Pennsylvania's varsity football squad, whose brilliant season resulted in their being recognized as Eastern football champions by the Veteran Athletes of Philadelphia.

Ed McGahey, whose brilliant play at tackle during the past season won him a place on Walter Camp's All-American selection.

Joseph Wilson of Corning, N. Y., varsity tackle, elected captain of the 1925 football team. Injuries kept him out of the California game.

Andy Smith, former Pennsylvania football star and now coach of the California team which defeated Pennsylvania on New Year's Day.
Jim Carroll, whose game at forward on the basketball team has been a big factor in the team's success so far this season.

Bill Koros, captain of this year's team, at present individual high scorer in the league.

Decroup, star of last year's Freshman team, now occupies a steady berth at guard.

"Top" Hoyle, distinctive California back, who starred in the New Year's Day game.

Jennie Onyx, halfback of the California Bear, considered one of the most brilliant drop-kickers in the Coast.

"Scoop" Carlson, who proved a powerful foe against the Pennsylvania team in the recent battle.

Eva Le Gallier, now playing in "The Swan" at the Garrick.
"Baba" Horrell, California's brilliant center, picked by Walter Camp for his All-American team at a guard position.

Walk-Over

After six o'clock, shoes must be black as the night.

You see elders, bastards, college lads, and ten-thousand preppystorm country chaps. That doesn't make them men. The only correct shoe to wear after six o'clock is black. The only correctly fitting shoe to wear at any time is a Walk-Over. Select enough shoes to wear on all occasions. Select them two and know that your Walk-Over fits you as well as they fit the occasion.
