QUINTET WINS INITIAL GAME

Basketball Season Opened by Victory over Drexel Institute-Keesee

And Leopard Star

CAPACITY CROWD FILLS HALL

Playing the first game of the 1921-22 season on Friday evening, Pennsylvania's basketball team defeated its opponents from Drexel Institute Saturday night, in Weisbrot Hall. The scene was one of the crowded house that the former annual preliminary contest against the latter, which last year was witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever attending an opening contest, was played before almost in capacity houses. Two thousand fans were present to urge their teams on.

Attica Captain Keesee and Leopard Star played the first game of the season, the two of them accounting for most of the points. Captain Keesee made four goals from the field and was successful in five out of eleven attempts from the free line. Leopard Star, also out of ten goals, and scored twice from the fifteen-foot line in fourteen attempts. The big victory was registered by D. S. F., but not without opposition. Despite the combination, it is difficult to determine the author of a victory. The Leopard Star team has been much improved since the opening of the season, and a few minor errors to the contrary, the points were equal.

RUSHING SEASON ATTRACTS APPLE

Versatile Freshman of Last Year Plans To Re-enter College at Mid-Years If Wharton Faculty Permits

STARTS CAMPAIGN ANEW

(Bys Charlie Apple, Wh. ex-23)

Having returned to the campus as a spectator during Junior Week, was pleasant news to my world-wearied ears when Pete Buck, my old roommate, told me he had investigated with his usual bird-dogging ability how it happened that I dropped from the University late June.

Pete claims my grade of 'F' in Business Law was an error, for my answers in the ten questions were free in the negative, three in the affirmative and two in favor of the court—which should have given me a grade of 'P' plus at

The head of the R. S. L. department said he would correct the grade, which will permit me to re-enter college after mid-terms, even should I fail my exam in 0. A. L. My grade of 'F' to 'P.' It will stand for I forever was the least bit interested in where the turnover Committee placed myself, so it seems they have me all set to repeat the second semester of that subject. My hope is they give me an instructor who really knows that the Book of Ruth is not about a baseball player.

Several of the boys at the S. O. L. House tells me to demand an apology from the University for this error in their records which caused me to lose half a year. However, they assume no grudge with me, as if I attended two Summer Session sessions and pass all my courses, I will do the first year. For the rest of the year I am rated a Social Sophomore which means almost but not quite. In Rushing Season is the thing that interests me not now, for the boys have elected the chairman of the Rushing Committee at our house, and allow me to predict that Barrows & Bailey cannot bring the excitement we intend to.

Between now and midterms I am going to stick around proving my readability to those vegetable halls, and help the boys out during Rushing Season, and on the side prepare for my re-exam in 0. A. L. Watch this paper, you will hear from me again soon. Glad to help the hoys out during Rushing Season, and am glad the hoys have elected me chairman of the Rushing Committee at our house, and allow me to predict that Barrows & Bailey cannot bring the excitement we intend to.

The man behind the gun

On Saturday came the crowning achievement of King Bucky at Pennsylvania. The champions were victorious, and the pair of teams emerging from the field were the pair of teams emerging from the Intercollegiate League.
