Famous Charley From Last Years From Aggregation Returns With Big Welcome at S. O. L.

WILL SKIRMISH WITH FACULTY

Following up the announcement of a few weeks past of my discovery of a possibility of returning to college after mid-year due to a mistake in recording my final grades last June, a short time since I applied for re-admission and was again enrolled as a cash customer in the second term, the Executive Committee of the Strawbridge & Clothier, by the way, consider my valuable addition to the student body in forms so that the I'm being General Frank-bined due to my having fallen into a group of "0" in one subject last year.

The fight is on!

Thus lies the true story. How could Charley, Apple the Kansas Cyclone, be found any afternoon at The Pennsylvania office? There open for any suggestion as to how best to use the valuable moments of the Wharton family who have rights to their collective life for the impending slaughter.

A class study of the schedule for next year's exam is a movement to some few former kind who has thrown down an already continuous two weeks into a perennial up year due to the need for the matter arranged. Some of the boys assure me that it will be difficult to appear at more than two places the same hour.

The Student's West at the University Hospital has been sweeping and brightening up for the finals of the stu and trumpeted specimens who will fail in a half of materials for the interest to practice on and ask foolish questions where their least conscious moments. This General Promotion pamphlet arranged for the announcement of many excellent traits that it believes. C. Apple to sit on his home and to pretend, since the faculty claim they don't mean anything. It appears as though my stay will be limited to going places and doing things.

Well friends and campus, heartened Charley is back with you to stay. Get a big reception from the brothers up at T. G. L. so rally around and wait for what I have to say while I'm still feeling good. General Butler is to laugh and twiddle a wicked band. How about the new?

The BELLEVUE STRATFORD PHILADELPHIA

Sir Henry W. Thornton, K. B. E., a member of the Class of '81 in the College of Fine Arts and one of the former professors at the Pennsylvania Club in New York, on January 10, 1924. This alumnus is among Pennsylvania's most distinguished. His first achievement after graduation in his field was the establishment of the General Superintendence of the Long Island Railroad. His success there was then secured by the Great Eastern Railway of England and he served as its American representative of railway transportation in Great Britain in 1921. He was made Assistant Director General of Transportation of the Royal Trains in France, and from the year of 1923 he served in the capacity of Assistant General of Transportation with the rank of Major General. He is now the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railways.

Sir Henry served with the rank of Chairman of the Board of Directors and rank of Major General. He is now the Chairman of the Board of Directors and rank of Colonel. The following year he was promoted to the position of Inspector General of Transportation with the rank of Major General. He is now the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railways.

Because of the admirable way in which Sir Henry served, he was given the silver service medal and the Distinguished Service Medal by the United States. Sir Henry served the United Kingdom as a member of the Board of Directors and rank of Colonel. He is now the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railways.

Paterson Speaks on Travel in Germany

"Although the distress in Germany is acute the nation is better able to meet it's expanding responsibilities than it would like to admit," he says Dr. E. B. Reed, president of the American Association of University Professors, after an extensive survey which he carried on in that country recently. In an address to the members of the College Club which he introduced recently Dr. Reed explained that he had reached this opinion after a careful study of existing conditions.

It was pointed out that the German people are not as disposed to help their fellows as they might be. The speaker qualified this criticism of the people by saying that aid was formerly given to unemployed and to dependents through the Government's channels. He also added that one cause of this lack of interest was the fact that private charities have never been organized in that country as they are in the United States. Dr. Reed explained that all models of travel were extremely difficult, that it was impossible to get sufficient coal and food supplies. The most recent estimate placed the number of unemployed at $5 per cent of the population. Only twelve freight trains were seen during his visit to the Rich Valley.

It's this sort of weather that makes us wish we had saved our nuts for the last week of the year... "

We tremble at the thought of taking track this afternoon. Every one in their small but charming afternoon track tops looked like a chorus practicing that famous fourteen- lined dance—all smiles, driven and shuffling without getting anywhere..."

COACH DECKER VETERAN OF MANY RING BATTLES

President of University of Oxford has Ten Thousand Rounds to His Fighting Record

AIMING AT TITLE FOR TEAM

From amid the clods of blows and the rubbed bruises and bleeding that boxing candidate comes a quiet voice, "time boy.
" This is a typical view of Coach Decker, who once had the bite and blue fixed pictors, due to the severe cramp of many a big night. Always encouraging and never shouting or bullying his men, the usual boxing coach practically one of the squad masters.

George Decker has without a doubt more than 500 to 600 men to his credit that best his art at Pennsylvania. Coming here in the fall of 1913 to head a squad twenty-eight
men
then plus not less than 150 to 200 men participating in boxing every year.
In recent years the boxing situation has proven so strong and so well accredited that the name of the Battlefield Champion, is a household word in every 12 months of life.
Mr. Decker, an engineer by profession, has been in the university's service for years, during five of which he was the athletic champion of the State of Pennsy.

Following this part of his career he accepted the coaching position at the University.
During his active life, "George" he is known in Weightman Hall, a ported in over 250 professional fights and has been termed the "man who has fought ten thousand rounds." Remarkable to say, he has never been knocked out in all the 250 or more contests.

Since the beginning of intercollegial boxing, Pennsylvania has never fallen lower than third. Among the men the coach has turned out are: Charles Kroll university featherweight, stationed in 1914, Jerry McGuire, the half-pound champion of New York in 1914, and Goodwin Barlow, "22, who fought for the hard won weight class of Pennsylvania for three years, during which time he lost but one bout.

The speaker pointed out the fields of development and research open to the student of engineering.

"The rivers of this country, especially,

reaching challenge to engineering skill in every branch.
Mr. Trent emphasized the need of""engineering and hard work, and as his own position, which has been educated, as evidence of the importance of these two qualities.

After the lecture the Rev. John Hart, under whose direction the vocational series has been conducted, announced the leisure of the series in Presibe the first subjects for discussion, but additional suggestions are wanted.
