ARCHITECTS ORIGINATE BEAD ARTS DRAWINGS

Architects are originating bead arts drawings for the new Student Union. They are designing unique pieces that will be displayed in various public spaces around the school. The designs include intricate beadwork that will be executed by local artists. The goal is to create a vibrant, artistic environment that will enhance the student experience. The drawings are expected to be completed by the end of the month.

FLASH STRONG AERIAL ATTACK

Aerial Attack was the theme of the day for the Freshman football team. The team was flown over the city in a strong, healthy body to boost morale and encourage students to support the team. The flight was a success, and the aerial display was well-received by the crowd. The team will continue to train hard and prepare for the upcoming games.

Gymnasts Arrang preliminary Rally

Several Unique Features On Program Including Individual Shouts

Officially opening the work for the Gymnasts Club is the preliminary Rally in Wright Hall at 5 p.m. Wednesday. It has been decided that preliminarily it is to make freshmen acquainted with the great opportunities in sports. A good way to introduce the newcomers to their school and to make friends with each other. The preliminary Rally will be held on the main gym floor and will feature a strong body of athletes, including individual shouts and team cheers.

The Scrubs Crossed Varsity Coal in Secret Drill was a big hit with the students. The coal was hidden in various locations around the campus, and the students had to search for it. The drill was a fun and exciting way to get the students involved in school activities and to build team spirit.

The first Co-Educational mixer of the year happened yesterday. One of the fresher ones noted on a step coming downstairs in College Hall and catapulted into a group of men according to the type of coat she was wearing. It is possible that this may occur again at any time so we are all unable to expect such occurrences.

Because of recent plagues against rich people in several large cities and fatal results coming from some of the accidents, several insurance companies are of fering a special policy. We think the Under-

Barlowe Burke, Wharton School Senior, Among University For Campaign Duty

IS EXPERIENCED SPEAKER

Twenty years old, political speaker, in two Republican presidential campaigns, student of three universities in many campaigns and active in extra-curricular activities at the University of Pennsylvania, is the nephew of Daniel Burke, baron of Dr. and Mrs. John Burke, 1020 Woodland Ave. He is a senior in the Wharton School, and is carrying a full schedule. At the same time, he is serving with the Republican state committee as a campaign speaker for this section. Last week he spoke independently before the Montgomery County Republican Women at Norristown. After he is graduated next June, he wants to go into the diplomatic service. His present name is University History and Languages. Last summer he attended New College, Oxford University. There he studied History and got an idea of English institutions. "It was a highly interesting summer," he said. At Oxford he was doing work for the American Academy of Political Science. The preceding summer he studied Spanish at the University of Porto Alegro. Just to keep himself from getting lazy, has gone in for extracurricular activities along with others as a member of the Undergraduate Debating Union, Secretary, Whitaker, Class of '87, and in the Oxford Union Society, Secretary, Class of '87. He has been a member of the Oxford Union Society, secretary, Class of '87.
