C. A. WILL SEND DELEGATES WEST
Pennsylvania will be represented at the Convention in Indianapolis in November.

DECREASE LARGE REPRESENTATION

The ninth international convention of the Student Volunteer Movement will be held at Indianapolis, Indiana, on November 28th and 29th. Several hundred students from colleges all over the country will attend this convention, and the Christian Association is anxious to have a large body of Pennsylvania students present.

The purpose of the convention is to arouse interest in the work of the foreign department and to show what a large number of students are doing in foreign work at home and abroad. The convention will bring together a large group of people and the association hopes to announce some interesting developments to the public.

The convention will be held in the Indianapolis Auditorium, and all students interested are invited to attend.

VETERAN TEAM IS FIRST RIVAL

The Varsity, the University's football team, will be the first rival of the University's football team.

The Varsity team is expected to be one of the strongest teams in the country, and is expected to make a good showing in the coming season. The team is composed of many experienced players, and is expected to be a strong contender for the national championship.

The University's football team will be faced with a difficult task in the coming season, but the team is expected to give a good showing and to make the University proud.

FOOTBALL MEN TAKE UP BOXING

Several members of the University's football team have taken up boxing as a means of improving their physical fitness.

The boxing will be done under the supervision of an experienced coach, and the men will be given special training in the art of boxing.

The University's boxing team will be expected to make a good showing in the coming season, and will be a strong contender for the championship.

PLAN ALUMNI-VARSITY GAME

The Alumni-Varsity game will be held on the University's football field on the last day of the season.

The Alumni-Varsity game is a popular event, and is expected to draw a large crowd. The game will be played under the rules of the American Football Association, and will be a thrilling contest.

The Alumni-Varsity game is a good opportunity for alumni to see the University's football team in action, and to support the team in its efforts to win the championship.

These expositions for calculating the seating capacity of the William Penn Hall. In order to remedy this glaring blemch we offer the following:

Why not erect a roof over the entire field, and put up a lot of swings and hammocks? Spectators should, however, be allowed the superb view of the game from three seats only on condition that they promise beforehand not to get excited and fall off.

Workers are busy enlarging the doorway of Logan Hall. Probably you present too great a jam when the recus takes place after mid-years.

It is bad enough to think low class came to campus and low whooked without having all the stores in Philadelphia resist us that we have to beg enough Christmas presents to go around the family.

Starting tomorrow the freshmen will be taken down to Waulkund's, twenty-five at a time, to shake hands with class and tell him what you want him to bring you.
