DARTMOUTH'S HOPES FOR CHAMPIONSHIP DEPEND ON PENNSYLVANIA GAME

Hannover Squad Has Defeated All League Opponents Except Princeton, Which it Will Face Tomorrow

TIGERS FIRST IN LEAGUE RACE
Pennsylvania Has Lost Only One Home Game in Twenty-One Years

Three Victories Have Already Been Achieved by the Pennsylvania Tigers, Who Are Point Leaders by a Margin of Two Points Over the Next Highesteering Team, the Princeton Tigers. The Princeton Tigers, who are now out of the running for the championship, have been defeated by the Pennsylvania Tigers in their last two games. The Pennsylvania Tigers have won their last two games, and are now in the lead with three victories each. The Princeton Tigers have only one victory, and are in fourth place with a record of one victory and two losses.

The Pennsylvania Tigers have shown remarkable consistency in their play, having won all of their games so far. They are led by their star quarterback, who has thrown a total of six touchdown passes so far this season. The Princeton Tigers, on the other hand, have not been as successful, having only one victory in their last three games.

The Pennsylvania Tigers will face the Princeton Tigers tomorrow, and it is expected that the Pennsylvania Tigers will continue their winning streak. The Princeton Tigers, on the other hand, are in a difficult position and will have to work hard to avoid another loss.

In conclusion, the Pennsylvania Tigers are currently leading the league with three victories each, and are expected to continue their winning streak. The Princeton Tigers, on the other hand, are in a difficult position and will have to work hard to avoid another loss.

SARAH'S BLOOD DASH

The number of complaints that have come in already about one side of the word "Penn" in yesterday's column is humbling. We have always known that there were many readers for this space and finally hit on that决定 to find out. I worked up to four. We thank you, excellent.

There was only one disturbing factor connected with the fire of complaint that comes in. Nearly of the correspondents unadvisedly referred to the syllabus in that space just out of their reach on the outside of Palermo's Pennsylvania, and we have always maintained that it did not matter what was put in that space, so no one read it.

We are simply in sympathy with the assumption to use Pennsylvania instead of Penn. In fact, for the last week we have been working on the possibility of changing the name of this column to Pennsylvania and Writing Penn.

This warning that comes 25 to 30 minutes, is a signal for starting the废话. The final violin is blown ten minutes later, consisting of various ideas to work the final conclusion.

The plan is certainly interesting, but not of all practical for this campus. The combination would work fine for all, a couple of cottons, and maybe even an earthquake before they would get anything.

The plan would have the advantage of giving our powers some something to do. Judging by the temperature of some of our classrooms, there must be burning heavy on their hands.

We suppose the University of Oklahoma will soon be in the sack and giving out suits for cutting winter dates.

The progress made will be manifested at the concert to come, when the Glee Club and the University Orchestra will appear for the last time this season. You are offered the opportunity of hearing to an entertainment rendered by a growing unit of Pennsylvania and one which will be favorably recalled by others and many in other colleges. It is quite possible to become better acquainted with, and more fully to aspire of, one of the most popular acts.

Take A Weekly Trip Home—Over The Telephone

"It’s Jim . . . Telephoning from College!"

Jim hasn’t a motor-car. Jim hasn’t a Phi Beta Kappa key. He isn’t what you would call a Social Lion. Neither is he a star athlete.

Yet, if you were to ask the first man you met on the Campus who is the best liked man at college . . . he would, in all probability, mention Jim’s name.

Because Jim has a reputation for being a good fellow—a fellow of those kindly, heart-felt type who figure that the other fellow’s feelings come first.

That reputation is well founded, is proved by the fact that every week of his College Life (and he is a Senior now) he telephoned his Mother and his Dad. A worthy habit . . . .

If you only knew how much your Mother and Dad would enjoy a weekly telephone call from you. If you only knew how much you would enjoy those little chats yourself—You would certainly emulate the example of the well-liked Jim!
