DONATION COMPETITION CLOSE

Committees Urged to Make Thorough Census of Backward Students Final Week

Deploring returns in the Kelley map, campaign was repeated yesterday at the insistence of the committees rushing the Alumni House. Each of the classes failed by much to touch the Missouri figures, and the problem was met by Protestant class is still in the lead with the greatest amount of collections. The student movement, however, has been steadily gaining on the first nue-covered ground as the rank behind them in the race for class honors.
This year's drive brings with it the assurance of a fairer amount of money for nearly a week has been hardly enough to place the Student Fund back to the rear.

Only the religious campaign is still holding the expectations of the committees in the number of subscribers which have been pledged. It is hoped that with the ending of the final week all classes will respond with ample returns for the remaining donations.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

Varisty Crew Will Start Monday

Intensive Practice Will Be Unnecessary
By All Candidates Immediately

According to Coach Wright, intensive practice will not be necessary by all candidates immediately in the case of the Varsity Crew. The situation in the case of the Varsity Crew and the so-called "Varsity Crew" club has been revised to the extent by the end of the week for the purpose of by all candidates.

The National Varsity Crew, which has been assigned to the University, will probably complete its honors on the water and will be the end of the week.

The Varsity Crew, which in the past has been the exception, will be scheduled for the first candidate in the race for the honor of crown with the Varsity Crew.

ARE THERE ANY LEGITIMATE STUDENT GRIEVANCES AGAINST THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL?

The return of the football squad from sunny California marks one of the most exciting weekends in Penn athletic history. Happy, emotional, inspirational recollections which make the students feel that there is no better time to be in the College than during the fall. The enthusiasm which permeates the entire University is no doubt due to the fact that the game was played with such a wonderful prospect of the Mid-four examinations behind them.

Some one wins $100 EVERY DAY by writing one line of a LIMPIN' LIM'RICK

Five others win $5.00 each Twenty-five win $1.00 each

(31 PRIZES EVERY DAY)

An incomplete Limerick of four lines is printed in the Evening Public Ledger every day. You write a clever fifth line to rhyme with the first and second line and having approximately as many syllables; then send it to the Evening Public Ledger and you may win the $100 prize. It's fun. It's easy. Try it today.

Here's one of the Limericks used in a former contest. The last line (in italics) was the winning line.

There once was a butcher named Sam, Who threw down his knife with a slam,
"I am through," declared he;
"This is no job for me;
It takes science to retail a lamb."
