AMBIGUOUS MORRIS WILL LECTURE TODAY

"International Law and Diplomacy," will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Rid-dard S. Morris this afternoon at 4 in Wharton Hall. Dr. Morris is a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago.

THE BERRY BOWL

The Berry Bowl, the oldest student athletic association at the University of Pennsylvania, will hold its annual meeting today at 4 in the White Hall. The meeting will be opened by the President of the Association, who will present the report of the executive commit tee for the past year. The executive committee will then report on its activities for the year, and any desired changes in the constitution or by-laws will be considered.

MICHIGAN FOOTBALL

In a move that was made at the University of Michigan, the Michigan football team, which is under the guidance of the Christian Association, is planning to have its own newspaper called "The Wolverine," which will be published weekly. The purpose of this newspaper is to provide information about the activities of the team and to give the student body an opportunity to express its opinion on various matters affecting the team.

A Scholastic Renewal

A Scholastic Renewal is a movement that is gaining popularity on many college campuses. The movement is based on the idea that students have a right to a fair and equitable educational system, and that they should be allowed to participate in the decisions that affect their education. The movement has been gaining momentum in recent years, and many colleges and universities are now taking steps to implement the principles of Scholastic Renewal on their campuses.
