennsylvania" is publishing the following communications. The Pennsylvania feels that the student body should read, at least, one of the very many letters which he has received in regard to the usual complaints which occurred on or near the campus during the past week. This letter is being published anonymously for reasons which it is not necessary to relate at the time:

"My dear Provost:—" I am appending, according to the newspaper, that the recent unpleasantness arising out of the students' celebrations has been adjusted, and that no other steps against the students, except the requirement that they pay for damage done, will be taken.

"You may be interested in knowing that the residents in the vicinity of the University who are also natives of the neighborhood of our office are very indignant at the failure of the authorities to suppress the frequent recurrences of the same and similar insolencies. Would it not be feasible to put an end to such rather disgraceful affairs in the same way as the Brown student was suppressed? I have, on various occasions, while visiting at 6th and Pine, seen the results of the work of these insolent students and I cannot understand how with all due allowance for the working out of the train of thought which the Father student was supposed to be engaged in, the conclusion of such disgraceful affair in the not very pleasant condition of the things that I witnessed. The conclusion of such disgraceful affairs will add nothing to the good name and get away with it."

Do You Need Extra Courses?

Some Co-eds went over to the Law School Courts the other day to play tennis. Evidently they thought that after women are now allowed on a levy, they would not be kept off the courts.

"SHEEPS"

The morning paper is telling of a fire in Mestas, New Mexico, states that the town and water connections for the town were saved by the destruction of the pumping station. The telephone, it seems, was in the pumping station.

As advertisement we saw the other day was headed "The package I carry to Cuba." We call this to your attention only for thecurity of the thing. Last year everyone has been discussing the package they carry from Cuba.

The "Why" of Browning, King & Co. Prices

We are frequently asked how we can give such values in Men's Clothing.

Our answer is—that we make all the clothing in our own shops and sell it in our own stores, eliminating Jobbers' and Millenman's profits.

All these savings of large production and direct selling we pass on to you, the consumer.
