Gymnastics: Past Strong Eastern Contender in Efforts to Annex Intercollegiate Honors

FRESHMAN COMBINATION STRONG

Announcement has been made by J. L. Buckley, 25 Wh., manager of the University gym team of the schedule to be followed by the gymn team this season.

February 1 - Temple University
March 2 - Princeton, at Wright Hall
March 28 - Army at Annapolis.
March 29- Intercollegiates at Boston. Although this scientific review was anyone assuming the duties of the manager, who is expected to keep the team in shape is in very enthusiastic over the prospects of winning some of the intercollegiate championships this year.

The entire squad has been working out, and as a result several new stars have been developed. Krueger, '24, rebounding into an all around gymnast, while McCollin, '24, in fast becoming the top class contender.

Six veterans of last year's team agree on the makeup of the University's first appearance. Captain Romokea is a fine competitor on the parallel bars. McCollin and his partner, Coffin, is doing up well in the parallel, and is teaming off well with Atkins in the tumble. Atkins, last year's freshman star is showing promise on the side bars. Romokea and therefore are working hard to make the best of time.
