Dr. Grayson Praises Red and Blue Football Team at Houston Club Smoker

A "Red Lafayette" spirit prevailed at the Houston Club yesterday as the Head of the History Department, Dr. Grayson, addressed a large assembly in the Banquet Hall.

Dr. Grayson's talk, "College Football," was well received. "We are proud of our football team," he said. "It has been a symbol of our university and its spirit."

Basketball Practice to Begin Monday Evening

"Coaches will have the Freshmen, Reserve and Freshmen Material at hand in the Freshman Gym," the university bulletin stated yesterday.

FIRST TEAM HIGHER SCHEDULE

Preparing for the stiff football season will be the junior team, which will meet in the gymnasium every afternoon until the end of September.

Active practice will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Practice at 4 o'clock.

First game will be played Oct. 27 against Villanova.

INDICATIONS ARE THAT PENNSYLVANIA WILL PLAY BRAND NEW STYLE

Indications are that Pennsylvania will play a brand new style this year.

The system of the team will be the "T." The backfield will be composed of three backs.

Several times during the last eight years on the program, the "T." system has been used with success.

"The "T." system is the best defense we have," said Coach McWilliams yesterday.

The "T." system has been used in several games this year, and the team has been successful in using it.

"Cornell has a good team this year," said Coach McWilliams yesterday.

"They are a good team, but we have a better team."

CAMPUS CHURCHES EXTEND AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIPS

John H. Harris Begins Series of Special Services at Church of Holy Communion Tomorrow

Ewworth League Holds Debate

In accordance with the plan recently adopted by the campus churches, tomorrow will be Affiliation Sunday. A special service was conducted today by the Christian Association Representatives last spring which regarded the affiliation of the college student with various churches during their stay at the University. This plan was acted upon and as a result, students will be able to enjoy the privileges of church membership without having to withdraw their names from their home churches. Last spring it was also agreed that November 2 would be the date set for the joining of affiliated members. The plan has met with the hearty approval and support of the students.

John Henry Harris, president of Newbury College, South Carolina, has been asked to preach a series of sermons on "What is a Christian?" and tomorrow he will take as his first topic: "What is the Holy Catholic Church?" This series of sermons will be given in the Church of the Holy Communion, Hot and Chestnut Streets.

Holy Communion will be observed at 3:00 p.m. in Christau Chester Baptist Church at 39th and 30th and at the Calvary Metho-

Publication Boards to Battle for Grid Title

Chances will be given the initiators of this riot to back out of the big fiasco they have stirred up, and to see that this inane conflict participation in the struggle will be compulsory for all members of the opposing boards of both publications. Thus, with the board of editing moved from the location into the field of play, the element of professionalism will be out of the game.

This test of professional spirit, which, according to the sport fans of writers, is the true measure of collegiate写作 today, will be further cut out by another regulation which will not permit the two editors to hold any practice sessions before the opening whistle blows. Those most interested in collegiate sport on a big scale have determined in secret that the reputation of the campus will not be blackened unless participants in this battle of the century are compelled to play without uniforms, and the legal editors, with the good of the University always in front of them and remembering all thought of personal adornment, have inserted this clause in the articles of agreement.

This will be held at the Second Presbyterian Church, 1st and Walnut Streets. Dr. George Keith Bingham will give an account of the three political parties at the Men’s Class meeting of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church at 12:00 o'clock. The regular Young People’s meeting, at 1:45 o'clock, will be led by Miss Theodora Williams, of Frankfort.

At the breast of the Fellowship of the Friends’ Church, held yesterday at the Yellow Lantern, Mr. Wilbert Barnes Smith, ’09 Wh., who is now National Secretary of the Young Men’s Christian Association at Cairo, Egypt, spoke on the problems of Mohammedanism against the preaching of the Christian Gospel. Arrangements were made to have Mr. Smith meet students of the University at the Sigma Nu Fraternity House, 3319 Walnut Street, from 10:00 to 11:45 o'clock tomorrow; at the Church of the Transformation, from 11:45 to 12:00 o'clock, and at the Chestnut Street Baptist Church, from 12:45 to 1:00 o'clock.

Clothes—
An index to character.
Don't underestimate the value of good clothing—men judge you largely by your appearance, and the fellow who isn't properly dressed is working under a tremendous handicap.

"Dress Well & Succeed" is more than a slogan—it's sound common sense. You will be surprised to see how well you may be dressed at a modest outlay if you permit us to demonstrate our values in Fall and Winter Clothes.

THE STORE THAT GETS THE NEW THINGS FIRST

As we have said before, to get the new things first is not so important in itself. The important thing is to get them RIGHT.

Young men who know will know these suits are right, as well as new and exclusive.

Men's Wickham Suits in Advance Spring Colors

This is what the newspaper man would call a "scoop" and the diplomatist a "coop." It is a master-stroke for Wickham Clothes.

Here are the plain facts about a most extraordinary proceeding:

Seeing in advance the great demand for Suits of LIGHTER, BRIGHTER COLORS, we persuaded one of America's best cloth manufacturers to deliver his exclusive mailings this Spring, 1925, to be made into Wickham Suits for Autumn, 1924. No fear of the weight not being right—they are beautifully finished

Light Grays and Lavenders Entirely New and Exclusive

Every college man and up-to-date young business man will want to see these Suits. SEE EARTH EARY. The quantity you need is limited.

We believe there's nothing like them in this city. We are very sure there's nothing like them at anything like the price.

The design, tailoring and finish are in the true Wickham manner. Beautifully worsted cloth, full side trousers. The fabric is of the finest, pure, long-staple wool. They are new and exclusive.
