Wharton School's Newspaper Survey Shows Front-Page Space Given Crime

This "crime news" occupies a relatively small proportion of the front pages in the average American newspaper as compared to news which may also be called as celebrative and educational, as revealed by a survey of the front pages of 120 leading Eastern newspapers made in the Wharton School recently. The survey, which covers editions of the eight newspapers from 1891 to 1916, with figures from 1896 to 1928 for 100 newspapers, shows that in the survey the front page was given over to crime news 16.5 per cent of the time.

The survey was made by a group of Wharton students, working under the supervision of Dr. Parke A. Drinson, head of the department of political science.

The survey was made in connection with a study of the connection between the newspaper and the public. The results are to be published in a book to be issued shortly.

Penman Bowl Contest Will Include Basketball and Swimming

The Pennsylvania Bowl, which will be held in Philadelphia on Dec. 21, will include basketball as well as swimming.

The basketball game will be played on the same day as the swimming events. The Pennsylvania Bowl is scheduled for the same day as the swimming events, and the basketball game will be held at 2 p.m., with the swimming events scheduled to begin at 3 p.m.

The swimming events will include the 100-yard freestyle, 200-yard freestyle, 400-yard medley relay, 800-yard freestyle relay, and 1600-yard freestyle relay.

The basketball game will be played on a home court for the Pennsylvania team, and the swimming events will be held in a swimming pool.

The Pennsylvania Bowl is an annual football tournament that is sponsored by the Pennsylvania State University and the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. The tournament is held in order to provide a competitive environment for high school football teams in the state of Pennsylvania.
Are you thinking of going into business? Thousands of school men are contemplating this step. If you are at this time, have you thought your way through the problem? A few years ago our staff would give you such an insight into a group of sales and business principles as you can get on no other way.

If you have a strong, broad idea that you might be able to hold with you and the work you have been following, try the University Extension. We have trained over a half million men and women. Our active student body of 95,000 averages over 30 years of age. The business they are in management. Their laboratory is at once diversified and unified, with the faculty of any of the great universities. School Superintendents and Principals of the right type can qualify for important and lucrative positions in our membership extension work, and we would like to discuss a permanent connection with our institution with a few promising school men.

University Tennis team calls out candidates

Applicants for team and managerial competition will meet in the Houston Club, today.

Law school courts now open

Candidates for the University and Freshman court teams will meet at the court which will be held on the Houston Club tennis courts at 1:30 p.m. Candidates for the intercollegiate competition will be picked at the same time. All teams in good standing are eligible for this competition and are urged to report.

The Red and Black tennis team will meet Columbus University in the match of the season on the Westmister Tennis courts in New York City April 22. The Freshman team will also open the season on the same day when it opposes the Hill School squad at Pottstown.

It will be impossible to conduct a tournament to select the team which will represent the University on the court this year as was planned, since the River Field courts, upon which the matches were to be held, will not be completed before the end of this season. The team will be chosen by selecting a tentative list of the candidates, and all those who desire to compete for places on the team will challenge the members of this list.

The Law School tennis courts, at Thirty-fourth and Chestnut Streets, are new and ready for use. Tickets admitting holder to the courts towards five times will be sold for $2.50. White with the price of extra tickets is $1.00. Tickets each dollar will be charged for holders. Holders of tickets will also be entitled to admission to the Woodward Avenue courts.

A WEEK OF CARNIVAL

To the man who is athletically or socially inclined, and to most of us either one or both, this week is a mean hide. It is the one at most activity and significance during the term. Social and athletic events are at their zenith on Friday and Saturday, it marks the turning point of the season, after which all open toward slow, thin, clear and determined. Of all the year it most appropriately could be termed Carnival Week. The annual Pennsylvania Relays, a track and field display of national and international import, probably deserves first place in a chorus of pupil approval. It is preceded by the Spring Regatta, which will be held on the Schuylkill on Monday and Tuesday afternoons, bringing together boats from every town. The Varsity baseball, nine meets Stadiums on Franklin Field on Wednesday prior to the departures on a two-month tour of New England.

In the first week’s run at the Forrest Stadium, this Mark and Wig show will make its concluding appearance on Saturday night. The program has been altered in the last post-season performances, “Joan of Arkansas” will have definitely passed into history when the finals of this Saturday night. The “Regiment-Picnic” in Weigle’s famous on Friday will mark the conclusion of the University social season. The Pennsylvania Invites communications on all subjects pi

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

The concentration of opinion about the recent championship evening hour is that "That's Mark certainly turned out to be a poor Paul doubter."

It is reported that Men's explanation of the affair was that Ely was so short that he wasn't able to get his finger held on him. If Men has had the advantage of some of our Business Law courses it would probably enter against the Arena for building the platform as close to the new church.

We had thought for a few days that some of our alumni were becoming very "high hail" when they wouldn't speak in the street, but it is finally exploded that they have rooted substantially for Zerlina at the home and had them able to strike out their tongues for a couple of hour afternoon.

We see that the Philadelphian editor-in-chief, Meikin, present of the Forrest Ball, will not continue to be a demand of his corner during the coming year.

Varsity trials in the time of 23.40 sec-ronds. Smith and Peeler won second and third place, respectively, after a close contest of race. In the Promotion 100-yard run River Byrde, who represents the New York Athletic Club in open contests, won easily. In winning this race he exceeded the time of 13.16 and 60 yards, made in the Varsity trials at this distance.
