Professor Discusses "Paris Conference"

Dr. Charles H. Winchell, title of his Organization, and His Work in Its Meetings

GATHERING IS WELL ATTENDED

In a Lecture given in Houston Hall Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Charles Ringer, the President of the University of Minnesota, spoke on "The Paris Conference, 1919. Its Organization and Methods." He said the work of the United States was "made on life by the use of instruments machinery. Much machinery was, for example, the Imperial Economic Committee, organized by the German government, that of the Societies of Friendship to the Stranger people of Europe. But the organizing of these committees was not planned. The only purpose before the Conferences for the organization was to form a State. The territorial committee were less systematically chosen, being given to them for something with which they were not controlled.

"Nineteenth, decisions, on the front of Europe were only made after the decision. The problem connected with the decisions varied, the Conference having to take into consideration the economic and social conditions, such as the transportation and commodities of the nation. In spite of its mistakes, the Paris Conference did not prevent a momentous movement of the world. The question of time allowed the eight nation decisions to be made."
FRANKLY, WE CAN'T UNDERSTAND IT. WE ARE DISAPPOINTED.

AFTER OUR DEMONSTRATING SO UN.SUCCESSFULLY YESTERDAY THAT WE CANNOT

WRITE POETRY, AND OFFERING TO PUBLISH THE STUFF OF ALL THE "RUBB鲈."

STUDENT BODY, WE FIND THAT NOT A SINGLE CONTRIBUTION IN VERSES IS SENT. WE HAVE TO GO ON IN THE USUAL PROSAIC FASHION.

IT SERVES YOU RIGHT, YOU SOWBERRIES.

THE FRANKLIN VIGILANCE COMMITTEE IS REPORTED TO BE CONSIDERING

WHAT MEANS OF PUNISHMENT SHOULD BE HANDLED OUT TO SOME SOWBERRIES WHO DID NOT TAKE PART IN THE PARADE.

PARADING DOWN CHESTNUT STREET SEEMED TO BE A MATTER OF HABIT WITH A GOOD MANY SOWBERRIES, THOUGH.

WE DON'T BELIEVE THAT THERE IS ANY TRUTH AT ALL IN THE RUMOR THAT OUR BAND MEMBERS FILLED THE HOURS OF THE POLICE ROLL WITH SONGS IN ORDER TO DRAW THEM OUT. IT PROBABLY JUST AN APRON CIRCULATED BY SOME PROJUDICED PEASANTRY WHO HAD LICKED THEIR THROAT DURING A ROW BOTTOM.

WE ARE SAD TO SEE, THOUGH, UPON LOOKING AROUND THE EVENT, THAT THE "FRANKLIN FIELD PLOW PLOWED" IF WE PUT ANY LOWER IN OUR WORK, IT LOOKS AS IF JUNIUS IN THAT "WE COULD HAVE CANTS" WE WOULD DO.

AND NOW WE ARE DEAD TO THE OLD DRY. SOME PROJUDICED MIGHT BE IMPRESSED TO SEE THEM WEAR STRAWS IN A PLAIN MANIER LIKE THOSE WEAR TO POPULARIZE THE LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL GAME, BUT THAT VIOLATES THE LAW BY WHICH WE ARE TRACTED TO A PERSPECTIVE OF THE VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.

A LARGE AMOUNT OF OUR DAY WAS SPENT ON FRANKLIN FIELD proposal, AND IT LOOKS AS IF THE PROTESTANT PENNY FARSE WILL BE WORTH

IT. IT SEEMS AS IF THIS WOULD BECOME A TRADITION OF OUR SOWBERRY COMING AND THE FRANKLIN FIELD.

IF PENNSYLVANIA WINS THE FOOTBALL GAME WITH YALE, THE PENNSYLVANIA COMMITTEE WILL PROBABLY NOT BE ROBUST TO THE PRESS ENS, BUT IN ORDER TO MAKE IT A REAL CELEBRATION WE WILL HAVE TO BEAR THE YALE FANS.

and Universities. I hope our plans for the future will cause our hopes. This meeting is a filling opening for the Great drive being launched today.”

"For nearly two hundred years," Mr. Ludlow Bald, "the University of Pennsylvania has grown with Philadelphia. Her Ben Franklin is the Ben Franklin of Philadelphia. The University's growth and the growth of the city are interlocked.

"We believe that Philadelphia is going to realize the importance of the University of Pennsylvania. What we have is not merely a university, but part of our national and city life. Approximately one-third of our 16,000 students are from Philadelphia. We have a big program to launch to the public today."

The student body gave "a locomotive" for Dr. Pennsylvania and cheers for the various other speakers. The cheering was led by Eddie Cox, star of the Mask and Wig Club. The song, "Fight On, Pennsylvania," was joined in by the entire student body.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Pennsylvania held a reception for the alumni at his home, 1037 Pine Street, and "old grads" from all parts of the country were present.

George Brinon Phillips, who was graduated from the University sixty-three years ago, holds the distinction of being the graduate who was in attendance and dinner last night.

BOTH are institutions at Old Penn. When the winning run scores in the ninth inning, bringing the stands into a frenzy of cheering, straw hats—new or old—are tossed into the air.
