The Art of Giving

It is hard to perfect the art of giving. Few people have the time to approach it correctly, and when Christmas comes things are bought in a hit or miss fashion that rarely produce useful or appropriate gifts.

We have studied the problem and believe we have simplified a difficult task. Our merchandisers are distinctive, it is the very latest, and as a matter of course, are limited only in quantity.

This means that you can do a majority of your shopping in this store where quality and service predominate.

As Suggestions We Offer:

Imperial Silk Handkerchiefs
Marvelous Values in Our Gift Set of WInkle Proof Vin
English Style Paisans
Suits at Square

The Narrow Path—or the Wide Road? Which?

The confines of one business—or contact with them all.

Insurance is the wide road that maintains active association with big men and big affairs, with many and varied interests. Insurance—Fire, Marine and Casualty—is an essential part of the most vital activities of the commercial and industrial world.

As the oldest American Fire and Marine Insurance Company, so greatly responsible for the present dignity and prestige of the insurance profession, the Insurance Company of North America urges college men to give to this worthy calling the consideration that it is due.
