WOPPERS PREPARE FOR CAMPAIGN

In an effort to arouse enthusiasm at a higher peak within the Fifty Minutes Committee, the Christian Association will feature a dinner tonight at 6 o'clock in the Recitation hall. The contest will be made to include a new and improved check sheet, which will be circulated in the week preceding March 11. The committee, under the direction of the fifty minutes, has been active in its work. During the week ending March 9, the committee distributed fifty minutes blanks to every man in the university.

Coaches Powers and Captain Clark are fully aware of the difficulties attending a championship, but they have high hopes for the season. Approximately eighteen candidates are striving for positions on the team. Twelve of these candidates are recent graduates, and eight of them are returning veterans of last year's team. The team is expected to be built up so that Instructor Clark will have a good chance of establishing a good record.

After the spring vacation, the team will meet in the north street gymnasium for the first day of practice. The team will be limited to twenty-five men.

SEVERAL FOOTBALL STARS MAY PLAY FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA LINEUP

Under the watchful eye of Coach Powers and Captain Clark, the Red and Blue teams are preparing for the coming football season. Many of the players of last year's team are back, and the team has already shown great promise in the early weeks of practice. The team is expected to be built up so that Instructor Clark will have a good chance of establishing a good record.

The sales campaign began Wednesday night and was featured by Professor Bostick last night, where contestants were challenged to sell as much as possible. The event was well attended, and the results were anticipated with enthusiasm. The sale will continue over the weekend.

GUGGENHEIM UNABLE TO SPEAK AT 1924 BANQUET

Prominent Member of New York Alumni Society Speaks in Letter of Invitation To Address Seniors

REPEATS STATEMENT OF 1910

Mr. William Guggenheim, of the Class of '98, unfortunately could not speak at the banter New York band 1910 banquet.

Unfortunately, personal affairs prevented me. Thirty-five years have passed since the members of my class turned from college. Backs upon our cherished institution that we, individually as to them four years of unsurpassed manly guidance, do not wish to mar the dignity of the occasion.

Let us aim high, for there will be fifty years more. A stern fact, some great responsibilities will devolve upon us, fixed to a certain, but not beyond the horizon, for the plans of our class to breathe to none of us.

Remember that even the boy has dreams and designs, toward which he strives as his life goes forward.

For a little more than sixty years ago, you, if that is not to say two hundred, of our number, and some of us all, have lived and undergone the experience of millions.

If you are true to your Alma Mater, you will remain true to yourselves and prove worthy of us.

One word more. I am glad to welcome you to this assembly. I judge for the "Red and Blue" in 1910—practically four years ago, upon the word"success 1 reads as follows:

"Success is difficult to define or interpret. Individuals relatively unimportant, and yet well known to complete success, while others through exercising a wide influence in the affairs of the world, may rightly be considered successful. But with what a judgment and unanswerable argument of itself to as success to business men, it would be difficult to find a more proper, and unfailing evidence as to anyone of success than business men, including myself.

The new styles are featuring loose-fitting lounge coats with free back models. The suits for spring include some very attractive high-buttoned suits.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1924

The虽然 escalation club in the New York City has so far attracted no comparable membership, the city, which has sponsored it, is feeling confident that it will soon be in the black. The club was started with the idea of providing a social outlet for the younger people in the city, and it is hoped that it will eventually become a successful enterprise.

It is expected that the club will soon be able to provide entertainment for the young people in the city, and it is hoped that it will eventually become a successful enterprise. The club has already received a number of applications from young people who are interested in joining, and it is expected that this number will continue to increase.

KEITH'S FEATURES STRONG MAN

A.-Adagio Beachart, the Polish Adonis and street man who has thrilled the world with his remarkable feats of strength is repeating the wonderful success he had on his former visit to H. F. Keith's Theatres. The bill surrounding this master marvel is one of the most delightful of the season. Jack, Detton, the lumber-headed dancer and co-writer of the show makes such a hit with Mary Hillyer that creates a gale of laughter with his comedy and song act. A funny little playlet called A Friend in Need is touring with Hans Holzer and Nicholas for co-principals is making a decided hit and the remainder of the bill includes such favorites as Marie Daumier, Alice Babs, available tonight George Watts and Belle Hawley in a series of comic song numbers, Barrell and File in a dancing novelty. The Silver Slugs, valve quintets, and Leo Gritti's remarkable organ solo.

STANLEY PICTURES CAINE DRAMA

Name the man, a screen drama of great emotional intensity, adapted from the latest novel by Sir Hall Caine. The Master of Man will be the theme of the week. In the surrounding program will be the first appearance of Waring's Pennsylvaniaans, who will make their exclusive here in Philadelphia. This organization, composed of clever comedians, who are also master of splendid ability, is one of the foremost in the country. They have been on tour and everywhere they play they are given tremendous ovations. There is nothing in the way of music that these artists cannot accomplish.

Their program is replete with the most infallible variety in the way of com positon and they are renowned in a manner that will prove a revelation to Philadelphians.

WARING'S PENNSYLVANIANS

SYMPHONISTS DE LAUZE, whose music, white full of pop, still preserves a commendable quality of refinement and unchangeable, dash and verve. The Pennsylvaniaans will present in pure an extra added attraction.

The Third Issue of Towne Journal Appears Today

The contents have been so prepared as to be interesting to the general public as well as to the technically inclined.

The feature of this issue is a detailed account of the dedication of the Desoto School of Medicine. Other articles include a description of the world's largest懊nimal power plant at Niagara Falls, and a discussion of the merits of a new form of superheated steam. This latter is a subject that interests famous scientists, who are among the present time.

A feature that will appeal particularly to cartoonists is a humorous interview with the Engineer's show written in the style of an interview. If it, Theodore, the engineer's handcolor illustrator, has a line of self-p look cartoons which accompany this article.

The man who buys a Stetson because of its style later discovers the long wearing qualities which make Stetson the choice of well-dressed men—everywhere.

CAMPUS HASH-HOUSES HAVE UNIQUE HISTORY

The Student Society of the University of Pennsylvania has a long and storied history when it comes to dining and socializing. One of the most notable features of campus life is the Hash-House, a tradition that dates back to the early days of the university.

The first Hash-House was established in 1894, and it quickly became a popular spot for students to socialize and enjoy a meal. Over the years, the Hash-House has undergone several name changes, but it has remained a staple of campus life.

One of the most famous Hash-Houses is the Ivy Club, which was founded in 1848. The Ivy Club is located in the heart of campus, and it is known for its rich history and traditions.

Another popular Hash-House is the Blackboard, which was founded in 1872. The Blackboard is known for its classic style and its famous blackboards, which are used to display messages and announcements.

The Hash-Houses are not just about food and drinks, however. They are also a place for students to bond and build lasting friendships. Many students have fond memories of spending time with friends at the Hash-Houses, and it is a tradition that is passed down from generation to generation.

In conclusion, the Hash-Houses are a unique and important part of the University of Pennsylvania's history. They are a place where students can come together to enjoy food, drinks, and each other's company. Whether you are a current student or an alumnus, the Hash-Houses are sure to hold special memories for you.
