In an effort to ensure the continued publication of our fine literary magazine that was awarded the annual competition by the Judge last year, the Punch Bowl opens its season with a longer, more ambitious program than ever before. The program will be in the hands of the Board of Directors, open to Freshmen only. The punch bowl has announced that it has new and improved ingredients for the popular beverage, open to Freshmen only.

PUNCH BOWL OPENS BUSINESS

A competition among the halls and fraternities resulted in the appointment of the judges for the annual competition. Those in attendance volunteered their services to count the tickets, and the judges were appointed to award the prizes.

Authors Declaring of Having Repeal for the Repeal of the Prohibition Amendment, Lay On at This Time

The managing board has instituted the competition at the present time in order to secure advertisements during the coming holidays. Obtainment of such advertisements will also be part of the duties of the candidates.

The new competition will continue until the last, at which time new men will be elected. This competition has been in the collection of candidates. Those are the number of new subscribes obtained, the amount of advertisement secured, and the ability required for the office.

FRESHMEN MUST ATTEND

ASSEMBLY TODAY AT 2 P.M.

Last year's students are required to attend a meeting to be held at 2 p.m. today in Houston Hall. The purpose of the meeting is to inform the students of the different duties required of them, and to give them an opportunity to express their opinions.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the University Board of Directors. First, all classes will be called before the assembly. Then, the program will be presented, and the students will be given an opportunity to express their opinions.

LOWEN WILL CONDUCT CLASSES IN NEWSPAPER WRITING

Continuing the work of last week, Edwin Lowen, director of the University News, will conduct classes in newspaper writing. The classes will be held in the Students' Union, and will be open to all students. The classes will be conducted in a series of lectures, and will deal with the different aspects of newspaper writing and its connection with the press in a very general way.

MISSIONARY SCHOOL ANNOUNCES

The Missionary School announces that a special program will be presented at the next meeting, and that the students will be given an opportunity to express their opinions.

Dr. Edgar F. Smith announces endowment in letter to chairman

The Endowment Fund Committee is at work, and has already made an offer to the present University administration, but by that of past years is evidenced by the fact that the present University administration is not as strong as it should be. There is no need to be disappointed in the selection of candidates. The number of new subscribes obtained, the amount of advertisement secured, and the ability required for the office.

The University president was present at the meeting, and the chairman expressed the hope that the next University administration will be as strong as the present one.

HARMONY AMONG FRATERNITIES

Tucked away in the News-Cabinet of the "Pennsylvaniaian" was a small paragraph to the effect that fraternal rivalries were being ended for the immediate future. Such a sentiment was welcomed by students throughout the university. The article stated that: "The inter-fraternal rivalry has disappeared. Co-education has been inaugurated, and the university has become a better place to live."
