ITINERARY OF EUROPEAN TOUR INCLUDES EXTENSIVE TRIP IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Sailing on the C. & O. Le Havre line from New York, the 1927 Penn State baseball team will embark on its European trip, which will take it to France, England, and Switzerland. The team will be under the direction of Coach John J. Reinert, who has been selected as the team's manager. The trip will include visits to several historic sites, such as the Louvre and the Eiffel Tower. Conversations and guides will be provided at all stops, and the team will spend several days in each city, giving them ample opportunity to take in the sights and sounds of the surrounding areas. The team will also have the opportunity to play several games against local teams, providing a valuable opportunity to test their skills against international competition.

HUNGERA RELAY TEAM HOLDS DOLLARS

Leon Burkhart, of Tredyffrin, and A. K. Perrin, a sophomore at Oxford, are the holders of the University of Pennsylvania Relay Team trophy, which was awarded to them for their outstanding performances in recent matches. The trophy is given to the team that finishes first in each of the four relay events, and the team that has the highest number of points at the end of the season is declared the winner. In this year's competition, the team was able to secure the trophy through a series of impressive performances, including a victory in the 400-yard relay event. The team's success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the members, who have worked tirelessly to prepare for the competition.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

Thursday, April 23, 1925

The Permanent Committee for the Awarding of This Week's Hard Luck Prize is sincerely in sympathy with the Freshmen who spent the Easter vacation practicing for the marble tournament only to find that the University did not have a team entered.

The consensus of opinion on the campus at present seems to be that the first hundred years are not the hardest, but that the last six weeks are.

Possibly it would be a good idea to inform the members of the Student and War-student that we have four members of the class who will be here to tutor them when they return to their studies next week.

It may be taken as a compliment to the G. and D. department that all of the students feel so well acquainted with the United States that they are all going to Europe for the summer.

The efforts of our editorial colleague, headed "A Week of Carnival," seems to us to be rather rubbing it in on the men who are at present devoting their time to re-examinations.

Some day we're going to figure the thing out accurately, but, of course, it seems to us that by doubling the number of candidates on any route, one will be able to see a little bit more of the men, that they will not have to matriculate in the Mask and Wig, and that they will not have to matriculate at all.

One of the editors who hangs over our shoulder for two hours every day asking when we are going to be through with this type-written stuff and is really quite angry, suggested that we think the faculty management should have a real handle on this matter for the next year. With any number of titles attached, instructors, according to his plan, would be given a handicap over the underclassmen, on account of not having had as much experience in taking the students over the hurdles. This plan, in addition with the present idea of a revision of University of granting the instructors by the students, and, after expressing our approval of it we hung it over in the proper authorities.

The announcement of the approval of the blazers for the Seniors is the news of the hour. Some day we hope to see a significant number wearing a black and white, and later, we assume, a pink derby, rainbow necktie, checked blazer, blue, green, red, yellow, brown, and pink striped golf stockings, yellow shoes, a yellow stickler, carrying a new monogram. This is a diet and Blue key on the weekly chain, bending against a red felt patch in his Spring suit has a Whale bone of grading the city boy giving it to his Senior wearing a blazer (of red and blue), we assume.

Little ladies who have done so much work for the Freshmen during the last three weeks that they are now devoting their time to the Undergraduate Council. The Freshmen and their friends are the only enemies of the Undergraduate Council so as to include the members of both these groups within the fold of the blazers. Thus year

The whalebone and the whale

The poor fellow who is torn between the conflicting tastes of boiling out of the United States and taking a trip with his Spring suit has a Whale bone of a Problem.

But if he selects the Whale Bone he sacrifices the style and utility of dark blue with the neatness and individuality of a beautiful waist. THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS
