FELLOWSHIP AWARDS

Thirty-Seven College and University Representatives for Recipients of Scholarships

APPLIES TO GRADUATE SCHOOL

Graduates of thirty-seven colleges and universities are the recipients of thirty-six fellowships and scholarships in the Graduate School for the academic year of 1924-25. Announcement of this class has just been made by President Penn man following their approval by the Board of Trustees and the Treasurer. Of these awards seventeen are on the Honors List.

During the last year the Graduate School had an extraordinary growth, the attendance increasing from 1525 in 1923-24 to 1925-26. This year, the academic distribution of the Graduate School continues to be unusual.

The post graduate student comes from forty states and fourteen foreign countries. The enrollment represents the graduates of approximately 125 other universities and colleges. Following is the list of those who have won important scholarships and fellowships for the coming academic year as announced by President Penn and Dean Herman V. Allen.

“Nothing Gets by the Sports Pages of the Public Ledger”

The biggest—and the best—staff of regular and special sports writers on any newspaper in Pennsylvania.

Every man is picked for his knowledge of the sport he covers and his ability to write about it in a way that is accurate, authoritative, breezy and entertaining—as sports news should be written.

Next to seeing any particular sports event is the pleasure of reading about it in the PUBLIC LEDGER.

And even if you did see it you will be given interesting sidelights and inside news you will be glad to get.

On the opposite page are pictures of some of the men who will write Sports News for you this season. Where will you find the equal of this staff on any other one newspaper?

Now that there seems to be a pretty good possibility of having rain for forty days and forty nights most of the boys don't seem to be hardly doing around this campus in those rains that need to have to maneuver an automobile.

It's not that we ride meltingly through muddy streets or wandering around in a yellow slicker but it certainly is a strain on one to go through lecture after lecture with water dripping steadily on one's head. It gives the lecture room much too much of the atmosphere of a Spanish Inquisition torture chamber.

A well known magazine is claiming in their advertisements that they can make a girl like this for your reunion and also that they can instruct how to propose without any usual stories of heartbreak. This sort of thing is certainly in direct competition with a college education and if they can perform certain certain functions also—such as teaching how to play poker and bridge well and how to wear a tuxedo and to do things properly, there is a danger that the institutions of home may drop out of existence.

One point of reassurance is that it will be very difficult to enjoy a Rockpetia by mail.

It has been rumored about that every person in the freshman class is clearly distinguishable in the picture just taken. It certainly is wonderful what progress has been made in art and photography.

With this accomplishment of yours on we hope the photographers will attempt to take pictures of this year's Vigilance Committee or the Christian Association Financial Campaign Committee.

If this is successful, next year's Class Record can be made about the size of the Saturday Evening Post and may be all of the boys can get it in.

A Communication—

Dear Off—While it is not possible that, owing to the acknowledged lack of interest of college public in the selection of Pullman car titles, the Pullman Company chose the bullet perforating missile "Courted Womam" as an especial treat but too obvious compliment to the boys in the Rocky Mountain Club. It might be further suggested that should the college follow our advice, it would be wise to select something to shock the Lady to share with that particular one as a mark of the officials discovering, at the end of the journey that the woman had been too glib, or had been recovered, and afterwardshopz lot of the playful ideas, would be very great.

Respectfully submitted;

Spark Plug

Spark Plug's idea is an excellent one and we submit it is the hope that you can see into the proper official minds. A railroad, several restaurants, a number of hotels and some small colleges have been named in honor of the Off by the Pullman College Company hasn't been named in this respect as yet.

Meanwhile, thinking Spark Plug is just as fine, we make no policy note of that word, "permeating", so we may use it in the future. The college has rather retain the heritage of these names and it is getting so that the readers could understand exactly what we said.

Just from unformed students taking lectures in 222 Legion Hall in the future. Only the other day a large group of placards down, placed the other day that a large group of placards down, placed the other day. We are not writing it.

Plan New School For Rural Instructors

University to Maintain Administrative School for Future Teachers

With the purpose of supplying more teachers for rural schools, the University, cooperating with the State Department of Public Instruction, will maintain a one-quarter-semester school at Gordon Heights, near West Chester. In conjunction with this school the Summer School will also conduct a rural extension-service school near the campus. All students who are specializing in the rural courses will make four hours of observation a week at Gordon Heights, and one hour a week at the University. Dr. Lyman A. King, assistant professor of educational administration at the University, as well as Thomas A. Bock, assistant director of rural education for Pennsylvania, and Clyde T. Saylor, superintendent of schools for Chester County, will assist in the work. Governor Fuller is deeply interested in the course, and he has pledged the assistance of the entire staff of the rural education department.

There are very few persons qualified for work in rural school supervision, according to Dr. W. L. French, director of the Summer School. Normal schools have been obliged to go outside of the State in order to maintain their rural teaching departments. Thus the opportunity for proficient teachers with proper rural training is especially great.
