Shades Of Casanova!

Were the bygone lady-killer on this campus today, he'd be going home Xmas in Pennsyltahian apparel. The old boy would realize the value of such equipment in his line.

He'd have a variety of ties, from what is known as the largest Assortment in Town. Ten million of women would hang from his belt.

But Casanova's dead, you're alive—and its your turn now.

(for B. B. Inquire, M. Grace, and Lee Pikes)

The trouble seems to be that education is the college is not advancing at the same pace as the outside world. There are schools today similar to conditions, which seem to indicate an overabundance of extra-curricular activities in the departments of undergraduate work, are pushing students. What should be done is that the abandonment of these extracurricular activities that the student sink to the level of a mere spectator. For instance, what leisure is offered in undergraduate to acquire the cultural benefits which are available from participating in the numerous social and athletic activities on the campus.

The local stores might do well to put in a line of college actuarial which both suits for the students who would like to take advantage of the numerous steam lounges on the campus.

We are sorry that Mike Forrester is ill. He has been away for two days now.

When six men have to use the same gym locker, who is it that they all try to make up their own in the same class?

It was certainly too bad that this ship Ts Buoy had to be turned out of the fog because of the weather.

In the presence of the Junior Prom, conferring the distinction of being the student, he would probably be a wonder in a regular Williams outfit.

Photograph close to 135 pounds. His height and reach would make him a valuable man if his floor work measures up to his size. He has shown vast improvement in the two practices sessions in which he has taken part, and C. J. McNichol is watching the newcomer closely.

The final workout before the St. Joseph’s game will be held Friday night. It is expected that only a light practice will be featured at that time. The team will be given a few days at Christmas in which to go home, but must return several days before New Year’s to get into shape for the international club with Queens College, of Canada.

BURKE OFFERS OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS CIVIC PROBLEMS

Barlow Burke, ’23 Wh., will meet all students who are interested in civic duties and citizenship today at 4 P.M. at 227 North Thirty-sixth Street, or tomorrow at 1 P.M. at the Red and Blue office in Houston Hall. The purpose of these meetings is to give all men who would like to secure invitations to the meetings of the Young Men’s group, which discusses these matters regularly at the Y.M. Club of Philadelphia, some information concerning it.

This group was organized recently by a number of graduates of the University who are interested in civic duties as they concern Philadelphia. It includes many men who were prominent on the campus as undergraduates and who have made many contributions of a public nature concerning municipal government, especially in Philadelphia. Mr. Burke is convinced that all who take advantage of this opportunity to attend their discussion groups will find them very interesting as well as instructive.
