WHERE TO GO IN PHILADELPHIA

The Best Theaters, Movies, Places to Dine and Dance

AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATER

If you want to have a good laugh at the bill at B. F. Keith's Theater this week, you'll enjoy the material which has been presented here that contains some of John Bull's best bits, from the one this week. First there is Lily Holt, England's funniest shadow comic in America, only three weeks ago, but already established as one of the most spectacular. John Bull has ever contributed to the American stage. From sunny Spain there is Pepito, a comedian who initates all sorts of things and keeps the home in a roar of laughter. America is well represented, first of all by Ted and Betty Healy, whose eccentric comedy, skits, farce, and fancy comedies are always delicious to the audience, and Yorke and Lord, two eccentric comedians who create scenes for their audience. Yorke's beak and Lord's, two eccentric comedians who are always presented here, can always be counted on to make their appearance. Next comes Lily Holt, who has been presented here for the week of January 26. This will be a special engagement here for the "Slender Belvedere" and the "Merry Widow." He will present a special show called "Alice of Tartary," which is a story of Russian retreat. Then comes Mortons, from Kit, Clara and Joe, whose vaudeville's most popular family of the moment, will offer their newest song and dance offering Ed Healy and Allan Pringle with their new song and dance offering, Ted Healy and Allan Pringle. The Stanley program has been consistently maintained by Jules E. Mastbaum, president of the Stanley Company of America. The Stanley has housed some of the biggest shows and the biggest names in American stage history. The week of January 26, opening one of the most interesting situations of a new production of the musical "Paradise." The high standard that has been associated with the Stanley program has been consistently maintained by Jules E. Mastbaum, president of the Stanley Company of America. The Stanley has housed some of the most important experiences in dramatic presentation, while the theatre stands second to none in the musical presentations. The music by the Stanley Symphony Orchestra, visiting soloists, both instrumental and vocal, and visiting orchestras. The week of January 26 will find the Stanley in a position to present "A Thief in Paradise," which will be one of the show's features. George B. Goldwyn has produced a thrilling, colorful romance that ranks with the other latest screen plays to be given to the world. Ronald Colman, Doris Kenyon, and Allen Pringle, with Claude Gillingwater, Alphonse Clark, and Charlie Treco will be the cast of players. It is in the story of the man who marries an attractive girl, falls in love with one girl and is married to another. He is an interlaced, song and dance production that ranks with one of the finest musical productions of the Stanley, and its success in the musical presentation.

The evening program includes a special "Parade," presented by Masters Pasternack, choreographed by Fred Pilot and voiced by A. L. Allen, music by Paul Oscard and verse by A. Upjohn and William W.
