Woodrow Speaker at Second of Zelosophic Receptions

John will hold the second of his three receptions for Freshmen and other undergraduates who are interested in literary work this evening. The attendance at last week's reception was very satisfactory and it is hoped that the committee in charge that the men will avail themselves of the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with one of the oldest of University institutions.

As the chief speaker for the evening the society has obtained Mr. Graham C. Woodard, a prominent Philadelphia lawyer and an ex-student of Zelos. Zelos Club has been secured as another feature on the evening's program.

PHILo WILL HOLD
TRYOUTS TONIGHT

In the past, membership in Phi has been restricted to fifty men. During the past few years, however, the number of applications for membership has so greatly eclipsed the number of vacancies left that graduating members are no longer interested in participating in the society. In order to make membership unlimited, the committee is hopeful that over 7000 Yale tickets will sell out.

OVERTONE

Unrivalled for their style - The cut and make marks our clothes with that "College Individuality".
THE EMIGRATION BEGINS

Today the giant campus is beginning. Most of the Pennsylvania undergraduate body along with many of the alumni will travel toward the Mecca which is geographically called New Haven, either today or tomorrow, or on a future date when their plans are made. It is a novel state of mind which prompts a student to stay behind the team until the ultimate victory. It is a spirit which characterised the "We've Got to Beat Cornell" campaign of two years ago. It is an indomitable spirit which makes the cheering section to stay behind the team until the final whistle and urges it on to an ultimate victory. It is the spirit which conquers.

The alumni is also enthusiastic over the prospects of the Yale big game. It will no doubt give them an opportunity to see the quality of the two teams. The alumni will be run on all railroads which can gain access to New Haven or in another way, in the large trains.

Saturday will be a banner day in Pennsylvania history, and the outcome of the contest will be watched with great interest in all parts of the country. We wish, whether in New Haven or watching the "Gridiron" account of the game at the Sydney Tech, a large proportion of the spirit and "vote on" because WE MUST BEAT YALE.

NOW FOR THE DUES

In today's issue, The Pennsylvania publishes the complete personnel of the committee in charge of collecting class dues from members of the Class of 1927. After some consultation of this pestilently serious class problem, it was decided to form a committee of the responsible members of the Junior Class best calculated to work out the solution of Twenty-seven. Whether this body will be successful in securing their committee from their present lethargy only time will tell, but in our opinion a campaign organized by them should prove the most adequate and effective method of dealing with the situation.

The formation of a committee does not obliterate the fact that the payment of the assessment is an individual problem. Every man in Twenty-seven must come to realize, as do others, that the class must resolve itself into a committee of the whole in order to make the dues widespread and effective. If one man decides to strike out on his own, as many have up to the present writing, the class will fall short in its goal to that extent. Multiply the individual example by five hundred and you have a situation manifestly impossible of being solved.

It is a novel state of mind which prompts a student to give up his franchise and to dissolve his membership in the class for the sake of the equivalent of a football ticket. It is especially true when a class includes so many that they block the formation of plans for the impending Junior Week festivities.

The Committee is organized. Possibly their efforts will meet with more success than in previous years. However, one thing is certain. The whole campaign will be unsuccessful and the Thanksgiving Week festivities will lose their traditional glimmer if the individual members of 1927 do not readily and voluntarily respond to this final effort to redeem the good name of the class.

B. F. KEITHS THEATRE
Comedy songs and dances are the predominant features of the exceptionally strong bill of opera corns that will be presented at B. F. Keith’s Theatre during the week of October 12th. The program is made up entirely of offerings to be seen exclusively in this theatre and with few exceptions the acts are all new to the city.

Headliner distinction is given to Raymond, known as the “Blue Streak” of Yankee who is a regular feature here each year and one of the most popular stage personalities on the Keith Alive Circuit. Personality, individuality and popularity form the keynote. Raymond’s reputation second to none on the American stage. The speed with which she sings her songs and cursed herself (the title of “Blue Streak” is in his way with her change from need to need, from pathos to comedy and back and in this way she gives to each song a touch of originality possessed by no other singer.

She will have a marvellous of new songs to sing her and will be assisted on the piano by Mildred Lund.

A special added attraction will be Ernest Bubli, one of the season’s brightest and newest stars, a young and versatile colman who makes his first appearance in this theatre in a comedy role, called “A Clever Tailor.”

He will be supported by May Coca, a clever comedienne with a fine voice and a company of Broadway players who help Raymond keep her at right place from start to finish.

AT THE STANLEY
"Graustark" has come to life! The magic picture of intrigue and romance which flowed freely from the pen of B. F. Keith with the colors of reality, and Graustark, George Barr McCutcheon has given us into the kingdom, and the story lives upon the screen. And it is fitting that all films have a goal. Norma Talmadge should appear in the starring role as the lovely and beautiful Princess Helene. The picture will have its first showing at the Stanley Theatre the week of October 12th, with a big surrounding program, including special music by the Stanley Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Graham Harris, pianist conductor.

The presentation of "Graustark" is particularly notable in three things: First, that it takes Norma Talmadge out of the character roles which won her acclaim in "Secrets" and "The Lady" and brings her once more to her altitudes in the lovely, romantic, romantic character which she has more religiously followed through "the Magdalen" and "Run for the Roses." "Graustark" is everybody knows, the forerunner of a series of McCutcheon screen sagas centered in the tiny, romantic and partly mythical kingdom which presents a picture to the world.

A wonderful love story, woven in the mold of some of the best thrillers ever produced—a thrilling mystery told Mildred "Graustark"—is this "The Phantom of the Opera," Lon Chaney’s successor to "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which received a tremendous success at the Alhambra Theatre last week, and which enters upon the second week of its engagement there tomorrow. This Universal picture shows a new Lon Chaney in a new type of role—a further told to burdens of titanic magnificence. Gorgeous costumes, brilliant production, filmed in original colors in the largest scenes ever made for a motion picture—these vie with the dina and serial collars under Paris, where the Phantom-haunted city holds ghostly sway. It is beautiful—in spots. It is grotesque—in spots. Its mystery lures and its spectacles stuns. Its thriller keeps one breathless. It is something new—and something very amazing.

RED AND BLUE GRIDIRON
WARRIORS INVADE NEW HAVEN

Confident from Page One

before the El squad took possession of the gridiron.
A long pressing practice started off the afternoon, so that the backs could become acquainted with the air currents in the huge stadium. Following this, the team was drilled in various formations which served to help the Red and Blue players acquaint themselves with the turf. A long signal drill concluded the workout.

When the Varsity lined up for this drill, Captains Joe Wilson was back at its position at left tackle. In Wednesday's workout his place was taken by Ike and his presence in the forenoon's indicates that he will be in the game against the El team when the opening whistle blows on Saturday.

Back Pike still had a place at quarter

but before the afternoon's workout was filed Ike and But Ike was back at its old position which player will start is a matter of uncertainty, but that But Ike will start is certain. The backfield was the same that started and played throughout the entire Brown game and unless some unexpected shift is made in the last minute the quartet composed of Hill, Rogers, Field, and Kreus will start again

the Bulldog.

Following the intensive drill the team

may try to the Yale squad, and the trip back to Derby was made. A short black signal drill will be carried out in the Pennsylvania squad tonight and a little light exercise will be allowed tomorrow.

Photo drill for the Red and Blue squad going to the bowl again will be arranged for the next polishing up for the big clash.

From the enthusiasm and confidence that radiates around New Haven and its surroundings, it is apparent that the building confident Yale squad will be unable in a task that no other team has time for two years. Yale feels confident in the every one of their first major contest of this season.

The day of the game, the Red and Blue will have breakfast at the Bowl

Hotel, but the Pennsylvania squad who are trying to secure a country club somewhere around the Bowl for luncheon on Saturday so that the players will not have to

to travel immediately before the confident. The entire party will have its in at the Bowl within an hour after the game ends and will arrive back in Philadelphia before midnight. Sunday.

The Yale cup, although deprived by the loss of Captain Joe, feels almost certain that victory will be theirs. In the matter of reserve material the Blue cup is even better supplied than the Red and Blue. Two complete teams and three backfield of almost equal strength are ready and ready to take the field against Pennsylvania.

Ted Jones said, "We expect to have plenty of trouble with Pennsylvania, but I have a wealth of materials and the team is in fine fettle."

ESTABLISH FOREST

PRESERVE AT YALE

200 acres of land in the Bay Trucks Memorial tract, near the Yale golf course, have been set aside as a preserve for the native plant and animal life of the region. The Memorial tract was presented to the New Haven institution by Mrs. Tottenham as a memorial to her husband, who was one of the most famous athletes ever to wear the Yale Blue.

The preserve will be used for field studies and instruction by the departments of botany, zoology and forestry.

The extensive tract has been under excellent care for a long while. At one time it was used as a game preserve and elk, and the wire fences which confined the animals still stand

now. The outlet, Dana H. S., 媒體 that the Yale Forestry School said of the animals, which were of great interest to the biologist, and within easy reach of the forest school, and that the students will have the opportunities for research and for class work in the field.

MOVING PICTURES
USED BY EDUCATORS

Hiring pictures are being put to use by the faculty of Penn State University, where the films are being used to augment the instruction facilities.

The New Jersey institution is one of the first colleges to apply this method of teaching to any of its courses. The instructor declares that the latter part of last week in the classes dealing with "The History of the American Colonies," "Jefferson," "Buffalo Bill," "The Revolution," and "The Rise of the French Republic," the students were introduced to the life of the early settlers in Virginia. It is one of the series of historical screen productions known as "The Chronicles of America." The series, which is the work of the Department of History at Yale, is required to be the best kind because of its accuracy and detail. Other films in the group are entitled "The Pilgrims," "Peter Stuyvesant," "The Gateway to the West," and "The Eve of the Revolution."

SEVERAL of the smaller colleges of the Middle West have tried out this idea with some success. It is estimated by well-known educators that, if the use of films in college classes were as general as it is here, the process would be 85 per cent more effective than the class and textbook system used at present by some of our colleges.

WHY YOU NEED THIS GUIDE

"It is idle to talk of the value of study if we neglect the art of learning how to study.

"For study is divided into two parts:

1. The art of learning how to study.
2. The art of learning what to study.

The first is the more important."

WILLIAM ALLEN BROWN

Why You Need This Guide

"It is a great mistake to suppose that great ability is the result of much study. Ability is the result of study."

"To study is to work just as if you were working on a delicate apparatus, or in a chemical laboratory."

THE PENNSYLVANIAN PICTORIAL SUPPLEMENT

CLARK CRAIG
Head Coach of the Freshmen football team.

"AL" KRUZ
whose kicking and all-around play were outstanding features in the Pennsylvania-Brown game of last Saturday.

FRANK DE WIEDEN
who is assisting in the coaching of the junior football squad.
JOHN WRIGHT
who was chosen Vice-President of the Senior Class in a recent election.

JACK KEFFER, OF THE BROWN UNIVERSITY TEAM who due to his fine playing in last Saturday's game won the admiration of all Pennsylvania roots.

"CHARLIE" DECON, HALF-BACK OF THE BROWN TEAM
Decon's plucky fighting in the last quarter of the Pennsylvania Brown game was a great stimulus to his team, and prevented Pennsylvania from scoring in that quarter.

Looking Ahead

A great man once said, "Be not the first on which the new is tried nor yet the last to lay the old aside."

Our haberdashery looks ahead, but NOT too far.
PENNSYLVANIA'S NEWLY INSTALLED TENNIS COURTS
These courts on River Field are at present the scene of the Annual Fall Tennis Tournament.

Walk-Over

$10
Top Grade Russian Calfskin. Oversize single sole with storm welt

How much too good can a shoe be made?
Your own eyes tell you that this is a mighty good looking shoe. What you can't see is Walk-Over quality. That's the better leather, better fit and better workmanship that makes Walk-Overs feel better, walk further, and stay good longer. If any shoe can be made better than it need be, a Walk-Over shoe is it.

Browning King & Co.

A TRIP abroad and a close study of London styles preceded the "Londoner" Model. The coat is notably short, graduating gracefully down from the breadth in the shoulders to the snugness at the hips. In lapel length, pocket positions and every fine detail, our English Designers have here duplicated the London mode of the moment.

The Hat illustrated is the new Browning King "Londoner" for Fall
