PERSHING CHAMPIONS R. O. T. C.
AS OF GREAT PRACTICAL VALUE

That R. O. T. C. training has a highly practical value as a theoretical value, and that it is destined to become an important part of a college curriculum, is the emphatic opinion of General Pershing, whose address at the Harvard Crimson was reprinted for the education of officers today in the University of Texas.

SUNDAY SUPPERS

A University Professor said--

"I wish all the students knew this cafeteria, and ate here.'"

He explained further that they wanted him to eat its wholesome, well prepared foods. You like its pleasant surroundings—good and billiard tables, well-appointed barber shop, etc. Its roomy, welcome environment. And most important to the student, its low prices.

Think of eating Roast Beef prepared by a former Markham Brothers Chef for 25c. Its soups 10c, and all other cafeteria foods on a par with these prices, and quality of preparation.

Open 11 A.M. to 8 P.M. daily, and a welcome as big as the Alma Mater to every student.

We would say that Maryland's game was passing fair.

Even at that they didn't risk much. They had but to beat a pass7 have wayward one as one could reach a rover that took of the chains. **

**

A good many fellows seemed to be under the impression that Saturday afternoon was the big 2. We noticed a lot who had moved up or over two classes.

**

That Maryland's captain's name should have been McWade.

**

"The day by itself the daily Pennsylvanian." printed a freak, "but I only got what about once a week.

**

We will now indulge in the luxury of letting our contributors write the Column for a couple of weeks. **

To any who are bashful or a bit awkward we will say that the office is always empty below it. A.M. nothing the committee-chef has been up all night and if you will drop in with the contributions they will be entirely unobserved.

The majority of the joy competitiveness are fresh. We all suppose maintain that the freshmen were the funniest things about the University.

**

Remind the contributors at work.

**

To those individuals who continue to be misled by a notice to the newspaper for the university lack of intelligence on the part of one of its members who thought "A Long Way To Go" was "Not Pennsylvania." **

**

"SAM GLUM"

**

The All-University Dance was a great success. Only three freshmen fell down.

**

One might have thought that it was an Elks Convention on the number of them there.

**

Down in Kentucky three convicts barricaded themselves in the jail. Perhaps they were afraid the Jailer would forget to lock the door.

**

One of the most useless things we have discovered on the campus is the weather vane above College Hall which rolls the beam which way the wind is blowing.

**

Speaking of wasted energy, we wonder what are the qualities of those men who work all semester wearing a fake Franklin Field the general appearance of a golf course. When they see the two tall brown towers in action.

**

BROADLY INSPIRED PLANT THINKING!

Don't care whether it is underwear or fountain pens—we're going to lay in a big supply before the next quiz.

**

There is one conclusion of the news that Lloyd George is coming in as an explorer—explorers never take until but they get back home.

**

As we look at the list of "the patriotic" suits all strap and clean of the old shirts "cheaper than more than you pay" we are inclined to believe other either high rents or cheap suits in our neighborhood.

**

"DOHOL"

**

The freshmen are eagerly waiting to "Say it with Fiber."

**

God looks down upon us boys and smiles, for he is not that of "The Lord bless a cheerful giver."

**

"I NE 1"

**

On the door of the office read to the men the Red and Blue has printed its name very elaborately. Under the name is a placard bearing the word "WINS."

**

We agree.
