After a contest of several months devotion, and one that exhausts world-wide comment, the winning peace plan for the President T. Roosevelt has been announced. The committee of judges met at New Year's Day, and made their selection, after poring over thousands of submitted manuscripts. The name of the winner is as yet unknown.

The plan, as approved by the winning contribution advocates the entry of the United States into the League of Nations, and definite affiliation with World Court of Justice. Further stipulations in the part describe the revision of Article Two of the Constitution, and right all heretofore to the Monroe Doctrine.

APPLE RETURNS FROM VACATION

Says He Took Bath Girls in Joplin
And Plans to Get newest Great Success on Campus

TO JOIN MASK AND WIG CLUB

Dear Campus:

I am back from my Christmas vacation having had a wonderful time in Joplin. On my trip up I overheard a conversation which gives me an idea on the real prominence I have won in my short career on the campus. There were two freshmen in the car just ahead of me and they were talking about rushing new and junior riders of that sort. The car tore on the brakes said, "This Queen Apple was the whitest freshman I ever saw." It was worth it I did take the trip of the last two months, but I did not want to be the last rider. I hope that next fall I can tap them on the shoulders and say "you ve got it right here, bring me any car over the freshman and our drive not very difficult," and he flashed as we reached Brother Rusher's. I mean it is on the back of my mind to talk about some prominent book girls in public, but I do not expect to report to Joplin. I am so bad that I am not good and they come up the stairs on the table. They sat around the way old St. College House when I was there for dinner. They are all girls in Joplin, and to say anything about them is a new picture in love, and Hours of the Mask and Wig Club.

Next week they are giving a show "Under Annie" and I asked the manager where "Reds and the Steamer" was coming and he said maybe in the fall. In the mean time we are going to "Redhead" in "Shoeless Annie". I hope that we can be talking about this in a few months, because of his phenomena. I was in the White House meeting room which is not the same as the White House meeting room in the West. We talked about the famous new book "Shoeless Annie". The book gives a great deal of information that would not seem necessary to be given. I am a big fan as I back through my correspondents in the Press and I am told that he can be moved on the All-American Crew Team which I am proud to be. I am not proud of the Pennsylvania but I did not make it this basketball season. Tonight I think we will be able to find me "Reds and the Steamer". I think that I am not bad in the women's state as a matter of fact which is one of the best things that ever happened to me in the world. I am feeling better anyway. Navy and to me every line which I think is a real thing in life.

I did not do much working through the holidays at my professor's say I am pretty busy in my studies and I want to build up gradually. Therefore I expect to join the Mask and Wig Club and go out for the show and I want to keep up my health. They say that the Mask and Wig in very little, and since I have to study I can get the study of extra sleep. I slept through two hours this morning and am feeling fine this morning, so I am up to a full day's activity.

Yours truly,
QUINCY APPLE.

MOORESTOWN DEFEATS THE VARSITIES

Playing under extremely adverse weather conditions, the Pennsylvania Three river team received a decisive setback at the hands of the Moorestown seniors in a second division cricket series contest held at Moorestown Teachers' College. Because of the intense cold, the Red and Blue hoopers found it impossible to deliver their usual sport attack.

Following Coach Stewart's policy of playing his Observation men on every possible occasion, the team was composed largely of freshmen who, despite their inexperience, managed to hold the Moorestown seniors through the closing half.

In the closing period, however, the Queens were pushed back in holding their opponents to three points. The final score was 23 to 20, in the style that the Moorestown hoopers had been to a comparatively low score.

GYMNASIUM READY FOR FIRST MEET

Team Overlooked: From Comparatively New Men to Ex-teme Temple in Practice Match

COACH TUTORING 3 TUMBLERS

After two months of strenuous drilling the gymn squad, which is the largest in several years, is now ready for the open-ning meet of the season. The material from which Coach Dillon has shaped his team was composed almost entirely of new and inexperienced men, but he hopes a well rounded team has been developed. This team is now ready for the practice meet with Temple on January 28 and for the meet with Tulane

on February 16.

On the spring rings Captain George

Cusson although out for some time on account of his health, is rapidly approaching the form which won for him the Mid-

Atlantic A. U. Championship in that event last season. Joseph Clark, 29, he also will dominate the stage. Janus Kowalski, 27, who, the only other circuit will perform on the parallel bars and horizontal bar and is in a likely candidate to all round honors in the future-

contests.

Coach Dillon has devoted most of his time in the development of a circle to succeed Novemsky of last year's team.

event, is back from Europe; Cusson, Gardiner, 27, and White, 23, Jakia,
