CURTAIN RISES ON
Zelo Play Tonight

"Niobe, All Smiles," Chosen as Society's Annual Spring Production

Final preparations were completed yesterday for the presentation of the Zelosophic Society's annual spring production, "Niobe, All Smiles." The play will be given tonight at the Philomusian Club at 8 o'clock, and it is considered one of the best shows that the society has ever offered.

Mr. and Mrs. William Price, the former a Zelo graduate, have been coaching the production and have developed some very fine material. Miss Helen Boese has been selected to fill the leading role, while Miss Grace Purnett, who is taking the part of Niobe, will play opposite her.

The plot of the play begins when Niobe, a Greek godess who is always weeping, is turned to marble by the gods. The statue is later bought by an art collector, who insures it for a large sum, and it is in his house that the play is given. Dunn is coaching the actors. The show also has a clever plot. It is based around the fact that too many young men are graduating from the course in chemistry, so an efficiency expert with a Bachelor of Science in Flunking is hired to prevent the students from ending their college careers successfully. A skit will be given by two Mask and Wiggers, Robert Siwer and Jack Bostock, at an added time this evening.

Many of the alumni have promised to be on hand to hear the success of the show. Those attending the performance may also participate in a game to hold immediately afterward. Tickets may be secured at the National Laboratory and will be $1 a couple and 50c a single.

The play was written by Miss Grace Barnett, who is a Zelo graduate, has improved over last year's by including a dancing chorus.

THE CHEMICAL CLUB SHOW TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY

Members of the Friedrich Chemical Club will produce their annual show tonight. "A Play as We Will Go, or Five Men in a Crooked Room," the play will be given at 8 o'clock in Houston Hall, William Merrall, Jr., E., '28, wrote the play, and with the assistance of Carl Dohrmann to coach the actors. The show has improved over last year's by including a dancing chorus.

The play as usual contains many hits by the professors of chemistry. The show also has a clever plot. It is based around the fact that too many men are graduating from the course in chemistry, so an efficiency expert with a Bachelor of Science in Flunking is hired to prevent the students from ending their college careers successfully. A skit will be given by two Mask and Wigers, Robert Siwer and Jack Bostock, at an added time this evening.

PIT THE COLUMNIST

About this time each year, with the assurance of new relations to the control of the various publications boards, there is a noticeable apathy in the attitude of undergraduates as a whole, which earlier in the term received their unqualified support.

The reason for this predilection which controls the editors is not difficult in fact; spring, the approaching final exams, and other causes contribute to the down trend of student support. Despite this lastly, the work of producing these pages from those upperclassmen who do take this up in an editorial capacity is that over yawning space to our right, the Penn and column.

For the above reasons the greater part with have taken on these same encouraging features, and although this is an editorial to satisfy that over yawning space to our right, the Penn and column.

To those who have any talents along these lines, or otherwise, we direct this appeal, urging any and all to mail or leave contributions at our office in Houston Hall.

THE FOOTBALL REFERENDUM

With a view to settling the old problem of avertierenomination, the undergraduate Council has ordered a popular referendum for a football holiday during the season of 1925. As our readers will recall, a committee referred to as the Football Committee, which was appointed to prepare a recommendation to the proper authorities on the subject of a football holiday, has completed its work and the referendum has been scheduled for the first week of May.

For the above reason the point of this letter is that we who have any talents along these lines, or otherwise, we direct this appeal, urging any and all to mail or leave contributions at our office in Houston Hall.

THE OUCTION REFERENDUM

At the end of the previous football season, the undergraduate Council had ordered a referendum on the subject of a football holiday, and the results of this referendum were announced at the beginning of this term. The referendum was held in the fall, and a majority of the votes cast were in favor of a football holiday.

Every man will have an opportunity to vote on the question of the referendum, and it is hoped that all members of the University will turn out to vote. The referendum will be held on the last day of classes, and the results will be announced at the beginning of the next term.

THE FIRST TWO MILLIONS

If an ample budget is necessary to carry on the work of the University, it is generally agreed that a large endowment fund is desirable. The endowment fund is the financial cornerstone of the University, and the management of it is an important task.

The management of the endowment fund requires careful and responsible consideration, and it is hoped that the members of the University will cooperate in this work.
