Red and Blue Eighty-Eight Overcomes Temple to Win Back Star. Former University Star

KNEASE LEADS FIELD SCORING

Showing better form than they did a year ago, the Red and Blue eighties took the field last night to renew the varsity basketball contest against the Temple University. The Pennsylvania team, which was last season's champions in the Intercollegiate League, arrived on the scene in fine condition and was not only better prepared than its rival, but also possessed a greater number of players.

The line-up which faced the Main Line opponents was somewhat changed from the team which opposed Drexel and Duquesne last season. In addition to having many new players, the team was expected to give a better performance than it did last year.

The game was played on the Broad Street High School gymnasium, which was filled to capacity by the enthusiastic fans of both teams. The game was a close one, with the Red and Blues leading by two points in the final quarter, but the Temple team fought hard to gain the victory.

The deciding factor in the game was the superior team work of the Red and Blue eighties. The players worked well together, and the team as a whole was superior to the Temple opponents.

The final score was 39 to 27, the Red and Blue eighties winning by two points. The game was a hard fought one, and both teams were deserving of a victory.

The Red and Blue eighties will now turn their attention to the Intercollegiate League tournament, which is to be held in the near future. The team is expected to do well in the tournament, and is considered one of the strongest in the league.

The Temple team will also participate in the Intercollegiate League tournament, and is expected to do well in the competition. The game was a well fought one, and both teams are deserving of a victory.

MEDICAL TEAMS TO STAGE GAME

Former Collegiate Celebrities To Battle In Benefit Game At Franklin Field On Friday

FOR SOUTHEASTERN DISPENSARY

Teams formed from the students now enrolled in the Medical School will clash in a benefit football game, to be held on Franklin Field tomorrow afternoon. The players are all former collegiate players and a battle contested game is expected. Brodie Singtons and Tommy Kral, former Varsity men, will be seen in action in this contest. Stephons is a veteran coat seller and was selected for the end position on the All-Pac team in 1921.

Ed Henry was a star tackle while attending Penn State. He played on the 1919 team which was one of the greatest ever formed for the contests between the major Eastern universities.

The admission charge will be ten cents general admission, which will be channeled in a benefic fund for the Southeastern Dispensary. This donation is expected to be the first move to become the basis of medical attention, free of charge.

1906 FRESHMEN OPPOSE SOPHIS

Upper Classmen Urge Contestants To Take Part In Annual Issue Of Alumnae

Both Sides Claim Victory

(From Pennsylvania 21 Years Ago)

One of the foremost occasions which has been taking place for several past years, is the annual contest of the class of 1906 versus the class of 1907, which is held on the College campus between the rival classes in an effort to raise funds for the medical students of that year.

The contest is known as the result of an attempt on the part of the upper classmen to punish the freshmen for their misdeeds of last Friday evening. After the exasperation of Friday evening the Class of 1906 committed several depredations, such as painting over their initials on the pavement in front of the Houston Club, marching in a body around the Triangle giving class rings to the underclassmen. At the same time the 1907 class, armed with a dagger to punish the offenders, the sophomores assembled on Champlin Court yesterday, and enlisting a few unfortunate freshmen, took them out and compelled them to scrub off the large 06 s on the pavement at the cost of $450,000 to be paid out of the new field house has been erected at the University.

As a result of the contest, the freshmen were able to punish the sophomore who happened to fall in the way.

A. R. MC brought into the fray kept up.

For about an hour and a half the battle raged.

In the end the freshmen emerged victorious, and the cost of the damage to the sophomores was estimated at about $200.

A. R. M. This price was charged for the meal.

Michigan's Football Receipts

"What does all the money go to?" is a question often heard at the universities and colleges concerning the receipts taken in at football games. The University of Michigan does as much as any other school in the country, spending $15,000 on her football system, exclusive of coaching, and making up deficits incurred by other sports such as swimming, hockey, wrestling and at times badminton and baseball, a new field house has been erected at the cost of $15,000 which will help out of the proceeds of intercollegiate athletics at Michigan.

JUNTO MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE ON CAMPUS

Making its first appearance on the campus from the literary quarter, will go on sale today. The editors, since the opening of the fall term, have been busy collecting the most representative articles as far published. Material has been contributed from all branches of the University—faculty, associate staff, doctors and women while the undergraduates have cooperated as well. Among the special features of this number are an essay by Dr. Walter H. Reed, of the Greek department, on "The Four Philosophers." Two very clever stories "The Lion and the Lamb" and "Pilgrim Saints" were contributed by students in the school of Education.

There is also a story called "Pellon," a fantasy on an Indian legend, several poems, a few sketches and three pastels with the usual book review completes the issue.

Junto will be on sale at tables in the Library, College Hall and the Wharton School, and may be secured at the book store of the Houston Club.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM WINS FROM TEXTILE SCHOOL
Coach Danny McNichol's freshman quintet were victors over the Philadelphia Textile School in the preliminary game of the Varsity-Haverford tilt last night. The yearlings, after a hard fight, managed to win out by the score of 21 to 18. The Textile team proved to be much more opposition than the Orangemen anticipated last Saturday night. At three they were smaller than the first four men, they displayed a dash which was bewildering to the yearling team. Their led the contest during the early part of the game, but were gradually subdued.

Coach McNichol started Keasler and Davenport at forwards. Walker at center, and Dawson and Duncan at guards. He put every man who was in uniform in during the fray before the end of the contest. Davenport, Lindsay and Duncan led the field goal scoring for the yearling lads with two apiece.
