We would have tried for the position of Debate Leader, but we have a bum ankle and our arm's don't wave worth a darn.

A bell has occurred in the battle of painters vs. faculty. Although retarding scholarship, the faculty has been forced to yield on every front in the recent "Save the Surface" campaign.

"Garibaldi saved Italy with a red shirt; Mussolini did it with a black one." What's the blue shirt going to save—laundry bills?

KENNY RIVER

It is bed enough to take exams without having to know the rules.

As we are in paper industries we must much we can earn this something. We've something been wondering about too.

WHARTON PEN

Have you heard the Salvation Army song that Frank Brothers wrote. "Dance on Your Heals to Have Your Role.

We have come to the conclusion that the Wharton School is a failure. As yet we have only a petition for the matter.

Elder Helms, Evening Student at Temple
Drowned at Mirror Lake

Elder A. Helms, an evening student at Temple University, who was employed as stenographer at the Houston Book Store, was drowned at Mirror Lake the other night.

The cause of death was asphyxia due to drowning. He was a student at Temple University and was on his way back to Philadelphia after a trip home to his parents.

FOUR MEN OF RIFLE TEAM MAY MAKE TRIP TO SUMMER CAMP

The U. O. T. C. rifle squad has just completed a successful season after having encountered some of the most efficient teams of the East. Under the supervision of Captain L. B. Spencer the men have retained second place in the Corps area matches. This Corps area includes E. O. T. C. rifle squads from colleges and universities of Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and the District of Columbia. The success of the men has made them eligible for the National Interscholastic Matches, which will be held in August.

An order from the United States War Department has been issued authorizing the selection of two rifle teams from each of the four classes of the school

During the month of September, four men on the Pennsylvania team will enter the national interscholastic matches at the central area camp. They will compete in the international rifles and expert matches at the central area camp and at the national interscholastic matches.

Positions offered students: Arthur Blume, '23B, desires to interview undergraduates at the C. A. office between 12 and 2 today concerning employment in distributing directories for the Bell Telephone Company. The work will require only a few hours each afternoon for several days and offers attractive compensation.
