BAYLINSON BROS.
COVER BY MARTIN TO FEATURE ILLUSTRATED

In former years, the most elaborate Franklin Field Illustration of the season was placed on sale at the Pennsylvania-Cornell Thanksgiving Day Classic. This year's issue, however, is to be illustrated by several fresh new to the readers of the Illustrated Journal.

The illustrations include a colored cover design by W. F. Hord, artistic chief of the Punch Bowl, and a sixteen-page rake representative section. There will be pictures of many of the Varsity players on both the Pennsylvania and Cornell teams, and graphic representations of exciting moments of play from early season games.

This souvenir program will also contain a condensed history of every recognized sport at both universities. Copies may be secured for fifty cents on the campus tomorrow, and at Franklin Field on Thursday.

The Pennsylvania-Cornell games of 1896, 1897, 1911 and 1912 were also star--ons for Cornell.

In 1898 the teams battled back and forth in a raging snowstorm, with snow a foot deep on the gridiron, and Pennsylvania crashed through with a 12-4 victory. In 1992 the Red and Blue had been beaten badly all season, and when the Turkey Day game was spotted, the team was not seen as a real chance of winning. What happened? At the end of the final quarter the score was Yale 13, Cornell 0. Between the halves the Cornell captains came over to the Red and Blue dressing room and offered to shorten the second half, to save humiliated Pennsylvania fans. Pennsylvania replied that not only would she not accept the magnanimous offer, but that she would never have stood up had she been offered. When the referee blew the final horn, the score was 13-11, and Cornell's championship team was begun.

What happened in 1917? It began with a snowstorm, Brown, Lafayette and Penn State, the Red and Blue eleven came back with the score tied and imposed the Missouri T. What happened in 1937 Pennsylvania was defeated badly by Brown, Penn State, the Carlisle Indians, and Michigan. Cornell brought back a big win against the University of Michigan. At this point that year—911—IT WAS BEATEN! Pennsylvania crashed through against everybody except a few tanks. We called it the "TANK" Army. Pennsylvania won the 1939 battle, and since then Cornell has not lost a game. Three years of unbroken victories! It's a bad position to be in— for Cornell. Pennsylvania's team is fighting and— FIGHT WILL WIN THE GAME!

CONVERSATION
CORNELL'S VICTORIES
ILLUSTRATE ATTACK

(By Special Correspondent)
Ithaca, Nov. 27—On reviewing Cornell's schedule this year one is struck by the readiness and availability of the Red machine. Olympic and Harvard are other teams which have defeated the Red machine this fall. Many of her opponents have been able to take Cornell's offense into the second quarter of the game, but the Big Red machine, playing with the quickness that a bottlerocket has always crashed through the opposi-
tion's defensive river.

Cornell opened its 1923 football season by leading St. Lawrence 31-0 and Syracuse 4-0. Two victories in which the Red machine was not at its best, but no satisfactory
rival in the football world, however, soon were able to find the victories of the team.

By the time of the Williams game Cornell's tactics and interference was reported to be greatly improved. In a game of this development, Williams was able to play the Red and White to a standstill in the first half, the score being 7-6 in favor of Cornell. In the second half, however, the Cornell backfield begun working as a unit and scored three touchdowns, winning by 28-6.

This season, more than ever, has John Ward style and kończył been happily adopted. John Ward represents the best

PLANFRATHETRY SWIMMING MEET

Loving Cup Offered by E. J. Ellikin For First Annual Interfraternity Natatorium Contest

COACHES TO TRAIN ENTRANTS

Greek letter men will have an opportunity of showing their swimming ability on December 4th, when the first of a series of annual interfraternity swimming meets will take place. A cup will be awarded to the fraternity which is victorious in this race, the distance of which is 200 yards.

Dr. E. J. Ellikin, 8401st, the donor of the cup will be present to award it personally. Dr. Ellikin, while at Princeton, held the intercollegiate swimmer's record for fifteen years, as well as establishing many other laurels through participation in aquatic sports. Since graduation he has taken much interest in swimming, and this cup comes as a proof of his interest.

Coach Kistler has offered to personally train the fraternity men who wish to enter in this event. Each man will swim 200 yards of the parallel back stroke, requirements being that he shall be a fraternity man and not a member of either the swimming team or crew.

The cup to be awarded this year will hold it until next year. In the event that one fraternity retains the cup for two years, the cup then remains in the possession permanently. However, it is not necessary that one fraternity receive the cup for two consecutive meets.
