Mr. Hubert Addelman, Miss Betty Cook, president of the club, attended the meeting with a brief welcome to all of the new people who were present and invited them to become members of the club. She also gave a short outline of the club's history and told of the great success attained by the organization in the four years in which it has been in operation. Edward Bitter, a member of the club last year and one of its greatest supporters, spoke of the valuable record gained by the club and predicted a successful future, he stated that everyone, who possibly can, go to the dramas, for there is a world of fun and entertainment to be derived from the work.

Motherhood in the Dramatic Club

In order to get a "back Graduate and an undergraduate and it is the only society on the campus which includes women students in its ranks. Last year there were eighteen members and it is hoped to raise this number to over one hundred for the year 1924-15.

JUSTICE IN THE BALANCE

Last season was a brilliant one for Pennsylvania crews. After years of mediocrity, the University emerged as a strong competitor to the best Eastern teams.

In the early season three crews shone out as the best of the Red and Blue eight. The competition between these three was so keen that the crews were long undecided which boat was to race as the Varsity. Matters were complicated further by the fact that the crews accepted an invitation to enter a Pennsylvania crew in the Olympic trials which were to be held on the Schuylkill.

The three crews stroked by Franklin, the row in the Olympic trials, and the second and third races as the Varsity. Matters were complicated further by the substitution of the Junior eight stroked by the withdrawing of the Varsity boat from the tryouts on the campus and in the Do Ir

The results of the various races are doubtless familiar to all interested parties. The University boat in the Olympic trials finished fourth; the Franklin stroked come came in third in the Varsity event at Princeton, while the Junior crew with Boys at No. 8, easily defeated the rival on the Hudson.

The news of the question of starting letters before coming to the Crew in the coming event at Princeton. For a peculiar situation confronts the Crew. Should not the boat which represented Pennsylvania in the Olympic trials be as recognized? How much of a margin does the Varsity boat from the Franklin come in third in the Varsity event at Princeton, while the Junior crew with Boys at No. 8, easily defeated the rival on the Hudson.

WHERE TO GO IN PHILADELPHIA

THE BEST THEATERS, MOVIES, PLACES TO DINE AND DANCE
have an opportunity for the series of games between Harvard and Yale under the rules which all American colleges were destined to adopt.

The match at Montreal was witnessed by about 1,500 people as compared to 25 who saw the same game at Cambridge. The play consisted of three games of one half hour each and Harvard scored three touchdowns to none for McGill, although coaches rules w no need of the pair contemporary accounts said.

"During the first half-hour there were many good struggles and one touchdown was scored by McGill, who was especially for it and who also scored another in the next half-hour. Florida not the touchdowns in the third half-hour, he quickly forcing his partners and kicks came within two feet of getting the ball."

"It was not until the middle of the game that the Mults got well down to work and were then kept down to their own goal by the steady work and sharp play of the Harvards. During all this time the Mults had only two tries and all their attempts they were met by the line and wreck of the other side."
Dr. Penniman First In Provost's House

Will Move Soon To House On Pine Street.
Gift of Pennsylvania Alumni

I was announced today by Mr. Dollar, assistant to the Provost, that Provost
J. Penniman would, in the near future, occupy the Provost's Home at 3901 Pine St., for permanent residence.

The alterations being made are now practically completed and it is expected that the home will be ready for occupancy about October 20th.

The Provost's Home was bought by a subscription taken among the Alumni and presented in the University to Dr.
J. Penniman Smith was then Provost
but he never availed himself of the opportunity to live there. During the year 1917-18 it was used to house the of-cers of the Board of Visitors, Treasurer and Purchasing Agent. Then, when it was thought that General Lowell Wood was coming here as Provost, these offers were renewed to the Provost for occupation in the Blanchard Building.

In this event General Wood did not come to the University and it is rumored for Dr. Penniman to be the first Provost to move to the House on his home.

HAIL PENNSYLVANIA

Once upon a time when Hail Pennsylknow.

But now it's over a cup of coffee.

And, as the departed Bert Williams said, "It's hard to make your appetite on the coffee."

But, we're told that good stuff can be

And that is the least you can save here

But, as we were saying——

You fellows should really see what
