NOTRE DAME VS. CALIFORNIA

As nearly as the winter follows nature, so is "Andy" Smith’s California eleven mirror the trend coming to Pacific Coast college football teams. On November 2, one of the nation’s strongest, Washington State, was taken by a hard struggle and which proves, that, although the "Pure" rules are no demonstrative as in the past few seasons, they are still capable of melting the best teams in the Coast gridiron.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce is planning to market the winners of the Pacific title in the annual Pacific Coast conference meet, in a post-season trip. Although Oakland and the University of Washington are the obvious candidates for the Pacific title, gridiron sharp report "Andy" Smith’s team is an almost certainty to uphold the prestige of the West against Stone Rocker’s team.

A contest between Stone Oliver and California would settle the issue in the greater of the two teams who stand as the very stars of footballism. Many headconcerning the far West have been at a disadvantage, because of the distances traveled and the weather; but Rocker’s men have proved their mettle on foreign fields and climate, tried, battled against the likes most nothing to the Catholic gridirons.

California has not met defeat in recent years, the second time with W. J. bringing the nearest approach. Nevertheless, it would be far from folly to back Rocker’s versatile fast-driving team in a post-season game.

PITTS AERIAL GAME

Pitbulls come to Franklin Field tomorrow equipped with a system of play not typical of the usual Warmernecked team. The straight running attack, behind a strong offensive line, of former years, has been supplanted by an offensive body that has been acknowledged. The aerial attack, with the exception of Jordan and Smith, has been strengthened, and the aerial threat more formidable than ever. "Bust" Flannigan, who has been developed into a triple threat man, stands back of the line and has been joined by Bobben and Jordan, the foci of the park. "Polo" Herron, of Bucknell, and other coaches, have labeled this system as nearly impossible to stop but when Lafayette, West Virginia, and Carnegie Tech have stopped it, there is sufficient doubt.

Nevertheless, it would be far from folly to back Rocker’s versatile fast-driving team in a post-season game. Pittsburgh was compelled to "open up" early, due to the failure of her early season opponents. "Boos" Ball and "Doc" Miller have, startled them, thoroughly drilled the Pittsellschaft teams for over a week, in the methods of tackling and up the Pitt pass.

One important thing to be noted in a defense for a passing game is the number of men alerting behind the line of scrimmage. Under the Pennsylvania system there are five

MUSICAL AND COMEDY PROGRAM
FEATURES WEEK AT KEITH'S
Those who enjoy music and comedy will find plenty of it in the Keith's Theatre this week. It is headed by Henry Santrey, the popular American baritone and his famous Symphonic Orchestra of ten selected musicians. The group of several hundred numbers is coupled with its own special attraction of music that is a treat to all whether they do or do not have money to spend at the box office. One of the special featured numbers is "Little Pretty Girls," Philadelphia's miniature prima donna who has a repertoire of ballads and popular songs which she offers with Los Felix, accompanied. The remainder of the bill includes Harry and Anna Seymour in a supert gay comic number, the Griffin Twins, remarkable dancers who have created a real sensation in vaudeville and Charles O'Donnell and Edna Blair, who have a very entertaining sketch called "The Piano Tuners."

WEEK OF November 5th
In the coming week, vaudeville lovers will revel in an exceedingly varied program combining a little of almost everything that goes to make up an all-around evening show.

One of its special features will be Bobby Folsom, daily singing comedian associated with Jack Denny in some Metropolitan Orchestra, a combination which has been one of the biggest hits in New York has had in a long time. Bobby Folsom is a singer of character songs and revue pieces and in addition to a most pleasing voice possesses a charming personality, youth and knock 'em dead merriment with this age of sophistication.

The World of Make Believers, a comedy of youth with music, and others.

FOOTBALL STAR DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Yesterday the funeral of one of Pennsylvania's former gridiron stars, Mr. Samuel A. Boyle, was held at Kyllach. Mr. Boyle, who played end of the Varsity in 1895-96-97 was one of the fastest men that ever wore a Red and Blue jersey. During his three seasons of the Varsity, the team played forty-five games and lost but one.

Almost as brilliant was his career as an oarsman, for he was captain of the Varsity in '96 and '97. Since leaving college he has continued his athletic successes as a swimmer, a ranking tennis star and a skillful horseman.

He was connected with the city solicitor's office at one time, but later became a stock broker. He answered the call for volunteers in the World War, and from the that time until his death, was connected with the clerical department of the Municipal Court.

His death was caused by an old injury to his thigh. He received at the conclusion of his football career, and which affected his general health. He is survived by a widow and daughter, Mrs. Barnes, whose engagement to Mr. Greavese Wurzel, 30, of Amsterdam, has recently been announced.
