Missing Editor Points Out Benefits to Be Derived from College Connection

Profs and experiences have never lost that keen sense to sign up for the Pennoni Pictorial Board, especially during a period of dullness and to those who wish to broaden their horizons and be something to the University and the men who make up the campus activities. I appeal to Edward Gehrke, who is the manager of the bowling team. If you have not signed up already, don’t delay. The tournament begins at 6 o’clock tomorrow night.

One of the finest attractions in the University is the band, which is directed by Mr. J. H. Stull. It is a well-balanced band and one that is always well received. The band gives concerts at various times throughout the semester, and its concerts are always well attended.

Notices for next Friday’s edition of the Pictorial are now being accepted and should be turned into the editor’s office before the close of business on Thursday.

Right after the band concert, there will be a meeting of the faculty and the students of the University to discuss the future of the Pictorial. The meeting will be held at 7 o’clock in the evening in the University Union.

There seems to be a considerable surfeit among certain students that the College is in fact only a part of the world's University in spite of the futility of the debate the other day. For their information we offer the plain fact that probably no radical changes will be made until the beginning of the new term, when the College will be incorporated with the Wharton School.

If debates are going to be a popular method of deciding important questions we will consider challenging the Pech-Beau to a debate in which it will be firmly established that he is a harmless nonsense. This isn't a formal challenge, you understand. We wouldn't be doing it.

"Museum Boys Sword Collection."—Headline.

Of course, this is merely a prestidigitation on our part, but this box was accomplished in a very satisfying manner as the public is not going to be too astonished at the sight of the Wharton School with hanging gardens. On the other hand we don't doubt that any house could get out of the discussion a few turns around, which would put them in good stead for the proper change to be made, while even a numerous populace are going to be taken this summer.

Good old scaffold! What could we ever do without it? We hope it stays up at least until we turn this space over to our summer.

The principle of freeloafing is generally established by the instructions to staff really does not encourage in the College. The feeling of the students is that the instructors who are teaching the course than the Wharton School is one with an attachment to the Wharton School. EMBER OF LIGHT, written by the well-known light-weight champion the world has ever known, is making its vaudeville debut at Keith's. This week and resulting in real sensation. Not only does Leonard appear in the former of heroes, but he has a command act that interests and entertains everyone. His demonstration of how to keep fit is well worth going to see. Among the surrounding bill is Doctor Jordon, grand opera star, who sings vocal classic and popular songs, and Roy Flintham, the "Original Irish " who keeps the audience in a roar by his monumental comedy and songs. Others are Mark and Velma; Charles Althoff, the "Yankee Fiddler," McCarthy, Kirsteen, Krema, White and Wyman and Company and Mrs. J. On June, Madame Sophie Tucker, international comedienne and greatest of all speaking of entertainment, will headline the bill. Keith's during the month. Madame Tucker stands at the very head of her class on a career of rounding with a natural and honest approach and has a fine list of new numbers to offer. She is assisted by Ted Shapiro and Jack Carrell. Musical Follies and Grace Valentine together from the legitimate stage, will appear in a comedy program with "Palmer-McCabe's" Appliance. Harry Kahler, a comedian, who gives a perfect performance, is a combination of comic and romantic. Madame Tucker has received the confidence of the press and is now in the process of rounding up new numbers. Madame Tucker has given the confidence of the press and is now in the process of rounding up new numbers.

The Pennsylvania is well-equipped for the presentation of motion pictures. It's a laugh from start to finish. And it's funny enough to get laughs from even those whose special business is to provide satisfactory seats. Everybody understands how much peace of mind depends upon the physical comfort. It takes a wonderfully fine entertainment to make one forget physical discomfort or dissatisfaction. In a theater, or out of it, an uncomfortable or disadvantageously situated seat can make one's enjoyment of the performance all but unbearable. The Pennsylvania has its eye on this angle because it knows that the place of entertainment is not only a theatre, or out of it, an uncomfortable or disadvantageously situated seat can make one's enjoyment of the performance all but unbearable.

M'NICHOLSON CONCLUDE COURT SCHEDULE WITH CHAMPION TIGER FIVE

Once it has been all present, as view of this, and despite the excellent record of the Tau, Captains "Bill" Keene and his teammates feel that they have more than an even chance to give the visitors their first defeat of the season in the Invinc- ible League.

Getting back into the history of the Pennsylvanians Princeton games, the records show that the University quintet with twenty-six triumphs holds the edge over the Tigers and Black in the twenty-two basketball meetings between the two universities. Last year Pennsylvanians won on the Tigers' home floor by a slender margin of one point, while the Princeton Five defeated the Red and Blue in the Weightman Hall after an extra period of play.

Arrangements have been made whereby the results of the game will be broadcast from Station WCAC, located in the Hotel Pennsylvania. This station is in charge of Burton & Co.
