VALENTINE REPORT

Woman students are being given an opportunity to have a voice on the campus by the publication of a student newspaper, "Mrs. Haspél," as it will be called. This is the first issue of "Mrs. Haspél."

"Mrs. Haspél" will be published every Friday morning, and will be distributed in all parts of the campus.

The first issue of "Mrs. Haspél" contains a number of interesting articles, including a feature on "The Woman Student's Role in the World Today," by Prof. Alice G. Millis, of the Department of Political Science and Government.

The newspaper will carry news and events of interest to the student body, as well as features on campus life, sports, and entertainment. The staff will be under the direction of Miss Grace Haspél, the editor, and will consist of a team of dedicated and enthusiastic student writers.

"Mrs. Haspél" is the result of a long-time effort by the student body to have a voice on the campus. The idea for the newspaper was first suggested by the Undergraduate Council, and was later approved by the Board of Trustees.

The first issue of "Mrs. Haspél" is now available, and the staff looks forward to continuing to serve the student body with interesting and informative content.

Educational School
Offers New Courses
Dr. Fletcher H. Swift, A Noted Authority, -

Sitting in the presence of a large audience, Dr. Swift Stimulating the opportunity of sharing one of the country's foremost authorities in the field of education, has inaugurated two new Saturday morning courses, which Fletcher

Harper Swift, Professor of Education and Administration, of the University of Michigan, has consented to teach. Professor Swift, who in an effort of kindness, will teach only Saturday morning at Pennsylvania so he has accepted a teaching appointment at Columbia University, New York, which won require ment of his time.

Graduate students only will be allowed to register for these courses, which are designed more for school superintendents and principals than for primary teachers.

For the year, between 8 and 10 a.m., on Saturday, Professor Swift will conduct a class in School Administration.

The next two hours will be devoted to a course on School Surveys, which will be followed after the mid-summer examinations of last years on "Problems of the City School Superintendent."

For girls interested in kindergarten work, Mr. J. H. Smink, Dean of the School of Education, has organized an other regular morning class. Miss Margaret C. Holmes, Assistant Director of Kindergarten in New York City and one of the foremost in the field of training Kindergarten Teachers, has been engaged as instructor. Miss Holmes is a graduate of University of Pennsylvania and, like Professor Swift, will teach only once a week at the University.

SEVENTY MEN ASPIRE

For Kite and Key

At the opening meeting of the Kite and Key Society yesterday in Houston Hall, twenty prospective candidates were approved to compete for election to membership in the society. The number of the debates for the competition was explained by J. L. Rice, '25 Wh., vice-president of the organization, who is acting as president in the absence of J. W. F. Ellis, '25 Wh.

One of the additional functions of the society this year will be the making of the pictures sections of the Pennsylvania in separation and high schools in neighboring cities and states. All approaching conditions will work and the election takes place sometime during April.

Another meeting will be held today in the Society's new club rooms in the Houston Club at 3:15.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN CLUB PLANS

INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP
R. F. Stephens, '25 Wh., president of the Rocky Mountain Club, announced to day that every Pennsylvanian born north from the Rocky Mountain range is invited to join the organization.

"We want little nothing better," he said.

"We have a very eligible site in the University with in the coming year, and we hope to have a very large and successful organization.

The purpose of this, as outlined by Stephens, is to unite socially the undergraduates from the Rocky Mountain and western states and to promote the University in the west. The club has a teaching meeting and officers elected were to help the University in different ways.

The council meeting and the first meeting were held on the University campus and the council meeting and the first meeting are expected to meet sometime in March this year. Stephens also plans to have two or three real western dinners in the course of the coming year.

"Last year," said President Stephens,

"we had five big dinner meetings on the books, and we intend to at least double this record in 1924-25. We incl are in the Rocky Mountain States, Washington, Oregon, California, Texas, New Mexico, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana

Missouri, and others' undergraduates from as we are eligible for membership.

The other officers of the club are, Vice-President William Cruse, '25 Wh., secetary, T. B. Miller '26 Wh., and Presitor, A. B. Penry, '25 Wh., president of the group, and as we have already mentioned, are expected to meet sometime in March this year. Stephens also plans to have two or three real western dinners in the course of the coming year.

We have vacancies for a few more agents both full time and part time.

Pennsylvania men desired, both Graduates and Under-Graduates.

tsham Gil Dobie, Coach of the Cornell football team, is experimenting considerable difficulty in replacing the veterans at last year's team if the reports reduced from th:exes are authentic. The big r. team, with its famous attacking style of play, will present several new faces in the lineup, when it appears on Franklin Field this year.

In the backfield, particularly, several stars have been made by graduation, and new men as Curry and Hamby will be safely missed, but most of all, a successor to George Pinn is needed. As it now stands the backfield is shaping up in a dependable kicker. Operating regularly in this department, and the indication is that he will be the main hope of the coaching staff in this season's contest.

Numerous faults in the general play of the team were apparent in the opening game with St. Bonaventure, last Saturday, but at this stage of the season, this is to be expected and no doubt points of hard work Day will be made to develop this material into one of his typical well drilled machines by the time the strongest weeks are to be encountered.

Defensive practice which has al-might be a tradition at Cambridge, Coach Fisher of Harvard is concentrating on developing a quarterback-on as a ball carrier. In the past Mr. Fisher has adhered strictly to the policy of not having a ball carrier as a part of the team, the theory being that a man who does not carry the ball is better able to defend the team. The plan has worked admirably in the past but if a player could be developed with this ability plus offensive strength, the team would be easier to handle on the attack. At present two men, Clock and Zarakor, are the leading contenders for the position.

Preparations are being made for the match with the University of Virginia next Saturday, Virginia, although defeating Hampden-Sydney College in the first game on their schedule, failed to disclose anything threatening. Untrained and unrepresented until the final period, the Virginians staved off defeat by launching an aerial attack which eventually won the game for them.

With only one veteran in the line, the Williams will present an inexperienced team when they encounter the Crimson on Saturday, and undoubtedly will shorten to their forward players an effort in spite of their opponents. However, the offense will have to buck hard at a little difficulty in breaking up all attempts to reach the end zone for the ball.

"Bob" Poelwe, Navy Coach, is having a hard battle at the present time with his new material. There is only one regular back and lineman on the squad at Annapolis. There are several freshman linemen, however, from whom great things are expected. The tentative varsity backfield at the present time is extremely heavy.

Joe Wood, head coach of the Yale baseball team, has issued a call for candidates for fall practice. Workouts will continue for about three weeks and in that time Wood expects to smooth out a combination which has winning potentials. Prentice also has been called out and Clyde Evans, in charge of the freshman team, will devote three weeks to intensive practice in order to have the opportunity that they may obtain experience which will benefit them in the spring.

Jack Currie, former big league pitcher with the world champion Athletics of the 1921 and 1923 seasons, has been appointed assistant baseball coach to Jack Smith at Princeton. He will have charge of the batting and coaching in the fall baseball practices.

The new assistant coach attached from Colby and then played for the Albany, where he remained on years. He was with the Brooklyn Dodgers four years and was the main pitcher for Phil lives one year. At the conclusion of the season he was appointed coach of the Williams College team. He fielded there until two weeks.

With the addition of graduates C. P. Long and M. Baird and the wealth of promising material on hand prospects for the coming season look unusually bright. Long, who was captain of the 1921 crew of the University of Washington, gave to Princeton as assistant coach. The other addition to the coaching staff is Walthale Baird, the 1924 Princeton junior varsity.

Perry Houghton's first serious test as coach at Columbia will come this fall.
The squad this year is practically a veteran one and as such has drilled since the last season. The most of the men are returning into form much quicker than in the past and Houghton has a team this fall which has winning potentials. From Columbia's 1921 team but two men are missing, both linemen and another very important one in Hautington's machine.

In the backfield this year Captain Kup-h filed back and Peacock at quarter are returning. Both are very promising men for the other two back field positions are Krellman and Reinhardt.

CHESS CLUB PROSPECTS BRIGHT

According to President Glenn O. Petty, the Chess Club has gained a great figure from the Chase team. The first meeting time the club will be held in room 4, Hockley Hall at 1:30 p.m. today.

All of last year's members are asked to be present as important plans for the coming year will be discussed. At pres-tent the prospects for the coming year are good height due to the fact that all of last year's team are back also a large number of members from the Kappa Kappa. The Philadelphia High School League, last year has raised their interest in chess.

The club will hold a meeting, Wednesday evening, October 9th, in the club room. The officers continue under the chairmanship of A. R. Gilman '22.

For all that are interested in the game, the program is to be held in room 4, Hock-

I Started Something

WHEN I announced in the newspaper that I had arranged with a leading manufacturer to sell 1000 of his hats every month, I started something.

Seems as though the entire population of Pennsylvania wanted to do the job for me, wanted to help me make good.

Well, the hats are sure moving—moving fast. Here's the reason:

They are 4.000 hats in every respect—good-looking, good-wearing, stylish hats. The proper model for each face and head.

The price concession the manufacturer made me is passing along to you—every penny of it. That's how I'm able to sell these 4.000 hats for $2.85—but I've got to sell to the 1000 a month—or lane!

Take a tip—come in.

GERMAN CLUB MEETING IN HOUSTON HALL TONIGHT

When the German Club convenes in the auditorium of Houston Hall this evening at 8 p.m., activities for the coming year will begin in earnest. This meeting is open to all University students, and it is hoped that a large number of new students will attend.

An attractive program has been planned. The principal address will be delivered by Dr. E. H. Rumney, head of the German department of the University. A short talk will also be given by a prominent undergraduate who has just returned from Germany.

In accordance with the policy initiated last year, open discussion will follow the speeches. This offers opportunity for self-expression in German to every student who attends. Dancing in the music of one of the popularGerman organ orchestras will complete the evening's program.

A novel entertainment is being planned by members of the German chorus, which will include a short play and singing. An annual dance will have its place at the end of the program. Dramatic dialogue will also be part of the night's entertainment.

Before the war the German club was one of the most active societies on the campus, but in 1917 the club disbanded because of the declaration of war against Germany. In the following five years it remained inactive but in 1922 it was reorganized. The club enjoyed an attendance of forty last year.

PLANK WALKING INNOVATION TO FEATURE PIRATES BALL

The annual Pirates Ball, given by the undergraduate body of women students will take place on Friday evening, October 4th in Walnut Lawn Hall at 7:30. The dance is given every year by the upperclassmen in honor of the freshmen and this year the committee hopes to stage an exceptionally thrilling program.

The Hall will be decorated like a ship and as the freshmen enter, they will be made to walk the plank in true pirate fashion, while the upperclassmen on shore await them. The proceeding following the "plank-walking" are a deep dark secret, excepting the blue in Betty Rhodes, chairman of the committee promises that there will be plenty of blood and gas before the end of El Cid's clock.

The various committees in charge are as follows: Betty Rhodes, chairman; Catharine Bohler, vice-chairman; Grace Haag, treasurer; Enid Haines, librarian; Edward Mau, registrar; Eleanor P. C. Medical Unit

At the summer camp of the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Carlisle, Pa., the University of Pennsylvania Medical Unit with a total of forty eight men, had the largest representation among fourteen University Medical Corps stationed in the Third Army. These men are in the third year medical class.

Of the present second year class one hundred percent of the eligible men are enlisted, a record which is unequalled in any of the medical schools in the country. Of the first year class, fifty percent of the present year class is on active duty. These men are expected to remain on active duty for the entire period of the current year class will be enrolled.

You Can't Keep Your Head on Your Work
If Your Pen Demands Your Attention

YOU cannot compose your thoughts—can you not see the points of a letter, if you are writing with a pen that bowels up or you get long. That pen is a mental drag. The sooner you replace it with the never failing, never rivaling Parker Duofold, the sooner you will be enabled to develop a hand of speed and style.

And we guarantee the point, failing, never. $7 is the usual Duofold price. Of the four-hundred-and-twenty-five models for the present year, eighteen are newcomers, and it is expected that during the ensuing week, the one hundred and twenty-five prices for the present year class will be enrolled.

Lloyd, Colonel J. M. Coffin, '24 College, no Medical, and a former managing editor of the Pennsylvanian, is in charge of the Medical Department.

ANNOUNCE CHANGES IN FACULTY

Several additional to the Law School Faculty have been made this year. Chief among these are the appointments of Dr. Austin Tupeen Wright, formerly of the faculty of the University of California, to a full professorship in the subjects of Partnership, Corporations, and Appleby Law, and of Dr. Lattan P. Biddle. '81 L., to the position of Lecturer in Assistant to the Dean. The new officers of the staff of the "Law Review" for this year are as follows: Editor-in-Chief, Charles B. Arnold, '24; Section Editors, Fred W. Peake, '26; Book Review Editor; Charles D. Scheid, '25. Business Manager, Henry W. Fogg, Jr.

Announcements have just been made to the effect that the complete men's faculty of the Law School are now open for the full season. The rules of the school will be published for the students. Applications for admission should be made at the office of the Secretary of the Law School.

Biddle. '81 L., to the position of Lecturer in Assistant to the Dean. The new officers of the staff of the "Law Review" for this year are as follows: Editor-in-Chief, Charles B. Arnold, '24; Section Editors, Fred W. Peake, '26; Book Review Editor; Charles D. Scheid, '25. Business Manager, Henry W. Fogg, Jr.

CHESTNUT HILL ACADEMY
CLUB WELCOMES NEWCOMERS

Eight former Chestnut Hill Academy students were welcomed at its regular meeting of the Chestnut Hill Academy Club held yesterday afternoon in room 1, Horace Hall. The meeting was informal and open to the members to become acquainted with the newcomers from the St. Martin's institution.

Plans were made to do that the clubs and other events include a social, an academic, and an athletic program. The first program was the social program and the second was the academic program. The third program was the athletic program. The social program included a social event and a social event. The academic program included a social event and a social event. There will be a short business meeting at this time. Members of the club will announce their selection of committees for the year 1924-25. Plans will also be made for this time for the freshman reception which will be held the latter part of next week.

OPEN HOUSE AT 1:30
Tonight there will be open house at the International Student's House, 2901 Forty-third St. for all students. An entertainment will be provided by a special committee, which promises to be very interesting. An informal reception will wind up the evening. This is the first big affair of the year and a big turnout from the entire student body is expected. Last night the Chinese students of the University had an open house at the I. S. H.

UNIVERSITY SOCCERISTS PREPARE FOR AUTOCAR CO GAME TOMORROW

Soccer practice yesterday afternoon saw a great number of new men out for places on the team. The new River Field locker house was occupied for the first time. A hard practice followed in preparation for the game Saturday with the Autocar Co. team at Haverford, Pennsylvania. The practice will be repeated by practically the same team that faced Englewood A. C. last Saturday at River Field.

The Junior Varsity will play the Germantown Boys' Club tomorrow at River Field and the third team will tackle the Germantown third team at the Philadelphia Cricket Club Field. The Junior Varsity team will prove a real test for the Red and Blue. They are rated as one of the best teams outside the professional ranks.
