instance, a broad perspective will give the best and truest impression of the advisability of chapel attendance and another.

And yet, as we analyze such an idea, what an uproar would arise on the campus if such a plan were seriously entertained. A mere whisper, of course, would be one of horror, of extreme aversion.

We believe that every man in 1927 will be among those who will approve of the Philanthropy and the University. It is all the better that we are not prepared to make any public statement in the matter of the advisability of the idea. The idea is not a new one, but it is a good one, and we hope that it will be a success.

On the other hand, we have been told that the idea will not be a success, and that it will not be carried out. We have been told that the idea will be too expensive, and that it will be too difficult to carry out.

The only thing we can say is that we think the idea is a good one, and that it will be a success.

We believe that the idea will be a success, and that it will be carried out. We believe that the idea will be a good one, and that it will be a success.

Clearance of Men's Clothing

About Two Thousand Winter Overcoats and Three Thousand Suits Including Many Less Than Wholesale Cost; Many at Half Price

MAINTAINING stocks for the largest clothing business in a community of more than two million population imposes certain penalties at times. For instance, when the time comes for our sweeping Winter Clearance! We always have a considerable quantity to close out at a loss of profit in February—but when a season has been unseasonable, the quantity is larger than usual.

More than 5000 garments make a tremendous heap. But as we bought for the season more than six times that number, the close-out stock does not seem so great—but great enough to be serious if not sold before the close of the season!

Therefore, we give you wonderful opportunities for saving—scores of lots at less than wholesale cost, many at half price, and all lots in the Sale at great reductions.

Overcoats
To Close Out 17.50, 23.50, 29.50, 38.50, 46.50, and 56.50

Suits Reduced
To Close Out 17.50, 22.50, 27.50, 36.50

Two Trousers Suits

Men's Suits at Just Half Price
Now $15, $20, and $22.50

Here are several hundred Suits—one, two and three of a kind—many odd lots remaining from some of our best selling models. But it's clearance time, and out they go, at half price.

Men's and young men's Suits—a wide variety of fabrics and models. Some blue serges and staple black suitings, as well as plenty of neat cassimeres, worsteds and tweeds. See these early. Just half the original prices—now $15.00, $20.00 and $22.50.
