Amercian Training, in New York City. There, the Red and Blue will emerge from a big-time crystal ball of the number of opponents they have to cope with in the Pennmario Bowl contests. These contests are laid at Palm Beach and Little Rock.

There are no membership fees in the Red and Blue. The present membership continues to grow as new men who have been intrigued by the club's activities and spirit join the ranks. The Red and Blue is a unique organization that combines both athletic and social activities, offering its members a chance to excel in both areas.

The Red and Blue's motto is, "To live and breathe for the University of Pennsylvania." The club's activities include interclass and intramural sports, as well as social events. The Red and Blue is proud to have produced many alumni who have gone on to achieve great things in both their personal and professional lives.

In summary, there is no way to fully describe the Red and Blue's impact on the University of Pennsylvania and the community it serves. Its legacy continues to inspire and motivate new members, and its influence is evident in the lives of its alumni. The Red and Blue is a true institution that has helped shape the University of Pennsylvania and the lives of its members.

We Plan Your Plate of SUPPLEE ICE CREAM

We are thinking this minute about the ice cream that will come from our gleaming white battery of freezers next month, next year—just as much as though it were tomorrow’s output.

Just as an architect, or artist, plans something beautiful far in advance, we plan for better ice cream daily, constantly. SUPPLEE ICE CREAM tastes as good and tests as high as any other brand today. There is no better-flavored, no richer, no purer ice cream anywhere. But why be satisfied with that? Why not try to make it better?

Supplee Ice Cream is manufactured in one of the cleanest and most modern ice-cream plants in the world. We work under the most rigid supervision. Only the purest of fruits and the finest of other ingredients are used in our ice cream. In quality by far exceeds that of any other brand today.

We Honor Your Expectations of Hospitality, Good Food and Fine Service.

TRUSTEE TO BE FETED AT N. Y. ALUMNI DINNER

G. W. Wickersham, ex-Attorney General of U. S. Will Act as Trustee at Annual Banquet

NEW NAME ADDED TO HONOR CUP

University of Pennsylvania men in New York City and the vicinity will hold on Saturday, March 5, at 7 in the evening, their thirtieth annual dinner. It is to be given in honor of William A. Hedding, '76L, who is a member of the Board of Trustees of the University.

In conjunction with this affair the dinner will be held, Herbertson Smyrnas, Buffalo, Toronto, Lancaster, Wilkes-Barre and many other offices of the East will be represented. The cocheree will be George W. Wickersham, '86L, who is an ex-Attorney General of the United States.

The guests will be President Penniman, The Honorable Henry C. Ward, '76, a Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals; William A. Hedding, '76L; Ed J. Norman Henry, '76, president of the General Alumni Society, and Louis A. Young, football coach.

At this time also, the Honor Cup of the University of Pennsylvania, Club of New York City, created by Mr. William Osgood Brown, '84, and founded by the Council of the Club in 1914, is to be at the same time.

The name of the honored one will be announced at the dinner.

This cup is a permanent trophy, upon which shall be inscribed, not more than a name an a year, the name of any alumnus who shall have honored the University by distinguished services, in any walk of life. The following names have already appeared: Charles Curtis Hawson, '13; Silas Wise Hitchcock, '12; To Our Heroes of the World War, 1919-1921; Edgar Hale Smith, '19; The Honorable Henry Gullworth Ward, '17; and James Harman Foushee, '12.

Following the dinner the annual meeting of officers of the club will be held. All Pennsylvania men, whether members of the club or not, should attend the dinner, the club's most important function. The price of the dinner is four dollars. Harvey C. Howe, '84, is the chairman of the dinner committee, and is being assisted by Henry A. Chandler, Myers D. Darby, Howland Johnson, Charles H. F. Preuslow, Walter T. Pelkey and H. L. Tucker.

FIFTY RED AND BLUE APPEARS ON CAMPUS

Forces into a totally novel conception a theme, the whole style of advanced the By the time the final number of the renouned magazine has been of consistently high caliber, toned and ready for discussion of the principal advertising of the Philadelphia stage. The adopted is not of great length. Criticism of this most distinctive of Red and Blue's features clipped the Bunting Schools somewhat prematurely and while the novel manner of prose for the various critics, it seems to be the few dat at which the campus concerns most anxiety. May it continue to please brightly within bounds of reason. The Red and Blue carries on, and the current number is another step in the development of a journal which shall find a held sphere among campus publications.
